Snakes

Greek Mythology:

But Is It A Myth?

To properly understand the events of our day and what has happened to our country right before our eyes, one must understand the subject of snakes as revealed in the scriptures, and when one gets into such a study he finds an alien creature created by God to destroy and to be destroyed. These alien creatures are also identified in scripture as insects and thorns and thistles. As this newsletter goes to press this preacher continues to bring a series of messages and tapes on the subject of snakes for our Scriptures for America tape ministry congregation, a series we hope to put in book form.

Snakes, what are they?

Much to their shame, Christians and their preachers know very little about Bible teaching on snakes and perhaps few ever will, due to the modern day programming that the seducing, spell-casting serpents have put the people through (they don't call it television programming for nothing, folks). Due to this programming, people have been made to believe and feel that all men are good and that the polite and even Christian thing to do is to see all men as equal and the same. For example, complete the following:

1) If you can't say anything nice about someone then say

_____.

2) Always look for the

_____ in people.

Believe it or not it is very unbiblical and thus not Christian to only look for the good in people or to even believe there is good in everyone. This is the mindset the serpents want you to have as opposed to the teaching of Jesus and the apostles: "Beware of the false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves." NAS (Matthew 7:15-16)

"Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision;" (Philippians 3:2)

"Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves; therefore be shrewd as serpents, and innocent as doves. 17 "But beware of men; for they will deliver you up to the courts, and scourge you in their synagogues;" NAS (Matthew 10:16-18)

"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which on the outside appear beautiful, but inside they are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. "Even so you too outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness." (Matthew 23:27-28)

"But Elymas the magician (for thus his name is translated) was opposing them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. But Saul, who was also known as Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, fixed his gaze upon him, and said, "You who are full of all deceit and fraud, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to make crooked the straight ways of the Lord?" NAS (Acts 13:8-11)

Snakes in the Bible are often men

In the Bible there are literal snakes that crawl on the ground (Numbers 21: 6, Exodus 7:10, Acts 28:3) and then there are the kind that walk on two legs (Matthew 23:33, Matthew 3:7). When someone asks if you take the Bible literally or figuratively, you have been asked either a trick question or a stupid question, and most likely the person on the other end of the question is either stupid or a snake. So don't answer it. Take the literal passages literally and the figurative passages figuratively.

For example, the prophet Isaiah said "all we like sheep have gone astray" (Isaiah 53: 6), and Jesus instructed Peter to "feed My sheep" (John 21:7) and the Bible says David was tending his fathers sheep in I Samuel 16:11, and that Rachel was coming with the sheep in Genesis 29:6. Now if you, dear reader, cannot tell which is figurative and which are literal sheep, there really is no sense in you reading on in this writing, for it will all be over your head.

The Bible tells us that Gods Israel people are figuratively called his sheep.

"Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are My people," declares the Lord GOD. "As for you, My sheep, the sheep of My pasture, you are men, and I am your God," declares the Lord GOD." NAS (Ezekiel 34:29-31)

Few churches would be so stupid as to confuse literal and figurative sheep in the Bible, but believe it or not, some do just that when it comes to the subject of snakes. Most churches just ignore or fail to heed the Biblical teachings on snakes, and then a small few practice picking up literal snakes. This preacher once met and visited with a farmer near Montrose, Colorado who told him how he had once seen a coiled up rattle snake near a hay meadow gate and sensed it was there to test his faith, so he reached down and picked it up. The snake bit him on the hand and the crazy guy nearly died from the bite, but being that he did not die he felt he passed the test. He and his weird little country church failed to recognize that the Bible is speaking of the upright, two-legged, men snakes in Mark 16:18.

“They will pick up snakes with their hands; and when they drink deadly poison, it will not hurt them...”

Now the Bible tells us that Paul was bitten by a literal, poisonous snake (Acts 28:3) and felt no ill effects from it, but he did not purposefully reach down in an act of faith and pick it up. It reminds this preacher of the story of the man who was invited by his friend to a little country church and he noticed after entering the front door that the church deacon locked it. Then part way into the church service the preacher and elders brought out a couple boxes of rattle snakes and, reaching into the boxes, they lifted up coiling, twisting, angry snakes. Immediately the man asked if the church had a back door. His friend said there was no back door. His next question was “where would you like one?”

If you are in a church full of snakes, get out of it, flee it, expose it, and stop supporting it. The churches today do not have preachers and elders handling snakes, rather they are snakes, the very snakes Jesus and the Bible warns us about. In way of example of this I think of a news article about an Alabama judge named Moore who placed a granite monument of the ten commandments in the State Judicial Building. Following are quotes from the article:

“More than 40 Alabama clergy and religious leaders from a variety of denominations and faith traditions have joined an amicus brief opposing a Ten Commandment monument placed in the State Judicial Building by Alabama Supreme Court chief Justice Roy Moore. Prepared by the Baptist Joint Committee, the friend-of-the-court brief supports a challenge to the constitutionality of the 5300 pound monument filed by two civil liberties organizations. Twenty-one Alabama Baptist were among the clergy and religious leaders who joined the brief the list of clergy and religious leaders also included Disciples of Christ, Episcopal, Jewish, Presbyterian, Unitarian-Universalist and United Church of Christ representations.”

