

PERSONAL FROM THE EDITOR'S PEN

Nashville, Tennessee, Orlando, Florida and Phoenix, Arizona are the cities we held conferences at since our last newsletter. There was a total of 13 baptisms into Christ Jesus (Galatians 3:27) and we had marvelous answers to the prayers over the sick.

While in Nashville, Tennessee, this preacher attended the National Religious Broadcasting Convention that was held there. President Bush spoke there and from what I could see, there is no resistance from that crowd to his war mongering. The place gets crowded more and more with the antichrist Jews. As a joke and an illustration, I picked up a free "Jews for Jesus" bag marked with a big six pointed star and carried it around the exhibition floor. It was my way of being incognito amongst the many Judeo-Christians there. Then, as a joke, I stood in front of a Jew display that was there and had my picture taken with a Jew beanie on my head and an Israeli flag and a menorah in the background. I then had it put up on our internet site. My! What a conversation that one generated. No, your pastor has not gone Judeo-Christian on you. He just still retains a sense of humor. Before I left the display, I tried to buy the Jew beanie (yarmulke) but it wasn't for sale.

I wish I would have had it going through the Nashville, Tennessee airport and I am not joking. Leaving Nashville for Orlando, Florida, my wife and I got singled out for what they call the "extra security check" which happens right before you board the plane, after you've already gone through the metal detectors and x-ray machines. Not only is it a farce and degrading, it is just a way for more parasite bureaucrats and law enforcement to justify their jobs. Having held the meeting in Nashville, we took an offering to defray the expenses and thus I had cash on me, but the "Patriot Act" allows us so-called free Americans to carry up to five thousand dollars in cash and I was well below that figure. When the airport security saw the cash, they called the police and so came three of them with SWAT insignias on their uniforms. The next thing I know, in Jew, Communist, Russian style, my wife and I are standing against the wall while the other passengers are parading by us onto the plane staring at us as we are being interrogated about the money. This was no small matter and three men who, no doubt, must justify their jobs were not reasonable. This process held the plane up for twenty minutes and even the captain came out and asked us why we were being detained and when I told him, he indignately responded by saying "since when is it a crime to carry cash?" They told my wife to go ahead and board and when she refused saying she was not leaving her husband's side, they got angry. Big brother doesn't like to be disobeyed. Finally, when I could see the situation was getting out of hand, I took my wife's hand and prayed and as soon as we finished, the whole demeanor of the Gestapo Communist thugs changed. They said they decided not to call the DEA but to let us load on the cattle car, i.e., airplane. Dear Christians, we have great power available to us through prayer.

It was almost funny, though I did not laugh to hear the officer start to apologize for holding us up and explain how they were just doing their job protecting us all from terrorism because that is how the terrorist gets funds to other terrorist i.e., via cash on airplanes. The truth is the dumb goyim didn't understand he was just working for the antichrist Jew bankers who make no money off of us carrying and having cash. For example, before boarding on the plane in Orlando, Florida, I had to convert some cash to traveler's checks which cost me $20.00. Thus, the antichrist parasite Jew banker money changers got $20.00 plus the use of $2,000.00 cash which backs the checks they loan out on interest. All because I have to face their uniformed thugs before getting on an airplane, who think they are protecting me from terrorism by forcing the cash into the hand of the bankers. Aren't you happy that Jew Communism is dead Comrades? You can rest assured had I had a Jew beanie on my head and a little menorah in my carry-on bag, I would have been treated differently. Dumb goyim slaves behave differently around their masters.

OUR NIGHTLY SHORT-WAVE AND INTERNET BROADCASTS are listened to by multiple thousands. Those who listened to our Monday evening broadcast, February 24, 2003, wherein we interviewed Malcolm Ross in Canada, found out that the antichrist, Jewish-lead persecution in Canada is worse than in America. On that broadcast, he tells of what has happened to a man who dare question the figure of six million Jews dying in a Holocaust. You can order that broadcast from us or go to our internet site where it is archived and you can listen to it there (www.scripturesforamerica.org).

INTERNET CHURCH AND COMMUNION-I hope and pray that the remnant I am privileged to pastor and teach will order our book that is being printed concerning the subject of communion. (See our article in this newsletter). Communion is a must and it has occurred to me of late that with the new technology of internet television, that we could invest in the equipment and ISDN line for the LaPorte Church of Christ and many of you could attend, via the internet, and take communion at that time with us. We need to hear from you if you would be interested in doing so before proceeding further on this. So please, write to us and let us know if you are interested. Presently, our live internet radio broadcasts are being tuned into in ever growing numbers so it could be that weekly live church attendance at the LaPorte Church of Christ could grow by the thousands, but we do need to hear from you on this before investing several thousand dollars to make it happen.

