This is our 12th and last DragonSlayer Newsletter for 2005. The year has gone by fast, and thanks to the prayers and support of the remnant, we accomplished a great deal, including adding much in the way of equipment, staff, broadcasting, outreach, internet and more! (See our newest radio outreach ad on page 15). There is still much for all of us to do as addressed in our main article.

We are grateful to announce that our live Monday through Friday weeknight broadcast program can now be heard simultaneously on TWO shortwave frequencies, 5.070 & 7.465, as well as on the internet (www.scripturesforamerica.org) and on satellite, from 8:00-9:00 pm, Central time. This is a new and better broadcast time with a greater outreach and larger listening audience. It is also another addition to our ever growing budget, so please keep this new outreach in your prayers.

On the last broadcast day of this year, December 31st, 2005, and the first broadcast day of 2006, January 1st, we will be broadcasting (on WWCR radio transmitter #4, all weekend long) most all of the church pulpit messages that have been sent out on the SFA Tape/CD Ministry in 2005. And, at the 8:00 pm Central hour, on January 1st, 2006, we are planning a special commemorative broadcast, and we invite you to join us. Prophets grow in understanding, and some pay a dear price to grow in the understanding that the children of the devil really do steal, kill and destroy. It's all part of learning that this really is war.

The dirty bird enemy hates (and forbids when they can) Jesus Christ and His Name. (Those listening to our latest pulpit messages know the Biblical meaning of dirty birds; listen to our Sunday, 12/13/2005 Church sermon entitled "Dirty Birds Perched on Church Pulpits" and our 12/02/2005 8pm (Central) radio broadcast entitled "Growing Up", archived at our website.)

Consider the following news release from the American Center for Law and Justice:

Jesus Name Not to be used by Military Chaplains
American Center for Law and Justice

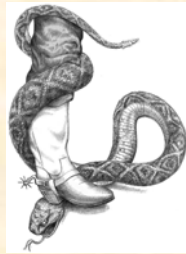

A pattern of hostility to free speech - specifically the rights of Christians to pray - is on the rise in our country. We saw it in our nations public schools ... where prayer was officially banned. We have seen it in our workplaces. Now, our United States military seems to have "jumped on the bandwagon" ... with Air Force leadership recently releasing proposed guidelines that will restrict how Air Force chaplains can pray. Christian chaplains are being told NOT to pray in the name of Jesus!

The enemy knows we triumph with His name; "Through Thy name we will trample down those who rise up against us" (Psalms 44:5). We are pleased to report that the recently published book "No Other Name but Jesus" is having quite a positive eye-opening effect in reaching those deceived into using another name, and has even caused several to get re-baptized in the name of Jesus! Listen to our 11-23-05 8:00 pm Central broadcast, archived at our website, and you'll hear our own suggestions on how to spread the name of Jesus everyday, and in essence bless God's people and curse the cursed. It has to do with salutations. When someone says to you "Have a nice day", or "Have a good day", try responding by saying "Thank you, and may Jesus tend to you today". We must be cautious not to just pronounce blessings on everyone, for many are evil tares, enemies; and to bless them is to bring wrath upon us (2 Chronicles 19:2). Remember, this is war. But to say "Jesus tend to you" is to have Him tend to those who are His sheep and to those who are His enemies. It's very interesting how people's response to the name Jesus seems to sort them out right before your eyes. Singing groups and speakers who will not use the name Jesus will not be a part of any future SFA gatherings.

On another note, read pages 20 & 21 of this newsletter for motivation to continue the anointing and un-anointings. Be sure to report the anointings so we can post them at our website (over 2200 anointing so far!).

On a closing note for the year, this preacher thanks those who helped us make it through the year with your prayers and support. In way of a thank you, we have a special gift to send to you. It is a DVD of one of our past TV programs entitled "ROOTS--FROM ABRAHAM TO AMERICA". It is an excellent evangelistic tool to reach and teach others the Anglo-Israel truth. This was made several years ago (this preacher looks younger and thinner in it) with famed historian and Bible archeologist E. Raymond Capt as a television guest. Mr. Capt uses maps and charts to show the migrations of the tribes of Israel, and this preacher used the Scriptures to teach the story. Now we have it on DVD and offer it to you to use to teach others. It is just a little gift, in way of a big thank you for your help in 2005.

To JESUS CHRIST be the praise and glory, for ever and ever.
Pastor Peter J. Peters.

From the Webmaster

We are continuing to work on and improve the Sunday morning live video broadcast from the LaPorte Church of Christ. We have recently adjusted the streaming feeds and now most everyone is able to get a good quality broadcast. Remember we also added a fourth video server to accommodate the increase in attendees on the web. We still need your input to identify any problems, and would like to hear from everyone viewing our broadcast, including those of you that are in other countries. Please e-mail us at tj@sfaw.org with your comments.