Though few will say it, these men, posing as religious and Christian leaders, are nothing more than snakes; lying, deceitful, cunning, slithering, stinking, sneaky snakes. The modern day Christian world is so devoid of the word of God and of the filling and leading of the Holy Spirit that they can't see snakes and even think it is wrong to accuse these so called pious, sweet, “Reverends” of being a brood of vipers.

These are the very kind of creatures that John the Baptist and Jesus Christ Himself identified as serpents and vipers.

“But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, “You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? NAS (Matthew 3:7,8)

“You serpents, you brood of vipers, how shall you escape the sentence of hell? NAS (Matthew 23:33,34)

The context of the two above verses clearly shows that John the Baptist and Jesus were talking about men. Men who were religious leaders and men no one suspected of being evil, viperous snakes in the grass so to speak. Of these men Jesus said:

“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which on the outside appear beautiful, but inside they are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. 28 “Even so you too outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. NAS (Matthew 23:27,28)

The Greek word Jesus used is number 3789 in Strongs concordance and it means: “NT: 3789 ophis (of'-is); probably from NT: 3700 (through the idea of sharpness of vision); a snake, figuratively (as a type of sly cunning) an artful malicious person, especially Satan:” (emphasis added).

We as a people use this terminology frequently of an evil, deceitful man (or woman) by referring to such as a snake or a snake in the grass, and the first thing this preacher wants to teach the reader is that snakes are men. Now it is doubtful that I have lost or offended very many readers up to this point. However, there are more points to be made, many more serpent truths to be taught and snake stories to be told that will no doubt cause many to be offended by and even view the truth as preposterous. Be that as it may, the time has come to tell it and simply let those who have eyes to see, see, and ears to hear, hear. The snakes rely upon the fact that the truth about them is so science-fiction like that few can accept it as truth. In fact, the serpents in Hollywood teach much truth in science fiction so that when it is proclaimed as truth, no one can believe it as truth because they have been programmed (i.e., seduced and beguiled by serpents) that it is fiction. Snakes in the Bible are not always real literal snakes, but believe me they are real. They are real dangerous, real deadly, real sinister, real poisonous, and they really are here.

However, for the Christian, the one born again of water and spirit (John 3:5) i.e. baptized (Acts 2:38), who walks in faith (John 5:4), the cold-blooded reptilian creatures are nothing to be feared, but are simply to be dealt with, for our King has given us authority over them. Presently most of Christianity does not understand this but they will and that is one of the reasons this preacher is preaching on the subject and writing a book.

“And He said to them, “I was watching Satan fall from heaven like lightning”. “Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall injure you. NAS (Luke 10:18,19)

God Sends Snakes

The Bible teaches us that the things that happened to our forefathers the Israelites happened for our learning.

“For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.” KJV (Romans 15:4)

In the Bible we learn that God once sent destroying serpents upon His people (Numbers 21: 6) and the Christian is taught that He could and would do it again!

“For I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; and all ate the same spiritual food; and all drank the same spiritual drink, for they were drinking from a spiritual rock which followed them; and the rock was Christ. Nevertheless, with most of them God was not well-pleased; for they were laid low in the wilderness. Now these things happened as examples for us, that we should not crave evil things, as they also craved. And do not be idolaters, as some of them were; as it is written, “The people sat down to eat and drink, and stood up to play.” Nor let us act immorally, as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in one day. Nor let us try the Lord, as some of them did, and were destroyed by the serpents. Nor grumble, as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer. Now these things happened to them as an example, and they were written for our instruction, upon whom the ends of the ages have come. Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. NAS (I Corinthians 10:1-12)

Many have been destroyed by serpents and did not even know there was a snake involved. Our once Christian nation and way of life has been destroyed and most do not know snakes were involved and most do not know that the God of the Christian Bible sent them. This was prophesied as a latter-day prophesy in the Song of Moses in Deuteronomy 32.

“ For I know that after my death you will act corruptly and turn from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days, for you will do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger with the work of your hands. Then Moses spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were complete:” NAS (Deuteronomy 31:29,30)

The environment the serpents flourish in and promote is an environment of immorality, corruption, materialism and idolatry. It was prophesied that His people would become prosperous, forget their God and partake of such sin. Deut 32:15-18

“But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked- You are grown fat, thick, and sleek- Then he forsook God who made him, And scorned the Rock of his salvation. “They made Him jealous with strange gods; With abominations they provoked Him to anger. “They sacrificed to demons who were not God, To gods whom they have not known, New gods who came lately Whom your fathers did not dread. “You neglected the Rock who begot you, And forgot the God who gave you birth. NAS (Deuteronomy 32:15-18)

As a result of this it was prophesied that He would send upon them “Snakes”!