SPEAKING OF MONEY AND INVESTMENT, read and seriously consider our feature article "God's Covenant of Blessing-The Perfect Investment". Of late, many new Christians have asked about this subject. We also have two tapes on tithing (#224, #225). About tithing I would like to share with you a story that was shared with me by an old preacher. He was an old preacher when I was a young man studying to be a preacher in Bible College. He was a professor there and told of his earlier preaching days (we are talking back in the twenty and thirties). He had been a well known and extremely successful evangelist in those days, holding tent meetings and revivals throughout America. He was one of the best preachers I had and have ever heard. He preached back in the days when there were no microphones. I would have loved to have heard him when he was in his prime. He was a WWI hero an ex and successful prizefighter and an opera singer and when he was converted to Christ, he was really converted and dedicated his life to preaching. He told of a man who heard him preach and arranged a meeting with him. This man was a very wealthy, international merchant and had made a certain coursette women wore in those days internationally famous. (It doesn't take much in the way of deduction to conclude he was a Jew). The man wanted to make a deal with the old preacher who was young and in his prime at the time. He told the preacher that he could make him more famous than Billy Sunday (a famous old-time preacher and evangelist) because he was better than Billy Sunday and because Billy Sunday had not had access to sound systems and radio. The deal was that he would be the promoter and supply the crew, radio outlets, sound system, etc., and they would split the offering, however there were two strings attached. One was that he could not preach on the subject of baptism for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38), nor on tithing. The preacher was not a man that could be bought or sold or told what he could or could not preach or teach on. I am so thankful he taught me to tithe. He used to preach how God said "test me" and said if God didn't keep His word then burn your Bibles. "Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows." (Malachi 3:10,11). I always loved and admired that old man, although before he died he considered me a heretic because of what I preached concerning true Israel.

There will be difficult times ahead, but for His people who are faithful to Him, all will be fine and blessings will flow if they are faithful.

You will note that I have renamed our column for Christian women "Dedicated to the Hands that Rock the Cradle". The old adage "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the nation" is true and that is why our adversary and his children promoted the lie called "women's liberation". I hope you enjoy the article written by my late wife Cheri and introduced by my daughter Jody.

I encourage you to observe the Passover and the 91st days we wrote about in our last newsletter. When you do, you'll find a holy boldness coming into your life.

For you antichrist creatures that monitor this newsletter, I command you and warn you to leave His redeemed people alone or else... "For He delivered us from the domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of His beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins." (Colossians 1:13,14). "And He said to them, I was watching Satan fall from heaven like lightning. Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall injure you." (Luke 10:17-19)

In closing, we thank those of you who help sustain this ministry with your prayers and faithful support and please know this pastor prays for you (III John 2).

"Finally, brethren, pray for us that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified, just as it did also with you; and that we may be delivered from perverse and evil men; for not all have faith." (2 Thessalonians 3:1-3)

GOD'S COVENANT OF BLESSING

The Perfect Investment

Everyone is looking for that perfect investment. You know. The one that is 100% guaranteed to preserve your capital and always produce great interest and dividends. We want a sure thing! No risk. Just profit! Impossible you say?

Yes! Such a program does exist. God gave us a special formula for blessing and prosperity in every facet of our life. He made a covenant with His people, guaranteeing a profitable position to all who will enter into His special provision. Financial blessing, spiritual peace and physical and emotional health are the promised return on this policy. It's called "tithing".

Abram, led of the Holy Spirit, paid tithe to Melchizaedek. (Genesis 14:18-20). Jacob pledged to tithe. (Genesis 28:22)

In God's formula, the tithe is 10% of the increase or profits from our labor, business or investments. He has established a system that provides a surety of blessing to those who will obey His command. There is no choice given concerning this obligation. It is the law of God.

Leviticus 27:30 declares: "Thus all the tithe of the land, of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree, is the Lord's; it is holy to the Lord."

God declares that the tithe belongs to Him. Yes, one-tenth of all of our increase, whether it is wages for our labor, profit from our business, or produce of our land, the tithe belongs to God. It is not ours. It belongs to Him. We have no right to withhold it. Nor can we dictate its use.

It is to be presented to those who provide the spiritual care for His people. They are to use it for their own support and provision. It is to be extended to meet the need of the widows, the stranger and the poor.