There are still many of you that are not using Real Player 10 to view the live church services. You can download the software free from www.Real.com (do not select anything that is not free, including the trial software, unless you want to pay for it).

For those of you that have a dial up connection to the net, try this to help with the quality of the picture. Start Real Player, and then click on the pause button after the program has started. Wait for about 5 minutes, and then click on the play button, and the broadcast program should run better from then on. This should eliminate the starting, stopping and reconnecting. Let us know!

Thanks again for all of your help, support and prayers.

What We Learned in 2005

In our last newsletter we wrote concerning Jesus building the Church and Peter being given the keys to the Kingdom (Matthew 16:19). These are two separate entities, though some churches mistakenly teach they are one and the same. They are not.

Concerning the church, Jesus is the cornerstone and the apostles and the prophets are the foundation (Ephesians 2:20). Peter gives us a last day's admonition to remember the words of all three.

... that you should remember the words spoken beforehand by the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior spoken by your apostles.

2 Peter 3:2.

We today have their words in the Scriptures, but that is not to say we do not still have prophets today, just as they had them in the early church (Acts 11:27). The modern, corrupt, Judaized churches of today want to be (and stay) 501(c)3 non-profit outfits, and in the process become non-prophet. The prophet jeopardizes the churches non-profit status. He proclaims truth regardless of the consequence, political correctness or perceived politeness Babylon expects. The comfortable coziness and respectability with the world, that ministers think they must foster to reach the world, is rejected by the prophet. Thus they care not to have the prophet in their midst.

In our Volume 10, 2005 DragonSlayer (available at our website, www.scripturesforamerica.org) there were two articles on the prophet. One was entitled "Isaiah's Job" and was about the prophet and the remnant; the remnant that is out there listening to him. What can be said about the prophet can also be said about the remnant. The churches care not to have the remnant in their midst either, and for the most part, the remnant care not to be there any longer either. Thus they become sort of un-churched in a corrupt church age we presently have at the end of this age. The remnant are thus a scattered bunch, hungering for fellowship, but unwilling to give up truth for it; for they hunger for truth more than for fellowship.

This writing is for the prophet and the remnant and about them; instructions for them concerning what they've yet to do in 2006, and how to do it! It's for the hard-core Gideon Group. There is more to do and they must be "doers of the Word and not merely hearers who delude themselves" (James 1:22).

And He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ; until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fulness of Christ. As a result, we are no longer to be children, tossed here and there by waves, and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by craftiness in deceitful scheming;
Ephesians 4:11-14

This writing is to additionally equip the saints to do the work that's got to be done for the King; to stir that small group of Gideon Christian soldiers to press on, pursuing the enemy (Judges 8:4) with the anointing and un-anointing oil and with the pounding and pulverizing with provocative prayer power.

WHAT CAN BE SAID ABOUT THE GROWTH PROCESS OF THE PROPHET CAN BE SAID OF THE REMNANT AS WELL

There are many members in the body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12:12) with varying roles, gifts, functions and purposes (Romans 12:4-8) with all doing what they do to the Glory of Jesus Christ (1 Corinthians 10:31). All of them are commanded to grow;

...but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.
2 Peter 3:18

The prophet (and the remnant) is often without honor in his home town, own time and in the church that initially converted him. They want him (and them) out.

The evil tares know they need to take'em out first in the war between good and evil. (Psalms 74 describes the destruction of the land and the assembly place by the destroyers and then says in verse 9 "there is no longer any prophet".) The prophet is the first line of defense against the parasitic, predator-like alien invaders. His function is much like white blood cells in a human body that attach themselves to the alien invader and fight them, and is willing even to be sacrificed in the process, for the good of the body.

The enemy knows what the prophet Hosea knew when he said his people are destroyed for lack of knowledge (Hosea 4:6). The prophet strives to give insight, and sometimes in the process, falls in battle. "And those who have insight among the people will give understanding to many: yet they will fall by sword (murder) and by flame, by captivity (prison) and by plunder (such as IRS) for many days.” (Daniel 12:33). Note it says for many days. There comes a day the prophet grows to understand and see something.

The prophet used to be called a seer, and as he grows, he sees better. He develops eyes to see what others do not seem to see, such as Habakkuk did.

Why dost Thou make me see iniquity, And cause me to look on wickedness? Yes, destruction and violence are before me;
Habakkuk 1:3

He sees the corruption, and then grows to see the corruptors, and then the cause of it. Or to put it in other terms, he grows to see the destruction, the destroyers and the reason for it all. His sight develops over time, and sometimes just in time. His hind site is first to become 20/20, and he tells how “they” did what they did to his people. Because he cares about his people and their national salvation, he is a patriot of the most hated sort: Hated by Satan and his children who strive to build Satan’s kingdom, which they like to call “new world order” where everyone gets to be citizens of the world or global citizens. Because the prophet loves his people the enemy labels him a hater and racist.