”I will heap misfortunes on them; I will use My arrows on them. They shall be wasted by famine, and consumed by plague And bitter destruction; And the teeth of beasts I will send upon them, With the venom of crawling things of the dust.” NAS (Deuteronomy 32:23,24)

“I will heap mischiefs upon them; I will spend mine arrows upon them. They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust.” KJV (Deuteronomy 32:23,24)

As another Bible witness to the pointed truth that God sends serpents upon His people when they are sinful and disobedient, one can read Jeremiah 8.

“For behold, I am sending serpents against you, Adders, for which there is no charm, And they will bite you,” declares the LORD.” NAS (Jeremiah 8:17)

So it has happened to us today just as was prophesied, for there really is nothing new under the sun, our God does not change and He really does keep His word. As we discuss in our tapes series on snakes, the snakes are now in the medical field, educational field, the clergy, the media, the entertainment field, the legal profession, and in the government.

The snakes are poisonous and they have spread mind poison in the educating system, dispersed poisonous drugs in the medical system and have poisoned the food supply. The snake-bitten people are sick. The one and only answer is to repent and turn back to Jesus.

“ And the people spoke against God and Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we loathe this miserable food.” And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people and they bit the people, so that many people of Israel died. So the people came to Moses and said, “We have sinned, because we have spoken against the LORD and you; intercede with the LORD, that He may remove the serpents from us.” And Moses interceded for the people. Then the LORD said to Moses,

“Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a standard; and it shall come about, that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, he shall live.” And Moses made a bronze serpent and set it on the standard; and it came about, that if a serpent bit any man, when he looked to the bronze serpent, he lived. NAS (Numbers 21:5-9)

“And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up; that whoever believes may in Him have eternal life.” NAS (John 3:14, 15)

As of this newsletter, Pastor Peters has preached 12 sermons in the “Snake Stompin’ Series”. The titles include “Parasites, Cockroaches & Thorns”, “The Hilarity of Hypocrisy”, and “Hate Snakes That Eat Dust”. These have been sent out on the tape ministry, and all twelve are available, in tape or CD format, for a $ 40.00 offering.

Personal from the Editor’s Pen

We hope you enjoy this “Dragonslayer” newsletter (our fourth for this year) although it is being sent out later than we wanted. Sometimes it is challenging for this preacher to keep up.

We are now broadcasting on our own satellite seven days a week, 24-hours a day, and also now have 24-hours a day streaming at our Internet website, www.scripturesforamerica.org. This has been no small feat for us here at Scriptures For America, nor has it been inexpensive. Speaking of expenses, believe me we have plenty of them and thus continue to need your prayers and financial support. We thank you for them.

Please pray prayers against the serpent enemy in our land who are still trying to pull off an Operation Megiddo as they had planned to do on 1-1-2000. Our intelligence sources tell us their plan is the old “burn Rome and blame it on the Christians” trick, in that they intend to commit a terrorist act and then blame it on “Christian terrorists”. This is a newly generated Jew-media term concocted since the arrest of Eric Rudolph. Of course the “Christian terrorists” they want to target will be the Christians who expose the snakes of Revelation 2:9 and 3:9, i.e., the ones who no longer believe the lie that the modern-day anti-Christ Jews are “God’s Chosen People”. Remember, Jesus saves us from our enemies (Luke 1:71) and He has already given us authority over them (Luke 10:19), and our faith overcomes their attempts to have a New World Order in place of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ (I John 5:4,5). So pray for faith and fear not, but definitely be in prayer and pattern your prayer according to Psalms 55:15, 58:6-9, 59:1-15 & 37:1-15.

“But the salvation of the righteous is from the Lord. He is their strength in time of trouble. And the Lord helps them and delivers them; He delivers them from the wicked, and saves them, Because they take refuge in Him” Psalms 37: 39-40

By the way, be of good cheer and remember there are still Christians in law enforcement and the military that know what is going on and the enemy is not going to have any successful Bolshevik-type purges and roundups of Christians as they did in Russia—if we Christians pray for deliverance. Always remember that “greater is He that is for us than he that is against us” (Romans 8:31).

While you are praying, pray for our up and coming 2003 annual Scriptures For America Rocky Mountain Family Bible Camp, August 6-11. (Registration is in this newsletter) Many of you need to come to get your spiritual batteries recharged. We hope to see you there.

This preacher has written a 19-page treatise entitled “Going to the Prophets & Going To Babylon”. It is on prophecy and the war in Iraq. It is now posted at our website www.scripturesforamerica.org, and we will send it to any of our supporters who write and request it.

We will be working this summer to have our church services broadcast on the Internet by this fall. In closing, I personally thank those of you who faithfully financially support this ministry.

