

From the Editor's Pen

This newsletter is Volume 10, 2006.

We had hoped and planned to get twelve newsletters out this year, but we have had extensive equipment break-downs in our print shop, and as a result, we finish the 2006 calendar year out with this Volume 10 DragonSlayer newsletter.

In 2004, we paid over $37,000.00 for the large Konica 7085 printer that we use for printing this newsletter, (plus a huge monthly service contract). Since then, its reliability has become an issue, and it appears that we may need to replace it. We have over 3.5 million prints on it at this time, but it should last longer and be more dependable than it has been. We are looking at possibly trading this one and we are looking at other companies, so please keep this in your prayers.

Preparations are currently being made for the Men's Leadership Conferences scheduled for February, 2007 in CO and FL. It should be said that this training is not just for those aspiring to be elders and deacons, but for any faithful Christian man feeling called to sharpen his Christian leadership skills. See pages 14-17 in this newsletter for details of the meetings, and an application.

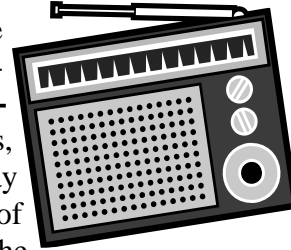

We also would like to put out a call to the ladies of our congregation for articles appropriate for the "Hand That Rocks the Cradle" section of this newsletter. If you have an article that you would like to share with other Christian ladies, send it in to us. Please email to preacher@sfaw.org or regular mail is ok.

We continue to push forward with the Outreach Ministries and are pleased to announce the following.

We are now streaming video to our website 24/7, an expansion of how we stream the "Early Morning Church" on Sunday mornings. Right now, these are archived Church services and videos such as “Roots”, and we look to expand that in the future.

Of late, shortwave coverage on the West coast has been weak, so we are experimenting with a new additional short-wave station, KAIJ--5.755, out of Dallas, TX from 7-8pm (Central Time), Monday through Friday, starting prior to the first of the year. This new s/w station will reach the American West coast, New Zealand, Australia and Asia!

As for AM, we are still on an AM station in Memphis, and we are seeing positive results from this outreach.

iPod “podcasting” of the nightly live broadcast and of the Sunday morning live Church broadcasts is now available. See our website for details, www.scripturesforamerica.org.

We are also in the process of updating and re-vamping our website, to make it easier to navigate and to make the messages there more accessible. This is very much needed due to the growth we have seen on the website, and we ask for your patience, prayers and support as we take on this project.

Please keep all of these Outreach Ministry efforts in your prayers, that through these, the Lost Sheep will hear the Gospel message of Jesus Christ.

This preacher thanks those of you who send us support so we can continue our labors here. Please also keep us in your prayers.

Sincerely Still Stompin’ Snakes,

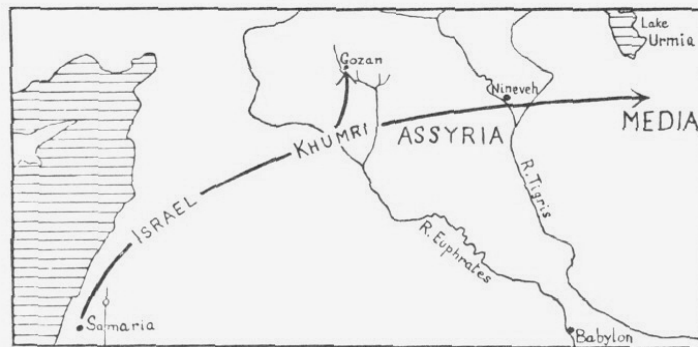

Pastor Peters

Prophecy—The Dirty Birds are Coming Down

Much Bible prophecy is missed because so few know who the people of the Bible prophecy are. The false prophets point to the modern day people called Jews and Israelis and teach that they are the Israelites of the Scriptures, i.e. the people of prophecy.

The God of Israel dispersed all twelve tribes abroad, just as James 1:1 states. As a result of the Assyrian captivity (around 700 BC) those people went north and west. Then the great Shepherd brought His sheep from the north land into the new Promised Land (the North American continent) in the greatest mass migration in the history of mankind.

We write this so the reader might understand what Jeremiah wrote in Jeremiah Chapter 23. “But, 'As the LORD lives, who brought up and led back the descendants of the household of Israel from the north land and from all the countries where I had driven them.' Then they will live on their own soil.”
Jeremiah 23:8

732–700 B.C. Israel taken into exile by the Assyrians who called them Khumri, later corrupted to Gimira

Jeremiah Chapter 23 is a scathing condemnation against Israel's religious leaders. The chapter begins with "Woe to the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of My pasture!" declares the LORD." (Jeremiah 23:1) Most do not know or understand that Jeremiah 23 is an end-time prophecy, which can be seen in the words of verse 20. "...In the last days you will clearly understand it."