The prophet grows to see that this thing is “WAR”: War between good and evil, war between the children of light and children of darkness, i.e. between the sons of God and the children of the Devil. He grows to see the difference between the enemy Jesus said to love and the one the prophet David said to hate (Psalm 139:21), and thus the enemy labels him a leader of a hate group. He grows to see which enemy that curses him is to be blessed and which is to be cursed, so the Judeo-Christians call him un-Christian and unloving.

He grows to be suspicious. He often is far-sighted, that is, he cannot see the enemy up close, the one right in the camp; but look out when he does! Case in point is the prophet David. He finally saw the cursed, dirty-bird, snake enemy right next to him. In Psalms 1:1-3 he complains of an enemy.

Give ear to my prayer, O God; And do not hide Thyself from my supplication. Give heed to me, and answer me; I am restless in my complaint and am surely distracted, Because of the voice of the enemy, Because of the pressure of the wicked; For they bring down trouble upon me, And in anger they bear a grudge against me.

Psalms 55:1-3

The prophet David came to see the enemy up front and in person, as the saying goes.

For is not an enemy who reproaches me, Then I could bear it; Nor is it the one who hates me who has exalted himself against me, Then I could hide myself from him. But it is you, a man my equal, My companion and My familiar friend. We who had sweet fellowship together, Walked in the house of God in the throng.

Psalms 55:12-14

If the prophet survives, he continues to grow and he comes to see it is war against His King and the Kingdom of the King he is in service to. He comes to see the attacks upon him as nothing personal, but simply an attack upon one of the soldiers of the King. He also comes to see what many Christian soldiers of the cross do not see, i.e. the responsibility to fight back. Then he comes to see the Authority and Power Jesus has given His people to fight back with and overcome the enemy that is destroying them.

And the seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Your name." And He said to them, "I was watching Satan fall from heaven like lightning. "Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall injure you. "Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are recorded in heaven."

He then works to equip them with the weapons and spirit to fight back in the name of King Jesus, trying to get them to care about their children's future like Elijah did.

"Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day of the LORD. "And he will restore the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the land with a curse."

Malachi 4:4-6

In his growth process he comes to see the authority, power and protection in Jesus, and he tries to teach and equip them that may listen to him.

For this reason I too, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which exists among you, and your love for all the saints, do not cease giving thanks for you, while making mention of you in my prayers; that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of Him. I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe. These are in accordance with the working of the strength of His might which He brought about in Christ, when He raised Him from the dead, and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in the one to come. And He put all things in subjection under His feet, and gave Him as head over all things to the church, which is His body, the fulness of Him who fills all in all.

Ephesians 1:15-23

He grows to see the need to pray for his people as well as preach to them like the prophet Samuel of old.

Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; but I will instruct you in the good and right way.

I Samuel 12:23

He comes to see the authority he has and walks in it. When God sent the prophet Moses to town to see Pharaoh, he sent him with a staff and the name of God, both of which represent authority.

The prophet sees that miracles can happen when that Godly authority is exercised at a time when Christians really no longer believe in miracles. The prophet comes to see it will take a miracle (or two) for his people to get out of the predicament they and their sins have gotten themselves into. To the prophet, that is no problem, for to him the One who performs miracles is alive and well.

Then he comes to see that exercising that authority is how miracles happen. For example, when the prophet Moses and his people had their back against the Red Sea, with the worlds greatest military might charging down on him, he cried out to God. The Lord responded by saying: “Why are you crying out to Me?” (Exodus 14:16) Moses might have said “Lord what do you mean why am I crying out to you? I would think it’s rather obvious. Don’t you see I have a situation here? A rather serious situation!” The Lord saw the situation, but was trying to get the prophet to see that he already had the authority and power to handle it and perform a miracle. He had the staff that represented authority and the Name in which to pray in authority. Thus He told him: “Lift up your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it...” (Exodus 14:16)

There’s more that could be said concerning the growth of the prophet. It takes a life time, and he may only be used for a short brief time, but if he survives, over time he becomes invincible. In his growth, he grows to understand that the enemy can kill him like Herod killed the prophet John the Baptist, but he knows his King will raise him up. They can murder his children, but he knows his King can and will raise them up as well, and the circle will not be broken. He knows they can plunder him and take all his possessions, but he knows his treasures in heaven are safe and his King will provide. He knows they can torture him, but he knows his King will not allow more than he can endure.

But then, a few of them that survive it all in this war come to see, know and understand something. They don’t have to take it any more! They can give, i.e. they can dish it out as well (like Elisha calling down fire on the killer SWAT team sent to imprison him—2 Kings 1:10). It’s much like the old Popeye cartoons where Popeye is pounded on and pounded on, until he comes in touch with his source of power. Then he turns around and pounds and pulverizes his enemy. As said, all this growth applies to the Gideon hard-core remnant as well as to the prophet.