For a Christian America,

Peter John Peters,
Snake Stomper

Hello Pastor Peters,
I hope this finds you and yours well. I've been on your tape ministry for about 10 years and have been following the series on snakes with great interest. I was curious if you are planning on naming names? I believe it would make a very interesting addition to your newsletter. (From email)

Pastor Peters,
Just a quick note to thank you so much for having a singles gathering on Friday and Saturday nights in Branson. I know our son really enjoyed the fellowship and Virginia Reel. I would like to encourage you to continue this at every conference. The spirit in Branson was so strong. Thank you again for a wonderful conference. (from email)

Dear Preacher,
Thank you for the "SNAKE STOMPING SENSE" series and the "COMMUNION" series. Both are excellent and Praise God for His Holy Spirit inspiration, as He continues to bless you and the ministry with everlasting Truth!... The hospital racket and the AMA mind control over the women of this land, has allowed the serpentine creatures perfect access to GENESIS 3:15,

“And you shall bruise him on the heel.” All the women go to the hospitals for child birth, in dutiful obedience to the Baal priests and herd and range managers, as “everyone” knows that pregnancy is a very delicate “medical condition” requiring expert medical attention and care. Then, when the new born emerges from the womb, gets kicked out of the nest rather, one of the first thing the bobbed headed battle-axe programmed nurses do is to prick the heel of the infant with a snake’s fang, a razor pointed blade, and squeeze blood out of the heel to check for blood PKP clotting factor levels. This gruesome and unnecessary test is repeated every 30 minutes or so until a satisfactory result is obtained or an injection of the pharmekia snake venom is accomplished, supposedly to correct the PKP factor deficiency. So, there is a case of the bruising of the heel on a helpless new born child. And, as you are well aware, there are many other gruesome activities that take place against the new born children, all under the guise of “helping the baby”. It is nothing more than a branding round-up just like on the ranch in the spring-time, and all part of the herd and range management. People are so brainwashed and conditioned to this practice, that they consider home-birth to be unnatural and abnormal. Woe to those who call evil good and good evil. And, in essence, the new born boys are literally being thrown to the crocodiles in the river Nile, just as in the days of the Edomite Pharaoh, and “My people love to have it so!” (from email)

Dear Pastor Peters,
On a radio program I heard you use the term shape shifters. While looking about the internet for more information I found this comment on 1 Samuel 15:3

In 1 Samuel 15:3, Samuel commanded Saul to destroy all that Amalek had, man, woman, child and beasts.. according to Midrash the Amalekites were sorcerers who could transform themselves to resemble animals in order to avoid captivity (Rashi). ArtScroll. We would call these kinds of people in today’s language... “Shapeshifters.” One would wonder if the science fiction writer didn’t get this info from these ancient sources... (from email)

Dear Pastor Peters,
Thank you for the newsletters, and the great teaching on your broadcasts I enjoy listening to on the shortwave at 5.070; especially concerning the slithering snakes, and recently scriptures and observation’s concerning the Assyrian’s and the invasion of Iraq.

May I please receive a tape list of these particular subjects; I am interested in trying to get your most recent teachings I’ve listened to on the radio. (Email from MI)

Dear Pastor,
The messages you preached at Branson were awesome, but they would have made the average Christian run off screaming with their arms in the air. Even some of your stouter messages pale by comparison. Just wanted you to know how much I appreciated them. I’m praying daily, “give us men.” (Ezekial 36:37) Thank you for pointing that out. You are much loved in Israel. We pray unceasingly for you and your family. Thank you. (from Oklahoma)

Pastor Peters,
I have been listening to your Stomping Serpents series. While at church three weeks ago I was amazed that the preacher could spend an entire 45 minute sermon speaking about 1 verse, twisting it, when the true meaning was clearly explained in the following chapter! His words were more important than the Bible! (from Arizona)

Pastor Peters,
I am a receiver of your tape ministry, these previous tapes have been very interesting and have given my wife and I much insight on the war front “operation sheep liberation”, A.K.A. Snake stomping. I have a book that is called “Lost Books of the Bible”, it is a compilation of texts that have either been labeled non-canonical or Apocryphal. This book has many texts written by early church fathers; it is interesting to note that most if not all of the books have a chapter or several that deal with “beasts in the shape of men”, “wild beasts” or just plane out heretics, evil leaven and to sum it all up into one word “jews or jewish”. I am not sure if these writing are trust worthy and untainted, being that they do have strong catholic influence; or perhaps they aren’t truly written by the men whose name’s they bear, however I have found them interesting in that they also deal with many of the same old tricks the snakes have been using for thousands of years. (from e-mail)

Pastor Peters,
Just wanted you to know the Snake Stompin’ series is fantastic! I’ve been with your ministry a long time, but only recently, through the internet, have I been able to listen to other “Identity” ministers. And it’s made me appreciate your ministry even more. In all the years of hearing your tapes and radio broadcasts, I have never heard you use profanity. Some of these other programs are filled with it. (from e-mail)