We often hear the remark, "let us give our tithe and offerings." Actually, we cannot give something that we do not own. God has declared His ownership of tithe.

We may present our tithe and give our offerings. There is a difference. The tithe belongs to God. The offering is a gift or pledge (vow) given freely from our own will. The tithe is to be paid. The offering is a gift. God prospers us through both.

Make no mistake, God has established a law for the economic blessing of His people. Those who walk in obedience will prosper. Those who refuse, are rejecting God's commitment to bless. They are actually cursed.

The Christian who does not tithe will not prosper. They may seem to do well for a season, but eventually will find themselves under an unexpected crisis. Their disobedience places them under the curse of failure. They cannot prosper.

Many Christians feel they may dictate the use of their tithe. They designate how or when it is to be spent. This is wrong. Those who pay the tithe have no authority to control its use.

Paying the tithe with conditions attached is not really paying at all. Such a person is still in control and has not relinquished his influence over it. Rest assured, that such a policy will bring frustration and disappointment, not blessing.

The Priests were given the responsibility of dispensing the tithe to its proper use. Those that God entrusted with the use of the tithe must answer to Him.

We may disagree with the judgment of those who receive the tithe. They may even misuse it or violate God's directive. That is their problem. They must answer to God for their stewardship. God will deal adequately with those who misuse the tithe entrusted to their care.

We will be blessed if we obey God in paying of the tithe. He will honor our obedience. Our blessing is secured. We cannot afford to violate His law.

Many Christians have cheated themselves and their family of God's blessing by withholding their tithe or designating its use.

Many have asked "to whom should I pay my tithe?" The Scripture is clear. It was to be brought to the Priests at the house of God. They were His representatives to the people.

Pay your tithe to those who provide your spiritual food and covering. It is to be used to provide for those who serve Him in spiritual leadership as stated in Numbers 18:24: "For the tithe of the sons of Israel, which they offer as an offering to the Lord, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance; therefore I have said concerning them, They shall have no inheritance among the sons of Israel."

Today, we have many apostate churches, preaching many untruths. A church structure is not necessarily the House of God. We should make conscience effort to pay our tithe to those who preach the truth, those who teach His word to the sheep of His pasture. We are to be faithful to those who provide our spiritual nourishment and covering.

The tithe is Holy unto the Lord.

That which is holy unto the Lord is to be handled with great care and reverence. The same care in keeping the other laws of God must be given to the law concerning tithes and offerings.

Some would make the argument that the tithe was Old Testament law and does not apply today. Most would never suggest that the Ten Commandments should be ignored, but seem to have little difficulty in robbing God of His tithe.

The tithe is not for personal use!

He has not given us permission to use it personally. Most of us will face financial difficulties at one time or another. We are tempted to feel that we cannot afford to pay tithe. Be assured that this is not true. The tithe is not ours. We have no right to appropriate it for our own use. God is more than able to make the 90% that He has reserved for us, adequate to cover our needs.

Some make excuses that "my need is such that I'll use the tithe to pay my bills". This is a dangerous situation. It makes little difference as to how it is spent. It is God's money. Any other use is actually stealing from God. This is sin and in fact, we cannot afford to not pay the tithe. Deuteronomy 26:13 reads: "You shall say before the Lord your God, I have removed the sacred portion from my house and also have given it to the Levite and the alien, the orphan and the widow, according to all Your commandments which You have com- manded me; I have not transgressed or forgotten any of Your commandments.”

Tithing is an act of faith. Isn't it strange that we can believe God for our redemption and spiritual need and doubt His ability to provide our daily care? Jesus made it very clear that He cares for our every need. (Luke 12:6, I Peter 5:6,7) It is much easier to pay our tithe or give an offering when we have abundance. The real test of faith comes when we pay the tithe knowing that only God can stretch our provision to meet the need. Malachi 3:10 says: “Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows.”

The promise of abundance and blessing is given to all that obey the law of the tithe. He promises to open the windows of heaven and add unto us more than we can contain. His blessings are without limit. They are not limited to things of tangible value.

This promise is reflected in many ways. We will flourish spiritually. Our obedience opens many doors of opportunity. We have sweet fellowship with Him. Faith and hope are quickened within us. Peace and confidence are a continuing presence. Our health is stabilized, our children have less sickness, health care costs diminish, tangible needs are unusually provided, the car needs fewer repairs, the material necessities of life actually last longer and we have fewer accidents and unexpected crisis’.