WHAT WE’VE GOT TO DO IN 2006

We of course have got to continue to grow, for we have yet much to learn. But we must use what we have already learned. We don’t have to sit back and take it anymore. We’ve learned we can and must fight back with the weapons given to us. Use the anointing and un-anointing oil. Posted at our website, www.scripturesforamerica.org, are the targets that have already been hit. Pray the imprecatory prayers posted at our website weekly (and prayed each night on our live radio broadcasts, heard via shortwave, satellite and the internet). Pray them with faith in the Power and Authority you have in Jesus Christ, and pray them in the name of Jesus Christ. Put on the armor of God before you pray, and pray the posted preparatory prayer before you pray the imprecatory prayer.

The posted imprecatory prayers are designed to curse our cursed enemies (to do so is Godly, for even God curses those who curse us—Genesis 12:3) and to bind others (the Law forbids cursing our Israelite rulers-Exodus 22:28). We are to bind ungodly kings and nobles (Psalms 149:8). Jesus gave us that power, which is one of the keys to the Kingdom (Matthew 16:19). We must use that power. To understand more on this read the feature article “Cursing”, in our Volume 5, 2004 DragonSlayer (also posted at our website, www.scripturesforamerica.org).

Understand that they use curses as a weapon against us, but no weapon formed against us shall prosper (Isaiah 54:17) and that Jesus became a curse for us (Galatians 3:13). Don’t let up. In fact, go back and re-pray them. Read 2 Kings 13: 18 & 19 and learn what the old prophet was trying to teach us.

Continue to take Communion weekly. (But only if you understand the truth about Communion--order our free booklet entitled “Communion and It’s Potential Blessings, Curses and Need”.) Continue to keep the Passover and the 91st Days (Great understanding and power has come to us since we started doing so, & December 19, noon to noon, is the next one.)

The prophet Isaiah, in Isaiah 10:25, tells us that He will direct His anger away from us and to their destruction. The imprecatory prayers do that. This turning of His wrath, from us to them, is turning the curse from our land upon them and is the Spirit of the prophet Elijah (read Malachi 4:4-6).

LASTLY, ON A SECONDARY AND CLOSING NOTE FOR THIS ARTICLE:

DON'T MESS WITH THE PROPHET WHO'S GROWN IN THIS UNDERSTANDING!

Some say there are no prophets today, yet the oldest Christian document in existence, outside of the Bible, (from about 80 AD) known as the “Didache” speaks of the prophet and his worthiness of support by “every first fruit”. The prophet requests prayers (to stay alive) and needs the first fruit support (to get the message out to others).

Some need to learn to respect the prophet. If you don’t like him or his ways then best just stay away from him. Don’t mess with one of them who have figured out that “it’s war”. One that has grown to see not only his authority, but also his responsibility to use it on those who choose to be his enemy.

Let's go back to the example of David in Psalms 55. Once he figured out the enemy and his way--His speech was smoother than butter, But his heart was war; His words were softer than oil, Yet they were drawn swords. (Psalms 55:21-23) ---He then exercised his power and authority and cursed the opposition. Let death come deceitfully upon them; Let them go down alive to Sheol, For evil is in their dwelling, in their midst. As for me, I shall call upon God, And the LORD will save me.

Psalms 55:15-16

When the prophet Samuel came to town the people respected him. Why? Because they knew he had the power to curse them and he knew he had the power. From a small child called to be a prophet he grew to know how to do it. They respected him and his authority.

So Samuel did what the LORD said, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city came trembling to meet him and said, "Do you come in peace?" And he said, "In peace; I have come.

I Samuel 16:4-5

There are several reasons not to mess with the prophet.

(1) God said so – Do not touch My anointed ones, And do My prophets no harm."

Psalms 105:15

(2) He might be a Levite such as the prophet Moses was, and if so it'll be a double whammy because of the protection God gives the Levite who teaches the people. "They shall teach Thine ordinances to Jacob, And Thy law to Israel. They shall put incense before Thee, And whole burnt offerings on Thine altar. O LORD, bless his substance, And accept the work of his hands; Shatter loins of those who rise up against him, And those who hate him, so that they may not rise again"

Deuteronomy 33:10-11

(3) He may just exercise his authority and power and curse you.

Then he went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up by the way, young lads came out from the city and mocked him and said to him, "Go up, you baldhead; go up, you baldhead" When he looked behind him and saw them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two female bears came out of the woods and tore up forty-two lads of their number. And he went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

2 Kings 2:23-25

Elisha in the above example didn't just deal with 42 disrespectful, ungrateful, dishonoring children. What he did was teach respect and honor of God's prophets to untold numbers, so they would listen and be blessed and saved.

AMERICA PAYS THE WAGES OF SIN:

God's people are beginning to notice some strange, fierce & adverse weather; and wonder.

This article addresses this.

By PASTOR PETER J. PETERS

There are what the Bible calls wages of sin (Romans 6:23). That means somebody is going to pay. Just as there "ain't no free lunch", there is no "free sin". Sin costs and costs dearly. This is true on the national level as well as the individual level. America is proving the rule, the rule that has been stated in many ways in Scripture.

Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap. Galatians 6:7

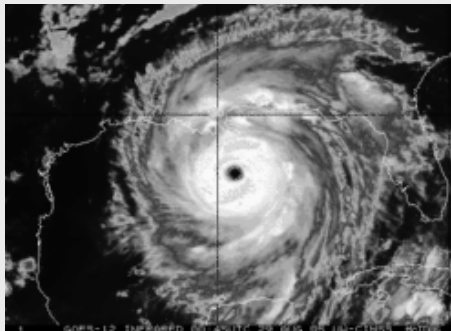

Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people. Proverbs 14:34

...They have provoked Me to anger... I will heep misfortunes on them: Deuteronomy 32:21,23

If you are not careful to observe all the words of this Law which are written in this book, to fear this honored and awesome name, the Lord your God... as the Lord delighted over you to prosper you, and multiply you, so the Lord will delight over you to make you perish... Deuteronomy 28:58,63

The wages of sin is ultimately death (Romans 6:23) but the death of a nation is a slow, debilitating and expensive death. A sinful nation is chastised and stricken for its sins and it becomes weaker and sicker. Isaiah described the process. Where will you be stricken again, as you continue in your rebellion? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart is fain. (Isaiah1:5) It's all part of the wages of sin.

Of all that has been filmed, written, reported, and broadcasted concerning the strange destructive hurricanes and tornadoes that started the first of the year with an earthquake, few have suggested that it could be the ongoing judgment of God.

The God of Israel has not changed. He still has a covenant people (Genesis 17:7). He has promised them national blessings if they are faithful to Him (Deuteronomy 28:1-14) and national curses if they are unfaithful (Deuteronomy 28:15-44). The blessings and curses have followed these people all the way to America, for the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian and kindred people that settled America are those people.

So all these curses shall come on you and pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed (i.e., death of their nation), because you would not obey the LORD your God by keeping His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you. And they shall become a sign and a wonder on you and your descendants forever.

Deuteronomy 28:45,46

AN EARTHQUAKE IS A SIGN OF AN INDIGNANT GOD

...At His wrath the earth quakes, and the nations cannot endure His indignation.

Jeremiah 10:10

Therefore, as a tongue of fire consumes stubble, and dry grass collapses into flame, so their root will become like rot and their blossom blow away as dust; for they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. On this account the anger of the Lord has burned against His people, and He has stretched out His hand against them and struck them down, and the mountains quaked; and their corpses lay like refuse in the middle of the streets. For all this His anger is not spent, but His hand is still stretched out.

Isaiah 5:24-25

Notice this Scripture says His anger is not spent. In other words, “You ain’t seen nothing yet, America.”

America’s hurricanes, droughts, floods, freezes, fires, tornadoes, diseases, trade deficits and coming earthquakes are the costly wages of sin. Jeremiah tells us it’s our sins that withhold good from us.

“And it shall come about when they say, ‘Why has the Lord our God done all these things to us?’ then you shall say to them, ‘As you have forsaken Me and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.’ ‘Declare this in the house of Jacob and proclaim it in Judah, saying, ‘Hear this, O foolish and senseless people, who have eyes, but see not; who have ears, but hear not. ‘Do you not fear Me?’ declares the Lord. ‘Do you not tremble in my presence? For I have placed the sand as a boundary for the sea, an eternal decree, so it cannot cross over it. Though the waves toss, yet they cannot prevail; though they roar, yet they cannot cross over it. 'But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart; They have turned aside and departed. They do not say in their heart, "Let us not fear the Lord our God, Who gives rain in its season, both the autumn rain and the spring rain, who keeps for us the appointed weeks of the harvest." 'Your iniquities have turned these away, and your sins have withheld good from you.'

Are we so foolish to think we can survive as a nation when we accept and tolerate usury, antichrists, queers, murderers, adultery, thieves, corrupt politicians, pornography, abortion, lasciviousness, rebellion, filthy Hollywood 'entertainment', corrupt judges, etc., etc.

"Shall I not punish them for these things?" declares the LORD. "On a nation such as this shall I not avenge Myself?" Who is the wise man that may understand this? And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? Why is the land ruined, laid waste like a desert, so that no one passes through? And the Lord said, "Because they have forsaken My Law which I set before them, and have not obeyed My voice nor walked according to it, but have walked after the stubbornness of their heart and after the Baais, as their fathers taught them."

Jeremiah 9:9, 12-14

On a national scale, where does it end? In death! That is, we either repent or we perish. Our only hope is to repent and turn back or we perish, for the wages of sin is death.

"If I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people, and My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked way, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

II Chronicles 7:13-14

It really is quite simple. "And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men, by which we must be saved."
Acts 4:12

The name "Jesus", (Iesous' in Greek), "Christ", (Christos; Khris-tos' in Greek) or "Jesus Christ" collectively are recorded over 1700 times in the New Testament. There is not one scripture in the entire Bible that supports using that other name some are trying to bring in our midst!