Dear Pastor Peters,
Thank you very much for the preaching and teaching that we receive from you via the tape ministry and your newsletter. Most of your sermons leave me feeling as if they were directed personally to me, many cause water to leak out of the corners of my eyes. I thank our heavenly Father for your common sense approach to the revealing of the secrets (hidden in plain view) in his Word. I thank you for your recent article on tithing, a fact that I have misplaced somewhere along the way and appreciate that you reminded me of it. (from Idaho)

Dear Mrs. Peters,
I was so glad to get to visit with you at Branson. I thought you should be told that Peter looks 10 years younger this year, and healthier than I’ve ever seen him. You ought to get some credit for that! His voice is louder & stronger than ever, also! Many, many prayers went up in regards to that – we are so thankful they were heard & answered! A good wife is one of the most important things our men can have. One needs only look at the husband to see what kind of wife is there. One look at Peter speaks loud and clear; there is a good wife behind him. I’m sure the rest of the remnant are as grateful to you as I am! (from Oklahoma)

STAKE YOUR TERRITORY CONSECRATING YOUR HOME

The purpose of this writing is to encourage you to “stakeout” your most valuable tangible possession, your home. We are firmly convinced that each family in the Kingdom of God should consecrate and dedicate their home to God, invoking his spiritual covering and protection upon their entire household.

We, His Remnant have been robbed of the tremendous blessing God intended for home and family. The following descriptions and comments are intended to evaluate your home and emphasize what the Christian home should be.

One of our most valuable assets is a home filled with love, peace, and tranquility. It should be filled with the quiet loving spirit of God, a place of protection and safety, a haven for comfort and rest, a shelter from all of the pressures of life. It should be a retreat filled with joyful anticipation, a place of contentment and happiness.

Home should provide a rock solid foundation for all of the fundamental statutes of God and experiences of family. It should be shrouded with the presence of His spirit, saturated with His truth, and bathed in his love. Surely, this is the desire of every son of God. Yet, very few of our people enjoy such a blessed environment.

The strength of any nation rests upon the foundation of Godly homes established upon the power of His word, and the presence of His spirit.

We live in a very chaotic world. It is filled with trouble and confusion. Our life is pressured with time constraints and demands. The workplace is often a point of unorganized confusion. We are faced with endless responsibilities that have little purpose. There seems to be no place to find peace and quiet.

Life seems to be filled with a constant onslaught of attacks, accusations, and unreasonable requirements. It seems that we live in a pressure cooker, steaming toward a violent explosion.

We have allowed our enemies to infiltrate the sanctity of our homes with their ungodly activities and systems. Satan has ravished our home environment, bringing bickering, division, distortions, and disastrous attitudes as the prevailing atmosphere within.

Many Christian homes are little more than four walls with a roof, various pieces of furniture and a television entertainment center. They are cold, hollow chambers of confusion, discord and anger. There is no fellowship and very little love shared among its members. The family is basically dysfunctional with each member doing their own thing and going their own way.

Our Satanic adversary is determined to destroy the family structure of the House of Israel. This is not what God desires for his Remnant people. He has called us to peace!

Jesus the “Prince of Peace” said, “These things have I spoken to you, so that in me you may have peace.” [John 16: 33].

Romans 14:17 declares that “The Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.”

Philippians 4:7 says “And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.”

God has called us to have peace in our homes. (1 Corinthians 7: 15.)

Our heavenly father expects his children to be able to dwell in a place of peace. He wants us to enjoy the presence of his Holy Spirit, without interference from Satan and his ungodly systems.

As Jesus gave his disciples the right to invoke peace upon the households in which they stayed, it seems obvious to us that our homes should be dedicated and set apart unto God as a special place for his abiding presence. (Luke 10: 5)

Many years ago we discovered a truth that seemed to be hidden in God’s Covenant with Israel. We came to realize that he specifically designated three basic places as a haven of peace and protection for his people.

We had knowledge of the first two, His Sanctuary and the Cities of Refuge. The Holy Spirit revealed that our homes are to be set apart as special places for his covering and peace as well. Our Heavenly Father intends for the home to be a dwelling place of peace and safety, encompassed with the awesome reverence of his presence.

We can “stakeout” our homes as an island of refuge and peace, separated from the confusion and pressures of the world. They can be filled with the presence of God where evil and the powers of Satan cannot abide.

God provided two elements for our use in consecrating and dedicating the possessions of his people.

He used blood from the sacrifice offering which represented the blood that Jesus was to shed for our redemption, and anointing oil, which represents the Holy Spirit, to consecrate both men and buildings.