Actually, the 90% goes farther than would the 100% if we had not tithed. We may not understand this wonderful principle, but it is a miraculous truth.

In fact, every aspect of our life is enhanced with the special blessings produced through tithing. God actually invites us to test His faithfulness to bless those who tithe. Again, Malachi 3:10 says: “Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows.”

Violating God's command to tithe has devastating results. Both our spiritual relationship and tangible provision is restricted.

Disobedience in tithing reveals much more about our relationship with God than we realize. Certainly, fear and unbelief is involved. Selfishness may be a motivation.

The idea that “I earned it and it is mine” influences many to ignore this command of God. Perhaps fear and insecurity rule us. We may ask “how will I pay my bills?” or “how can I get by on just ninety percent of my income?”

Many of God's remnant people have violated the law of the tithe. They live with constant financial crisis simply because they will not tithe. They would never consider involvement in any form of dishonesty or theft, yet, have little difficulty in stealing from God. But, you might ask, “how have we stolen from God?” Malachi 3:8,9 states: “Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing Me! But you say, How have we robbed You? In tithes and offerings. You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing Me, the whole nation of you.”

The covenant of the tithe affects us in many ways. Obedience brings blessing. Disobedience brings a curse. It is very important that we understand this truth.

Both our spiritual and financial well-being is contingent upon our handling of this command. Our violation of His command to tithe removes us from God's covering and blessing in every area of life. He may extend His grace and mercy for a season, but eventually we will find ourselves living under a curse and cannot prosper.

Obviously, paying the tithe on what God has provided for us is not an option. In His commitment to meet all the needs of His people, He has reserved a tenth of that provision for Himself.

The “hirelings” in today's religious world have abused, adulterated and mis-stated this wonderful covenant. Those who constantly beg for money have blinded many to this covenant of financial promise. Some congregations hear more about the church financial need than the Word of God. Most have never heard that the Law of tithing is a covenant of promise. They take the approach that we owe God our tithe and offerings.

We cannot owe God something that is already His. We do not owe God our offerings. The tithe is to be paid and the offerings are to be given joyously with a cheerful heart.

“Give, and it will be given to you. They will pour into your lap a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, and running over. For by your standard of measure it will be measured to you in return.” (Luke 6:38)

Jesus instructs the Scribes and Pharisees about tithing but omitting concern for the weightier matters, justice, mercy and faithfulness. He stated that these must be done without neglecting the other.

Let us be reminded that the tithe belongs to God. It is His portion. It is holy. Obedient tithing brings great reward. Offerings are that which is vowed unto the Lord in action of praise and thanksgiving, or simply extended out of genuine desire to meet a need.

When paying our tithe or giving an offering, one can never outgive God.

While observing those who are faithful in tithing over many years, one can draw only one conclusion. God is true to His covenant. Those who tithe, prosper in many ways. Those who do not tithe, face constant adversity and need.

Be encouraged to live by God's “Covenant of Blessing” and reap the reward described in II Corinthians 9:6-8: “Now this I say, he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that always having all sufficiency in everything; you may have an abundance for every good deed.”

SAVE YOURSELF..

for Snakes and Sons of Hell Really Do Introduce Destructive Heresies!

The term “save yourself” sounds unscriptural to many church people, but it (the phrase) is right there in Scripture, right after the Apostle Peter answered the sincere question of sinners: “what shall we do?” (Acts 2:37) He gave them the answer to the question and one has to wonder what it is about the answer that is so difficult to understand. It reminds me of the phrase “what part of no don't you understand?” Or another way of saying it is “what part of don't don't you understand?” But the better question is “what part of do don't you understand?” What part of the answer to their question that Peter gave don't so many preachers and professing believers in Christ not understand?

“Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost?” (Acts 2:38-KJV) as to what to do, Peter spoke further: “And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, save yourselves from this untoward generation.” (Acts 2:40-KJV) The term “untoward generation” as translated in the King James is translated “perverse generation” in the New American Standard translation and Preacher Peter Peters would say to the Apostle Peter “If you think that generation was perverse, you ought to see this one!” God's wrath and destruction was poured out on the generation Peter spoke of in 70 AD at the time of the destruction of Jerusalem, but the historical record shows that those who did what Peter said to do escaped the wrath.

The Apostle Peter has told those of us living today that the wrath of God is about to be poured out in what is known as the Day of the Lord (read II Peter 3:7-15) and Preacher Peter Peters (in order to escape the condemnation of Ezekiel 3:18) wants to be on record as saying “save yourself” and do what the Apostle Peter said to do. What part of do, don't you understand?