There's an old cowboy saying--'when you find yourself in a hole, the first thing you best quit doing is digging'. (Listen to our 12/2/05 radio broadcast, "Growing Up", archived at our website, www.scripturesforamerica.org.)

Notice from the Pastor's Wife:

Single men are in wonder...“Are there any single Christian women out there, or have they ALL been transformed by the world?!”

A couple of years ago, Pastor and I began to make a special point during our daily devotions to pray for the single people on the ministry. As of late, we got to noticing it is almost all single men left. The following was written by the mother of one of these single men and we believe it speaks for many.

LIFETIME CAREER OPPORTUNITY: QUALIFICATIONS AND JOB DESCRIPTION FOR DAUGHTER-IN-LAW AND MOTHER OF FUTURE GRANDCHILDREN

An excellent wife, who can find? For her worth is far above jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her. And he will have no lack of gain. (Proverbs 31:10)

Every occupation has job qualifications. Most people apply for jobs they think they are qualified for.

Some are looking for a challenge, some are looking for recognition, some are looking for an opportunity to rise to the top, and still some others are looking to make lots of money with all the fringe benefits.

Every position has a job description and this one is no different. It actually has a multiple part description. You'll have many tasks, some you'll excel at, others will be a challenge. Some will be enjoyable, others will be a real drudgery and repeated often.

In this job, there will be one boss to answer to. He'll be responsible for all decision-making. He may ask for your input, you may disagree with his decisions, but he has the authority to make the call-right or wrong. You have to back up every decision as if it's the right one always. This will make him grow and be successful. He'll learn on his own by his own mistakes. He won't need you to tell him he was wrong. He won't trust you with future decision-making with negative thoughts and words at the start. He goes out into the jungle of life and has to tangle with all sorts of wild life on a daily basis and he'd like to know at least there is a safe haven to come back to. A place where someone believes in him, empathizes with him, listens to him, and notices how brave and responsible he is: A person who encourages him. Someone he knows will make it worthwhile to go out and do battle again. A person who makes him feel more important than herself, no matter how bad your day was. The strength of a man is his leadership ability and the woman who believes in him. It can be torn down by a demanding, selfish woman. As long as he has one person to vent to and she isn't part of the demand team, he'll cherish that person even more. You make him feel special and important-he'll conquer the world for you. He'll want to spend more time with you than anyone else because you make him feel good. You'll be his best medicine. Sugar is sweet and you'll be his sugar fix.

Sometimes he'll forget to check in or be late calling back. You'll have to overlook that. He's probably in the middle of a battle. Not a real battle, but to him each job is a battle of sorts. Each one needs to be conquered!

You'll be the only one he'll share his thoughts, dreams and ambitions with. He needs you to build him up-not tear him down. After all, if you are chosen for this position, you'll be like his first mate on board.

Eventually, there will be others on board with you. You'll supervise them, train them, but they too will answer to him. You'll teach them the same respect for him that you have. In their eyes, he'll be their hero if you train them right. They'll make your job harder and more challenging but your rewards will be great!

There will be mountains to climb and valleys to go through, but he'll lead the way if you'll let him. When you let him and trust him, he'll find the way. He has an inner strength you don't have.

His motivation is to protect and provide for those that are his. He'll want to give you and the others that are his responsibility a castle to live in. He'll want you to have the finest of everything that he can provide. He just wants to have a reason to smile. He wants to know that you think he's wonderful, strong, intelligent, handsome and brave.

You might have to do things that you don't want to do, but you'll do them because you want to help him in any way you can. You won't complain to him, because he's had numerous complaints from the jungle today and he needs you to just be somebody who doesn't whine and complain. He'll feel great when he returns because he'll return to a place that's warm and inviting, with a warm meal ready for him. A caring, smiling person that will listen to his day. A clean house that is not confusing and disorderly. People who are excited to see him and not meet him at the door with a list of complaints.

Pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and healing to the bones. A wise woman builds her house, but the foolish tears it down with her own hands.

Proverbs 14:1

When a woman is submissive to the authority of the man in charge, even if he is disobedient, he can be won without a word by the behavior of the woman as the man observes her chaste and respectful behavior. (1 Peter 3:1)

Others may say that a woman must be assertive, aggressive and wear the pants like a man. That's a sure way to turn away a man. A man does not need or want a woman to compete with him. His genetic make-up is to protect and provide. He wants your un-conditional love and support, not one burdened with demands.

The job is not easy due to it's multi-faceted roles, however, it is rewarding.

You'll cry, you'll laugh, you'll worry, but you will have enriched the life of a very special person who's searching for a life-long helpmate and soul-mate. MY SON!