Before their exodus from Egypt, God instructed all of Israel to mark their homes on the door posts and lintel (header) with blood from the Passover lamb. They were instructed to remain in the house, their only place of safety, until the destroyer had passed over them. There is no doubt that His spirit was present within the house while they waited. They enjoyed peace and protection in the midst of terrible death and destruction. (Exodus 12: 22 – 23)

Solomon anointed the Tent of Meeting and all that was within it with oil. It was consecrated unto God. His holy presence was so powerful that anyone who touched those items within became holy.

The Prophets and Priests frequently used anointing oil for the purpose of dedication and consecration.

Oil was used to dedicate the Kings and the Priests who were to rule over Israel.

David was anointed with oil to become King. (1 Samuel 16:13) Samuel anointed Saul to be King. ¹*Then Samuel took the flask of oil, poured it on his head, kissed him and said, “Has not the LORD anointed you a ruler over His inheritance?” (1 Samuel 10:1)* Elijah used oil to anoint Hazael to be king and Jehu and Elisha to be prophets. (1 Kings 19:15-16)

Obviously, the anointing oil became the predominant method used in sanctifying people and buildings unto the Lord,

The Redeemed of the Lord are also Kings and Priests. Revelation 1:5-6 declares: ⁵*and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the* kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and released us from our sins by His blood— ‘and He has made us to be a kingdom, priests to His God and Father—to Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

In the early days of America many people rushed west to stake their claim on a particular piece of ground or perhaps even a gold mine. Once they found the location of the property that they wished to secure, they went to each corner, drove a stake and tagged it with their name. Once this was done they went to the nearest recorder’s office and filed their claim. They had exclusive rights to that property. They owned a deed. No one else had access to it without their permission. It was theirs.

As the high priest of our home, we can “stakeout” our claim to exclusive possession, just as the children of Israel did when they entered the land that God had given them, each tribe marking their own territory.

As the sons of God, we have the power to consecrate our homes and property to him. We can invoke His abiding presence and protection as a covering that the enemy cannot penetrate. Only the spirit of God has a right to inhabit the homes of his people.

Jesus has given us authority to bind the powers that would captivate us and bring us into bondage. We have the power to establish God’s blessings and covering upon our household and possessions. We can command His spirit of peace and tranquility to abide upon them. We can direct his blessing and protection to cover our house and all who abide within.

Matthew 16:19 declares: “I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven.”

As the High Priest of our home, we have the responsibility to be the provider and covering for both our wife and children. We have authority to establish our territory and consecrate it to the peace and purpose of our Heavenly Father.

We encourage you to consecrate your home as a “safe haven” unto the Lord. Should you desire to do so, the following is a procedure for dedicating your home.

1. Bring your family together
2. Read one or more of the following scriptures: Luke 10:19, certifying your authority, and Exodus 12:22-23, reminding us of the Passover. (Since Jesus offered the final blood sacrifice, we use olive oil today), and Exodus 30: 22–23, where Moses anointed the Tent of Meeting.

3. Take some pure virgin olive oil, go to each corner of your property and pour a small amount (perhaps ¼ of a cup) on the property marker.

4. Place your right forefinger in the remaining oil and place a drop on each exterior doorjamb and upon the top of the door frame. (You may do the same with each window if you desire.)

5. Pray with priestly authority, in the name of Jesus. By His power, rebuke and cast out any unwholesome, unclean, or evil spirit that may have invaded the tranquility of your household. Dedicate your house and property to God. Ask the Holy Spirit to continually abide within your home. Ask Him to keep His covering and protection, love, peace and tranquility, upon all who dwell there. Pray that God's presence would be so obvious that even the stranger who might enter would be aware.

We are confident that you will find an exciting new atmosphere of love, peace and unity within your home. Where the presence of the Lord is; there is peace.

We are now up on a new satellite and are broadcasting 24 hours per day, 7 days a week. The new satellite is digital (KU band) where the old satellite was broadcasting on C band. If you have a C band system you will have to upgrade to a KU or a digital system. As I understand, the C band antenna can be converted to digital however; you would have to have a digital receiver. There are many suppliers of KU band antennas and receivers and they can be found on the internet by using your web search. We have purchased a mid priced system (complete less wiring) from a distributor that can supply to anyone at $275.00 plus $25.00 for shipping. If you can not install the system yourself there are installers available from the distributor. You can contact Broadband Communications (continued on page 23)

The H and That Rock the Cradle

The Fulfilled Wife Beth Applegate

As a little girl, I had great dreams. I was always going to be happy. I loved playing with dolls and mom's pots and pans. Anything that was soft and pretty attracted me. The sweet fragrance of feminine perfume was exhilarating. There was something intriguing about my mother's high heels. It was exciting to clomp through the house on shaky legs, pretending to be a "big girl". There was always "tea time" with my children (my dolls) as I fantasized being a perfect mother with a wonderful husband and a happy home. "Pretend time" allowed me to live in beautiful anticipation of what real life must surely be like. Oh, how precious is the innocence of the little girl.

All too quickly the years pass and we begin to see life as it really is. The innocent beauty of childish dreams fades into vivid pictures of harsh reality. We discover that fulfillment and happiness in real life, requires effort and responsibility.