The wrath and destruction that is coming with the great and terrible day of the Lord will harm the arrogant and evil doer (see Malachi 4:1 and II Thessalonians 1:8,9) but there will be no harm to those covered with and purchased by the blood of Jesus (Malachi 4:2,3 and I Thessalonians 5:9). It will be for the baptized believer i.e., Christians just as it was for those who obeyed Exodus 12:7 in the great destruction on Passover in Egypt (Exodus 12:13,29).

THE PREACHER THAT TELLS YOU DIFFERENT THAN WHAT THE APOSTLE PETER TELLS US TO DO IS EITHER A SNAKE OR A TWO FOLD MORE SON OF HELL.

You best not listen to either and had best not financially support them lest God hold you accountable for aiding and abetting the enemy.

This preacher has been preaching a series for the Scriptures for America tape ministry congregation on "snakes" and is writing a book on these cursed, reptilian creatures that look like people. These alien, serpent people were alive and well in Jesus' day and were identified by both John the Baptist (Matthew 3:7) and Jesus (Matthew 23:33) and even at that time had slithered into positions of spiritual leadership (Matthew 23:2). Their job, according to Jesus, was to keep people out of the kingdom (you see, they are of their father the devil and they want his rule and kingdom on earth). "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you shut off the kingdom of heaven from men; for you do not enter in yourselves, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in." (Matthew 23:13,14)

Their modus operandi is told to us by Peter in II Peter 2:1: "But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will also be false teachers among you, who will secretly introduce destructive heresies."

Today, when people ask what they are to do to become Christians, they are told something entirely different than what Peter tells us. They are told to "accept Jesus as their personal savior and believe on Him", a phrase found nowhere in the Bible. Why? Because the snakes have done their job well. Now that is not to say that all preachers who don't do and don't tell the people to do what Peter said to do are snakes? Not at all. There is something worse than a lying, deceiving snake and that is the one who would believe the lie over the truth of God's word and then proclaim that lie to others as God's word. Such a person is what Jesus called a two fold more son of hell than the snakes. "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you travel about on sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell as yourselves." (Matthew 23:15)

No doubt, some will say, "my minister is so sincere" and this preacher says, "So?" What's so wonderful about a sincere son of hell over an unsincere son of hell?

If you are sincere, you will sincerely believe God's word over sincere liars who teach you contrary to that word. There's an old joke about lawyers that goes like this. "How do you tell when a lawyer is lying? When his lips are moving!" Here's one that's not so funny of a joke. "How do you tell when a preacher is lying to you when he tells you what to do to become a Chris- tian? When his words are different than the word of God." Again, so just what part of the to do answer that Peter gave (Acts 2:38) do you not understand?

In closing, we give you part of an article that this preacher's dear, departed friend, Pastor Earl Jones, once wrote in one of his newsletters. It shows how the snakes get into the church leadership and introduce destructive heresies to keep us out of the kingdom.

"Another heresy centers around the act of baptism which is cardinal to the Christian faith. There was a famous Roman historian named Fernando Gregorovius who wrote on the relationships between the nobility of Rome, the Jewish community and the church. Gregorovius is noted for his fondness for the Jews of Rome so he can, in no way, be called "antisemitic".

Gregorovius writes of a particular Jewish family who had become extremely wealthy through the loaning of money to the families of nobility as well as the leaders of the church including the Popes. Through the years this family became loved by the Roman nobility for their acts of kindness by helping them in times of financial distress.

They became pillars of society. But ordinary Christian citizens hated die on the vine, so to speak, and so many attempted fellowships get broken up and divided and so many snakes go unexposed. Then, of late, I've come to see how all this can and will be stopped once we grasp the truths revealed in this small and unusual book which we want in the hands of those we minister to.

This book is available for a $6.00 offering, postpaid, but we will gladly send it for free to those of you who are of the body of Christ and have so faithfully supported this ministry. Just write to us at Scriptures for America, PO Box 766, LaPorte, Colorado 80535.

When writing to us, let us know if you would take advantage of attending the LaPorte Church of Christ, via, live internet on Sunday mornings. Then you could take communion with the saints there as it is given and taken there every Sunday morning. We would have to invest in some audio and visual cameras and internet equipment and would be glad to do so, as funds permit, if enough of you would join us. Write to us and let us know.