PS

This young man is not perfect. He has flaws, as do all of us. He can be testy, especially when he feels frustrated. However, he has a heart of gold. He often times goes the extra mile for others. He's a very hard worker and will provide well for you. You'll never want for anything and he'd never physically hurt you. He'd protect you with his life. He just needs to know that he is the head of his household and all rule and authority are his as given to him through JESUS CHRIST. He answers to Him!

It's Time To Grow Up and Wise Up

“And He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ; until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fulness of Christ. As a result, we are no longer to be children, tossed here and there by waves, and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by craftiness in deceitful scheming; but speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into Him, who is the head, even Christ,” Ephesians 4:11-15

Having a simple, child-like faith where we believe the Word is one thing. Having a child-like naivety that allows the false prophet to take that Word from us is another.

It is really quite simple. When God's Word says one thing and someone else says another, go with what God said. Eve should have simply gone with the Word of God rather than the deceiver that twisted the Word and tried to explain to her what He was 'really' saying.

But I am afraid, lest as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds should be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ. For if one comes and preaches another Jesus whom we have not preached, or you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a different gospel which you have not accepted, you bear this beautifully. 2 Corinthians 11:3,4

There are reasons this preacher separates from certain men. For example, there was a man; a fat Baptist, flock-fleecing, flim-flam man (who's still shamelessly coming up with one money scheme after another) who came into our midst, and first thing started perverting the clear, concise teaching of Acts 2:38: And Peter said to them, "Repent, and let each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

This is a serious salvation issue (I Peter 3:21) and required a decision. I for one made it regardless if a few disliked it. After all, they reasoned, he did teach such nice other things on the family, godly living, etc... And he had a nice family and a nice smile; he couldn't possibly be a wolf in sheep's clothing.

Remember, it's quite simple. If the Word of God says one thing and someone else teaches another---Grow Up, and go with the Word of God. (Listen to our 12/02/05 8pm, Central, Radio broadcast at the web.)

It Was No Accident or Coincidence!

Piece of Supreme Court marble falls...

WASHINGTON — A basketball-sized piece of marble moulding fell from the facade over the entrance to the Supreme Court, landing on the steps near visitors waiting to enter the building. No one was hurt. The chunk of Vermont marble was part of the dentil molding that serves as a frame for nine sculptural figures completed in 1935.

The piece that fell was over the figure of Authority, near the peak of the building's pediment, and to the right of the figure of Liberty, who has the scales of justice on her lap.

One does not have to be a statistician to figure out the odds of this happening, nor overly spiritual to figure out the meaning of it.

It happened 70 days after the last 91st soldier Sabbath day (many have noticed the advances that have been made in spiritual growth, understanding and warfare since observing the 91st days). E.W. Bullinger's book Numbers in Scriptures says of 'seventy' "...perfect spiritual order carried out with all spiritual power and significance..." Seventy elders furnished Israel's Great Tribunals...Seventy disciples sent out by the Lord prefigured the Mighty Host which followed them (Luke 10:17) in spirit and in person (note another word for power is authority).

The building was completed in 1935, and this happened 70 years later, in 2005. There are four sides to the building but it happened on the main entrance side and smack dab in the middle of the entrance steps. It happened at a busy time of the day, yet no one was hurt, and it happened over the figure of AUTHORITY!

It happened at a time when we have gone to the subject of “authority” in our recent Sunday morning messages. Messages pointing out that Moses was with and went with “authority” to free his people, equipped with the Name of God and the staff, both of which represent authority.

In this preacher’s insignificant opinion, what happened at the ‘Supreme Court’ was no accident or coincidence. It was done by Him who is far above all power and authority and was done because of the secret weapon revealed in our Volume 7, 2005 DragonSlayer Newsletter, which was applied to that building. Take it as His encouraging ‘wink’ to the Gideon Guerillas, letting them know their labors are not in vain and to keep it up because she (Babylon) is all coming down. Keep anointing and keep pounding and pulverizing with imprecatory prayer power. God’s termites can eat rock and prayers to Him can activate spiritual jackhammers!

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh, for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses. We are destroying speculations and every lofty thing raised up against the knowledge of God, and we are taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ, and we are ready to punish all disobedience, whenever your obedience is complete. 2 Corinthians 10:3-6

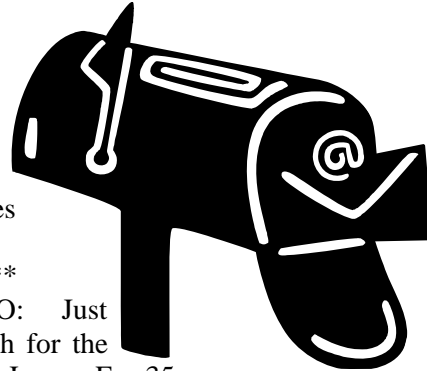

They will repair the façade, but their efforts will be as futile as the Philistines of old, whose false god could not stand before the Power of God.