It's amazing to me how many women are basically unhappy. They feel dull and empty inside. Their girlish dreams have been destroyed. The joy and excitement for life has long since departed.

Most have no clue as to why they're so miserable. They're unhappy with their marriage, their children, and life in general. After much searching, many ask the question, "Why was I born?" or "What is my purpose in life?" or "How did I get myself into this?" What went wrong?

God's word has the answer.

Genesis 2:18 says "Then the LORD God said, 'It is not good for the man to be alone; I will make him a helper suitable for him.'"

God designed the woman to be the perfect helpmate for man. He saw that Adam needed companionship and love. Adam needed to be fulfilled in many ways that only a woman could provide. He caused Adam to sleep, took a rib from him, and made woman. He made her to be the perfect helpmate for man. She was to be joined together with him, the two becoming one flesh. (Genesis 2:23- 24)

Adam must have awakened, looked, and said "WOW, what a beautiful creature!"

Can you imagine an absolutely perfect couple? Both were made in the image of God. They had total love, unity, understanding and spiritual harmony. Their Communion with God was intimate and personal. Everything was wonderful, the ultimate of perfection. They were happy and complete in every way.

Neither of them had knowledge of evil. And then, something happened. Each made a catastrophic decision. They disobeyed God and ate forbidden fruit.

Genesis 3:4-5 tells the story: ⁴The serpent said to the woman, "You surely will not die!"⁵"For God knows that in the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."⁶When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took from its fruit and ate; and she gave also to her husband with her, and he ate.

Perhaps, she took of the fruit, blinked her beautiful eyes, handed some of it to Adam, and said, "Look honey, it smells so good, the serpent said that it will make us like God, if we eat it."

Adam placed his desire to please his wife above obeying God. Eve's desire to be like God, inspired her to take the fruit from the tree and tempt him. They ate together. Their righteous perfection was destroyed. They and their descendants would have the nature of sin and rebellion forever.

That nature of rebellion became a part of every woman. We may not recognize it, but it is true. Our carnal nature wants to walk in power and authority that is not ours. We want to take charge, give direction, have the last word, etc. . . .

We became conniving, deceitful, hateful, manipulative, and very demanding. Some, using their sexuality, or withholding it, as a weapon to get their way.

God has set strict parameters for us, as women. Genesis 3:16 states, "To the woman He said, "I will greatly multiply your pain in childbirth, in pain you will bring forth children; yet your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you."

God has said that man was to rule over woman. The word "rule", means to exert control, direction, or influence upon, to exercise authority. This is to be done in the spirit of Christ with love and great sensitivity.

We, as mothers, certainly know the pain of childbearing but most of us have no concept of what it means to have desire for our husband and his rule over us.

Ephesians 5:22-24 tells us "Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord. ²³For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, He Himself being the Savior of the body. ²⁴But as the church is subject to Christ, so also the wives ought to be to their husbands in everything"...

God has put an inner desire in every woman to fulfill her role as helpmate. That is what He formed us to be. Of course, many women will deny that this is true. Their denial does not change the intent of God.

Our sinful nature has distorted our understanding. Insecurity and fear tells us that we cannot depend on anyone but ourselves.

We believe that we must take charge, be independent, and assert our own authority. We will submit to no one. We must rule our own lives if we are to survive.

We are convinced that we need to be totally self sufficient if we're to be content and happy. We are wrong! Our fulfillment, happiness, peace, and joy can only be attained through submission and obedience, not independence.

We were created by God to be a helpmate. Any other role conflicts with the natural abilities that He gave to us. Our sinful nature says "take charge". God says submit to authority. Our nature says I will be the authority.

Our conniving and manipulative abilities make it very easy for us to exploit our husband's weaknesses. We know how to argue and persuade. We can cry or pout, be happy or angry, give or withhold sex to get our way. Blessing, flattery or torment serves as tools of manipulation. This is not a very pretty picture of womanhood, but sadly, it is too often true. Satan continues to deceive us today.

The anti-Christ spirit of rebellion has formed its own support group. It's called the Women's Lib Movement. This group promotes the self sufficient domination of women over man. Our girls are taught that they are to be strong as men, urging them to become masculine and dominant. Boys are taught to be more feminine, yielding responsibility and authority. Women should be equal with men, they say.

Their platform is equality of the genders with equal pay, equal privilege, and equal power. Their message is "fair treatment" to all, but their purpose is to feminize men and to masculinize women. They promote the full exercise of the ungodly rebellious spirit of anti-Christ. Too many Christian women have allowed this philosophy into their thinking.

We no longer enjoy the respect that used to be extended to a lady. We don't receive common courtesies once demanded by society. We are exposed to filthy language and gross conduct. We finance our own courtships, open our own doors, carry our own groceries, and stand while men sit, make our own arrangements, and pay our own bills. All of this, in the name of equality.