Ezekiel Chapter 22 is also a prophecy against the religious leaders and the princes, calling it a conspiracy (Ezekiel 22:25-31) and predicting their demise in fire. "Thus I have poured out My indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath; their way I have brought upon their heads," declares the Lord God."

Ezekiel 22:31

That fire has been set in the Judeo-Christianity world of the false prophets.

On Sunday, November 20, 2006, we preached a sermon entitled "Change", pointing out that the true church takes on and changes the world, whereas the false church throws in with the world and changes with it. (This sermon is available on DVD Church, tape or CD from Scriptures for America.) The Lord, through Jeremiah, makes it clear had they been His men, there would have been a change in the land for the better.

"But if they had stood in My council, Then they would have announced My words to My people, And would have turned them back from their evil way And from the evil of their deeds." Jeremiah 23:22

As it is, there is change alright—change for the worse. Has anyone noticed that we have more churches today than we've ever had before, and we also have more adultery, more Sodom and Gomorrah homosexuality than ever before, more sin than ever before? The prophet Jeremiah saw all of this and so stated it: "Also among the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen a horrible thing: The committing of adultery and walking in falsehood; And they strengthen the hands of evildoers, So that no one has turned back from his wickedness. All of them have become to Me like Sodom, And her inhabitants like Gomorrah. "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets, 'Behold, I am going to feed them wormwood And make them drink poisonous water, For from the prophets of Jerusalem Pollution has gone forth into all the land.'" Jeremiah 23:14 & 15

Elijah of old took on all the lying Baal priests and as a result, the people ended up taking the dirty birds to the big bird bath called the brook Kishon, and a change came about in the land (see 1 Kings 18:10-40).

On page 195 of the book "America the Conquered", which this preacher wrote fifteen years ago, is the following chart of cause and effect.

At the top is the economic social system. Your social standing is determined by economics, and thus it is at the top of the chart. ("America the Conquered" is available from Scriptures for America for a donation of $5.00)

Next on the chart is the Political system. We all know the politicians have a direct impact on our economics. That political condition is determined by the spiritual condition of the people. It would have once been political suicide to run for a political office and be in favor of the death lifestyle of abortion and homosexuality. Not so today, for there has been a change in religion in America from that old time, sin-hating religion called Christianity to the new sin-tolerating and sin-promoting religion called Judeo-Christianity. That change has come about because there has been a change in religious leaders.

The following is taken from the book, "America the Conquered".

This brings us to America the Conquered today. She is conquered and held captive to an ancient Babylonian system. Babylon is an order which is out of order with God. Babylon is an economic, social system which is opposite that of the Kingdom of Christ. God's people are conquered subjects of Babylon. But, the fault does not lie with the conquerors. It lies with the conquered.

This can be seen by completing block "A" of the chain of cause and effect. What is it or who is it that determines the religious leaders that in turn determine the religion and spiritual condition that in turn determines the political and economic social conditions? The answer is found in Jeremiah chapter five verse 31: "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule on their own authority; and MY PEOPLE love it so! But what will you do at the end of it?" (emphasis added). It is God's people who find themselves in a mess and are responsible for it.

The choice is and always has been the people's. It's just as Elijah said to the people, "...How long will you hesitate between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow Him; but if Baal, follow him..." (1 Kings 18:21) The choice was theirs, but the problem was, they always limped and vacillated. They, at times, gave lip service to God but not obedience to His laws (Isaiah 29:13). Then, when they reaped what they themselves had sown, they would blame others.

So, today the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, and kindred people who are Israel, the descendents of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, find themselves in an economic, social Babylonian captivity; just as their forefathers were once in a Babylonian captivity. They can cuss the religious leaders on T.V. and elsewhere, they can blame the politicians, point their finger at the minorities, accuse and hate those who rule over them as their conquerors or labor from dawn to dusk selfishly to try and improve their economic and social lot, but until they face the reality they are the ones responsible, there will be no change.

If I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people, and My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

2 Chronicles 7:13, 14

AMERICA THE CONQUERED

This book proves beyond a shadow of a doubt that America has been conquered and THEY, the conquerors, now rule over us. Read and discover who THEY are and awaken to the reality of our conquest. Discover why it has happened and how it happened and what we must do.