As this newsletter article is being written and going to press, our newest and most important book entitled: Communion-Its Potential Blessing, Curse and Need is being typed and made ready for printing. It is a small, truth revealing book on Communion that proclaims truths that perhaps have not been taught since the first and second centuries. Truths that were taught in the early church but are unknown in the church today. The truth about communion is on the same level as the truth about baptism for the remission of sins.

Over the years, I've seen so many spiritual casualties wherein people them because they practiced usury (the loaning of money at interest). In time, this Jewish family further improved their relationship with the nobility and Christians alike by allowing their sons to be baptized by the Christian church. Their Christian name became Benedictus Christianus. It then became the proper thing to allow the sons and daughters of the nobility to marry into this Benedictus Christianus family. One of the sons named Peter Leo was the first to be surnamed Pierleoni. The name Pierleoni then becomes most important in a heresy of massive importance that has penetrated the Christian body of Christ.

The Pierleoni family became the most respected princely family in Rome. They bore the title "Consul of Rome." The historian Fernando Gregorovius also wrote that the Pierleoni family was also known as "Welfs" which meant that they were on the side of the Popes in their fight against the Emperors. So this Pierleoni family was playing both ends against the middle so to speak. They were masters of the dialectics. The Emperors, as has been shown, were supporting the Talmudic Jews and their practice of internationalism and usury. At the same time the Pierleonis were baptized Jews, practicing usury and they loaned money to the Popes.

They became Bishops and Cardinals within the church. The first Pierleoni to become a Pope was Anaclet II in 1130 AD. What makes this pope so important to Christianity?

The early Christians knew what baptism meant and they baptized by full immersion, just as John the Baptist did. The early churches were most often built like an amphitheater with the pulpit down in the center. The baptistry was built into the floor behind the pulpit. Archeologists find this configuration over and over again.

It was Anachlet II who modified the method used for baptism by pronouncing that sprinkling and pouring of water on the head was sufficient.

*The significance of this change is obvious. Baptism by immersion signifies the death, burial and resurrection to a new life with all the sins washed away of the person who is baptized. One becomes a part of the body of Christ at this time." (I Corinthians 12:13).

We will be getting some messages out on our Scriptures for America tape ministry on the subject of communion but feel it is imperative to get this new book in your hands. So please write and ask for it.

When we understand the following reasoning and truth concerning communion, we will understand why so many have died on the vine spiritually, so to speak.

“I am the true vine and My father is the vinedresser. Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit, He prunes it, that it may bear more fruit. You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, so neither can you, unless you abide in Me. I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in Me, and I in him, he bears much fruit; for apart from Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away as a branch, and dries up; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it shall be done for you. By this is My Father glo rified, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be My disciples.” (John 15:1-9)

Notice from the preceding scripture that if we are to bear fruit, we must ABIDE IN HIM and notice if we do not, we dry up and will be cast into the fire and burned (that is, the fire of the day of the Lord which is at hand).

In order to abide in Him, we must partake of communion.

“He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in Me and I in Him.” (John 6:56) There is much, much, much more on this subject given in the book we want to send to you on this subject. Then there is even more given in our three part cassette tape messages entitled “Communion” to be sent out on the Scriptures for America tape ministry. It boils down to this: “Do it or die” (John 6:53) and “do it wrong and you will die” (I Corinthians 11:29,30). “Do it and do it right and the snakes that come into our midst disguised as Christians (Luke 20:20) will die.”

SMILING AT THE FUTURE

(an article written by the late Cheri Peters)

“Strength and Dignity are her clothing and she smiles at the future.” (Proverbs 31:25)

We recently found this article in a newsletter from the 1990's. It was written by my mother, Cheri Peters. It is sometimes hard to smile at the future but as we are striving to be Proverbs 31 worthy women, we thought this article might give you encouragement in these latter times.

I thought it only respectable to let the readers know that even though my mother died 8 years after this article was written, she never once complained of her sickness or turned her back on God. She never lost her faith, her courage or the love of her God. You might say until the end, “she smiled at the future.”-J.L.F.

We mentioned in our last newsletter that if any of you have articles that you have written or articles you have read elsewhere that you think others might benefit from, please submit them to us for consideration.)

“With all the injustices and abominations in our land and the violations of God's law becoming so rampant among our people, what do we as the ‘daughters of Israel’ have to smile about? When we've come to think that the future of our children is less than bleak and we are uncertain as to the fiery furnaces which may lie ahead, we wonder why God would give an account of a noble woman as one with ‘strength and dignity’ who does NOT fear the future? Doesn't God know women are ‘weaker vessels’ and are tempted to fear, whine, complain and bite our nails? Yes, ladies, our Creator has full knowledge of our physical, emotional and mental makeup, which leads to our strong need for 'security' and 'peace' both for ourselves and for our children. But our Creator also realizes the great influence He has endowed us with as to the future destiny of these children; hence, our people.