God never equipped women to function as men. The curse of sin has robbed us. We are driven to find happiness only to discover that our very nature brings us misery and frustration. The harder we try to be self assertive and independent the more miserable we become. We may have success in establishing our position of authority and power, only to discover that we have lost all respect for both our husband and our self.

These characteristics of our sinful nature hold us in great bondage. We can only extricate ourselves by turning to Christ as our Lord and Redeemer. He restores us to fellowship with God, regenerates us with a new spirit, and gives us the ability to bring our rebellious nature under control.

The redemptive work of Christ restores us to act as God intended. We can use our God given abilities to become the helpmate that God created.

There is no greater fulfillment and satisfaction than that found in functioning in the role of helpful support to our husband and family.

We can make it very easy, or difficult, for our husband to be the man of the house. An attitude of encouragement and trust, love and respect with a submissive spirit is of great benefit. Proper attitudes produce wonderful results.

Most men will strive diligently to provide every need and desire of a loving woman. A loving husband will work tirelessly to provide for her and the family.

He is keenly aware of his shortcomings and weaknesses. He doesn't need to be reminded of them. He does need the surety that his wife loves and trusts him. He will strive for her approval and endure great hardship to make her happy.

God declared that man and woman, when united in marriage, become one flesh. In other words, they each become as one, not two separate individuals. This means that their goals and ambitions are to blend together as one. The selfish, "me first", attitude that rules so many of us, must be put aside. Our goals and ambitions must blend into those of our husband.

Our husbands need our love and devotion, companionship and support. They need a friend that they can trust. They need reassurance and encouragement. We can provide council and insight. Every man needs approval and respect from his wife. There are countless ways that we can fulfill the needs of our husband. Most of all, he needs to be needed.

The fulfilled wife has learned this secret. She understands that her husband's success or failure belongs to her as well. She will lose sight of her personal ambitions and goals as an individual. Her desire will be to please her husband. Her efforts will encourage and comfort him.

As Godly women, we have great ability to become the perfect help mate to our husbands. Our hearts yearn to satisfy him, to make him happy, to fulfill his needs. We will never accomplish that until we learn the secrets of true femininity in spirit and action.

The fulfilled wife is a woman who loves her husband, appreciates his covering and authority, and accepts the challenge of helping him to become the very best husband he can be.

She will establish a happy and peaceful atmosphere in the home. Keeping a neat and clean environment that provides a sanctuary for family and friends.

She takes pride in attending to her own appearance, keeping herself neat and attractive for him. (The loving husband takes great pride in presenting his wife as his attractive and capable "Queen of his life".)

We must realize that when we make him happy, and fulfill his needs, his radiance touches everyone around him. Our encouragement lifts him to new heights of effort and purpose. He is inspired to obtain greater success in being the best husband and father that any woman could desire.

It is said that a man's home is his castle. This is true, only if we as wives make it a place of peace and happiness. Our husbands will take pride in presenting us as his "Queen" to his friends and associates.

Our "God given" abilities and talents will rise to the surface. Joy and satisfaction will become a daily experience when we function as God made us.

True fulfillment belongs to the woman who has learned to function in the role for which God equipped her. We were formed for one purpose; to be a perfect helpmate. Everything else is secondary in importance.

BOOK REVIEW

The Drama of the Lost Disciples

by George F. Jowett

Edmund Burke once wrote "People will not look forward to posterity who never look backward to their ancestors".

The anti-Christ serpent enemies have been stealing our history, making Christians believe that the early Christians all peacefully and passively walked to the lions den during the time of the Roman persecution. Little do they know of the history of the Roman armies being fought to a stand-still by Christian soldiers.

The following is taken from the book, "The Drama of the Lost Disciples".

Julius Caesar wrote, circa 54 B.C.: "They make the immortality of the soul the basis for all their teaching, holding it to be the principal incentive and reason for a virtuous life. Believing in the immortality of the soul they were careless in death."

Lucanus, A.D. 38, writes in Pharsalia that the Britons' indifference to death was the result of their religious beliefs, and Pomponius Mels, A.D. 41, in his works, describes the British warrior in astonishment. He also ascribes the extraordinary bravery of the Britons to their religious doctrine, based on the immortality of the soul.

Such was the invincible spirit of the ancient Britons who formed a living wall around the sacred boundaries of Avalon in the domain of Arviragus. No Roman army ever pierced it. These were the lands which Roman writers referred to as "territory inaccessible to the Roman where Christ is taught". Behind this heroic warrior wall of protection Joseph and the disciples of Christ were safe from harm, free to preach and teach the glorious faith on the sacred Isle of Avalon. To the Britons this was hallowed ground and they died willingly to preserve the first planting of the Christian Way, so that it might thrive and blossom to bless the whole world.

This 250 page soft-cover book reads like a novel. We've had to order it in from England. Available for a $17.00 offering from this ministry.