Now the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. Then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it to the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. When the Ashdodites arose early the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and set him in his place again. But when they arose early the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. And the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off on the threshold; only the trunk of Dagon was left to him.

From the Mailbag

Regarding the Dragon-Slayer Volume 10, 2005 issue--page 2--"God's Name". I love the tone of that article! Very simple but not for those that call themselves intelligent. (via email)

Hi to all you Saints in CO: Just wanted to thank you so very much for the article about God's name, which is Jesus. For 35 years he was God to me in my prayers and conversations, then for 11 years he has been God/Jesus. Now I know why I was told to call him Jesus so people would know who I am talking about. (via email)

Thank you for Sundays messages... Through the Grace of God my eyes were opened to truth regarding the name of Jesus and was baptized in Branson for the remission of sins in the name of Jesus. I only believed the "Hebrew name" lie for a short time, 5 years. Thanks for the truth and Praise Jesus!

Keep up the good fight and I hope you reach more stiff-necked Israelites such as myself. Please send us two copies of the book "No Other Name but Jesus", and God bless you, your family and staff.

In the name of Jesus... (Missouri)

The Stephen King movie "The Stand" is about a flu pandemic. The main "evil" character apparently can change himself from man to crow. Either the movies are prophesying or they are propaganda tools for perception management of the population as these criminals show us what they have planned. I would say the latter!! (via email)

Pastor Peters' messages have been awesome and insightful. My eyes were opened when he explained the way "they" use the term bird to mean Dirty Bird. Like the middle-finger insult. Also, isn't it telling that the PBS children's TV show, "Sesame Street," has a character in it named Big Bird? (via email)

I am enclosing $100.00 Australian to continue to receive your monthly tapes, and DragonSlayer newsletter. It's powerful.

I have anointed Courthouses and Masonic lodges and the Taxation Office here as well as our Council Chambers and amazing things are happening! (The reptiles are getting out). Hallelujah! (Australia)

I appreciate your sermons for they give me strength and hope. I'm proud to support you and your church. Out-of-the-Box Thinking! (New York)

I have been a frequent listener to your call-in show for 6 years or so and I have been attending your church via the shortwave every Sunday. I am sure you are hitting on all cylinders! Every sermon is a wonderful revelation. Some of them are actually beyond words. (Wisconsin)

Dear Pastor Pete;

It's so nice to know that the truth is still being told! I listen to your [our ministry] every day, and hope that this truth continues to be told! I pray for this to be the case, I know that the powers that be hate this, for they are being exposed.

I once trusted our leaders, to the point that I went off to fight for our country, ended up being wounded and seeing friends around me lay dead and passing! I grew up in the faith thanks to my Christian parents, and could not believe what I was seeing around me! But I now know the true meaning of collateral damage and that our leaders accept this as the norm. I am not complaining but my combat injuries have left me disabled, and all I have for health care is the vamc as the severity of my related problems make it so no insurance co. will have a thing to do with my care, and the vamc's are being run by hmo exec's by a plan on part of our govt.!

Please pass this along to those of age in your congregation! This is my goal! To pass on my experience to all the gung-ho want to be's, and to turn them to God! I am no Pastor Pete but I try.

Keep on telling it like it is! In Christ, (via email)

We would very much like to know if we should be baptized again. Our previous Pastor used "Yahshua" in place of Jesus Christ. This has us very concerned. Please use the enclosed check as a gift for your ministry. (Arkansas)

OK, I'm convinced. Send me a bottle of your anointing oil. It will be used on the following courthouses in TN...

(Tennessee)

Dear Pastor Peters: After hearing this morning on the 'boob tube' that the facade of the Supreme Court building fell down, there is no question in my mind that this is the Hand of God at work after the unanointing and anointing oil was applied to the building. Looking up the word "facade" in a couple of dictionaries, the definitions are:

1. A showy misrepresentation intended to conceal something unpleasant

2. A false, superficial or artificial appearance or effect

Certainly fits, doesn't it? God works in marvelous and wondrous ways! If I were one of the snakes on that court, I would definitely take this as a warning. CA

The piece that fell was over the figure of Authority, near the peak of the building's pediment, and to the right of the figure of Liberty, who has the scales of justice on her lap.

Interesting as the last few days I have been praying for such a thing to show up. I asked for the entrance to be RENT. Maybe, this is a small sign. (via email)

Supreme Court - falling marble

The top of the building there is a row of the world's law givers and each one is facing one in the middle who is facing forward with a full frontal view.. it is Moses and he is holding the Ten Commandments. Maybe the building will need a "face lift", maybe the marble is not coming loose on its own. Also, as you enter the Supreme Court courtroom, the two huge oak doors have the Ten Commandments engraved on each lower portion of each door. In the courtroom, you can see the wall, right above where the Supreme Court judges sit, a display of the Ten Commandments. Has any of this been "updated"?

Also, there are Bible verses etched in stone all over the Federal Buildings and monuments in Washington D.C. WI