Imagine yourself for a moment living two-thousand years ago. A time in history when chastity and innocence were revered and those women whose lives did not display such respectability were scorned and treated with utmost contempt. According to God's divine law, such a repugnant woman could be put to death. An angel comes to you and tells you that through divine conception, you will give birth to a child. But you're not married and have known no man, and your betrothed is an honorable man, with strong desires for his virgin bride-to-be. What about your parents? Your siblings? Your friends? Your neighbors? What will they think? How will you explain to them what has come upon you? Will they believe you? Will you be categorized as a harlot? Will you be put to death? Will others speak ill of you as your pregnancy becomes obvious?

Do you think Mary's feelings, at this time, would have been much different than ours? Even though she was very special in God's plan, she had the same emotional makeup as we do. I can't help but believe the above thoughts must have crossed her mind. Then, 30 years later, to watch her perfect son be beaten, scorned, ridiculed, and spit upon by her people would have caused Mary great pain and agony.

Did Mary 'smile at the future' as she faced others while being pregnant out of wedlock? Or as she knelt at the feet of her firstborn, yearning to take away his pain as any godly mother would, was Mary 'smiling at the future'?

When God proclaims the virtuous woman 'smiles at the future', He isn't saying there will be no tears, pain, fear or sorrow, but rather her smiles are only an outward sign of her inward confidence in someone much greater than she. A woman with 'dignity' is one with full assurance that no matter what happens in her future, God's divine plan will always work for her best and for the best of her loved ones.

I would be a hypocrite if I said 'smiling at the future' is always easy, and we would ALL be liars if we said we never felt fear or at times exhibited whining spirits. Admitting our weaknesses and repenting then prayerfully striving to overcome them are the ONLY steps we can take to gaining the strength and dignity of a virtuous woman.

If we look to what is going to happen next year or the year after that, becoming fearful is inevitable. God commands us not to be anxious for tomorrow (Matthew 6:34) but to live one day at a time. If we think upon the future, we are to think upon our lives in His perfect kingdom.

"Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen." (Hebrews 11:11) How can we profess to walk by faith and not by sight (II Corinthians 5:7) if we refuse to live in the realm of faith? Walking by faith is living with strength and dignity as we smile at the future...no matter WHAT the future may hold."

BOOK REVIEWS from Scriptures for America

TRADITIONS OF
by E. Raymond Capt

This book, by Archaeologist and historian E. Raymond Capt, M.A., A.I.A., F.S.A. Scott., has been expanded with 33 pages of beautiful, colorful pictures. There are 18 unaccounted years of the young Jesus after Luke 2:52. Popular tradition says He spent them as a carpenter in Nazareth of Galilee. The evidence, given in this book, points otherwise. Guess where it appears He was during this time, or better yet, order the Traditions of Glastonbury, available for a $10.00 offering from Scriptures for America, PO Box 766, LaPorte, Colorado 80535.

CROSS EXAMINATION Christianity on Trial

by Malcolm Ross

Jewish antichrist persecution of Christians and Christianity is well documented in the New Testament book of Acts. It is still going on today and is of severe proportions in Canada where a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ can be hauled into court for simply publicly publishing Scriptures against homosexuality.

A courageous Canadian Christian, Malcolm Ross, has endured persecution and court battles for speaking the truth concerning the antichrist.

Canada's leading barrister, Douglas Christie, defends freedom of expression up to the Supreme Court of Canada in the highly publicized trials of Malcolm Ross. This high-quality 329 page book is composed primarily of excerpts taken from the twenty three volumes of transcripts of the Human Rights Inquiry of December, 1990 and April/May, 1991 and relevant court actions with comments by Malcolm Ross and Doug Christie, including notes on the decision of the Supreme Court of Canada.

This book may well go down in our history as a classic work in the battle to regain the freedoms and rights which were once handed down to us from our forefathers and thrown away by our generation. Certainly, it is a summary of the heroic battle for freedom waged by one of our most courageous young scholars and teachers of our generation.

This book is available for a $15.00 offering which includes postage and handling from Scriptures for America, PO Box 766, LaPorte, Colorado 80535.

Revised Edition
(The Saga of Israel)

WHAT KIND OF BUSH IS PRESIDENT BUSH?

A worldwide change is about to take place with the coming fiery Day of the Lord (2 Peter 3:7-13) which will make the Passover event of Moses' day pale in comparison. It is interesting to note that the paradigm shift of his day began with a burning bush (Exodus 3:2).

Today President Bush is burning to go to war, despite the fact that opposition to the war has grown so

The following words are taken from this politically, incorrect hard hitting, truth revealing book.

"In recent years we have seen a tragic upsurge in racism in the United States. It could more accurately be called reverse racism, as it has consisted in an effort by certain elements to force feed racial pride into Black folks, while causing White people, who founded this country, to feel guilty for being white..."

used “tar for mortar” (Genesis 11:3) and the Hebrew word for “tar” means “bitumen, asphalt “. Ferrar Fenton translates it “petroleum”.

This president-promoted war is not about weapons of mass destruction, for many countries including Korea have them, and we are not going to war with them. Such weapons are even yet to be found in Iraq. It is not about terrorism either, for we have yet to prove Iraq had anything to do with an act of terrorism in America. This war is about oil and a new world order, which the previous president Bush openly spoke of before he waged war in that land.

The tower of Babel of old was about a world order where men became one and thus could do whatever they desired to do (read Genesis 11:6). Is this not the mind set of President Bush and his cohorts today? During the President’s address to the nation on March 6, 2003, where he made it clear he was going to do what he was going to do, he said: “I don’t like war”.

Well, someone likes war! His name is Esau and the Bible tells us that he would “live by the sword” (Genesis 27:40) i.e. he makes money off of war. He and his cursed Canaanite confederation that he leads (Psalms 83) are the thorns the Bible tells us will be cut down and thrown into the fire. God told His people to completely destroy the Canaanites (Deuteronomy 7:1, 2) which they did not do (Judges 1:28). He warned that these cursed Canaanite creatures would be thorns in the sides of His people (Numbers 33:55). These people look like the sheep, but are wolves, willing and able to sacrifice people on the altar of war and are the thorns Jesus said would be thrown into the fire (read Matthew 7:15-19). That will happen on the fiery Day of the Lord least the cursed thorn people, who live by the sword, continue to fill the world with war. The Septuagint translation puts it this way: “Because thou hast destroyed this land of Mine, and hast slain this My people; thou shalt not be of long continuance. Wicked seed, prepare thy sons for slaughter, for the sins of their fathers; that they may not rise and possess the land and fill the world with wars”.

It is no accident that the two space shuttles destroyed in flaming fire each carried on them the wicked Canaanite seed, i.e., anti-Christ Edomites. Obadiah, who tells of the fire and the Day of the Lord (Obadiah 15-18), said of Esau-Edom in verse 4: “Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the Lord”. The first shuttle challenged God with its mixed ethnic crew and thus was appropriately named Challenger. The second was named Columbia. The war-mongers in the District of Columbia probably will not give any more thought to such a sign than did Pharaoh of Egypt to the signs given him. It’s been called the “Pharaoh Syndrome”, wherein that commander-in-chief pride fully thought he could do whatever he wanted to, and in reality could do nothing right. He, in command of the mightiest army on the face of the earth, had plans, but God had other plans. Could it be the present Bush plan for a new world order is about to go up in flames because God has plans of His own, and a big change is coming?

The change in Moses’ day began with the burning bush that was not consumed by the fire, but it will be different in the Day of the Lord. Woe to you, O destroyer, While you were not destroyed; And he who is treacherous, while others did not deal treacherously with him. As soon as you shall finish destroying, you shall be destroyed; As soon as you shall cease to deal treacherously, others shall deal treacherously with you. Now I will arise,” says the Lord, Now I will be exalted, now I will be lifted up. You have conceived chaff, you will give birth to stubble; My breath will consume you like a fire. And the peoples will be burned to lime, Like cut thorns which are burned in the fire. (Isaiah 33:1, 10-12)

So, what kind of Bush was in Moses’ day? A thorn Bush! “And after forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning thorn bush. (Acts 7:30)

Pray for this ministry, for there can be occupational hazards in taking a righteous stand in the battle for truth when the people love and believe a lie. Tyrants and dictators know that the truth sets the people free, and they sometimes mistakenly think they can come against those who proclaim truth. Could it be that the Homeland Security Bill was passed so they could feel more secure in our homeland, while they continue to take away the people’s freedom?

“O Israel, your prophets have been like foxes among ruins. “You have not gone up into the breaches, nor did you build the wall around the house of Israel to stand in the battle on the day of the LORD”. (Ezekiel 13:4,5)