A Report on our Sling-Shot Effort to Faith and Fan the Flames

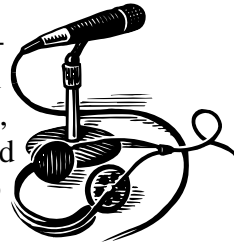

Since we've called down fire there has been smoke rolling out of the halls of Congress, and the GOP has been trying to put out the fire caused by the Congressman fag Foley and the Page Scandal. The Catholic cult is being hit with so many lawsuits regarding their child predator fag priests that the Associated Press carried an article entitled "Pope Sounds Alarm over Sex Abuse by Clergy", quoting Pope Benedict XVI's concern of the cost of this to their 'church'. (According to figures issued by the US Conference of Catholic Bishops, in the past few decades that decadent Catholic cult outfit has paid out $1.5 Billion to put out the fires of sex perversion suits.) (Two books that help expose the Catholic cult, "50 Years in the "Church" of Rome", and "Smokescreens", are available together for a donation of $20.00, including shipping, from Scriptures for America Ministry, PO Box 766, LaPorte, CO 80535)

Now the fires have erupted in the Evangelical world with the charismatic fag and drug user 'Pastor' Ted Haggard, and his 14,000 member New Life Church in Colorado Springs, CO. The homosexual pervert was also the President of the 30 million member-strong National Association of Evangelicals, and had a red carpet entry and key to the White House.

This article is to inform you of our small David-type sling shot effort to Faith the Fire we've called down, and to fan the flames a bit.

Concerning the incident, we would recommend a listen to our nightly broadcast from November 6, 2006, (archived at our website, www.scripturesforamerica.org), entitled “What’s Not Said about Old Ted”, and also to our November 12, 2006 Sunday pulpit sermon. That Sunday sermon is also archived at our website, and has been sent out on our DVD Church Outreach Ministry. That message from November 12th was also broadcast as our Monday, November 13th evening broadcast, and it too is archived at our website, www.scripturesforamerica.org.

Briefly, some points of that message are that Haggard not only fits the warning of Jesus regarding a wolf in sheep’s clothing, but of the alien tare in our midst that Pastor Peters has been warning of. Past sermons from Scriptures for America Ministry have warned of and spoken of the dirty bird bastards that the Bible teaches of, those who are indeed like what Peter wrote of.

“But these, like unreasoning animals, born as creatures of instinct to be captured and killed, reviling where they have no knowledge, will in the destruction of those creatures also be destroyed, suffering wrong as the wages of doing wrong. They count it a pleasure to revel in the daytime. They are stains and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions, as they carouse with you”

2 Peter 2:12, 13

We point out in that message that in his departing letter to his congregation, Old Ted never repented, he defended his queer lover, and he flat out told them, “I am a deceiver and a liar”. He did not say “I was a deceiver and a liar”, or “I lived a lie and deceived”. No---he said “I AM a deceiver and a liar”. That of course is what these alien snake, sons of the devil, seed of satan bastards are. So as a liar and deceiver, he states in his departing letter: "I am so sorry for the circumstances that have caused shame and embarrassment to all of you." We point out in the message the truth of God's Word concerning these creatures:

"Transgression speaks to the ungodly within his heart; There is no fear of God before his eyes. For it flatters him in his own eyes, Concerning the discovery of his iniquity and the hatred of it. The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit; He has ceased to be wise and to do good."

Psalms 36: 1-3

We also point out in the message this quote from his letter: "Please stay faithful to God through service and giving." We point out that Preaching men of God need to call out to that congregation "Don't give one red cent until they teach repent!" You see, you can be sure as the church leaders met with the alien pervert Haggard (in his attorney's office, as the newspaper reported), that they gave him a healthy severance pay and agreed to pay for the 'fire-fighting team' of councilors who will also be paid to 'council and restore' him.

Will the evangelical leaders called upon to put out the fire call for repentance? The radio psychologist of Colorado Springs, Dr. Dobson of the famed 'Focus on the Family', was on the air right after Old Ted's confession, and the Dr. said not a word about repentance, or what the Bible warns of, ie wolf in sheep's clothing, false brethren, tares in among the wheat, satan's servants disguising themselves as servants of righteousness (2 Corinthians 11:15). Such men and people who listen to them tend to point to Galatians 6:1—"Brethren, even if a man is caught in any trespass, you who are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; each one looking to yourself, lest you too be tempted."

This verse is hardly appropriate to the situation. The 13 verses in 1 Corinthians Chapter 5 is, and is what they stay away from. It begins with the words "It is actually reported that there is immorality among you, and im- morality of such a kind as does not exist even among the Gentiles...”

Dr. Dobson called Ted his brother and said something to the effect of he would like to extend his arms out through the microphone and hug him. He along with mega-church preachers Jack Hayford (CA) and Tommy Barnett (AZ) were to be on the counseling ‘fire-fighting’ team. Dr. Dobson has since dropped out.

Haggard, in his farewell letter, wrote, “I have been appropriately and lovingly removed from ministry. Our church’s overseers have requires me to submit to the oversight of Dr. James Dobson, Pastor Jack Hayford, and Pastor Tommy Barnett. Those men will perform a thorough analysis of my mental, spiritual, emotional and physical life. They will guide me through a program with the goal of healing and restoration for my life.”

Notice how he uses the word “healing”. Sick people need healing—sinners need repentance. Notice how he wrote of “healing and restoration” instead of “repentance and restoration.” This is the leaven (ie, the POISON) of the Pharisee, to get you and me to believe he’s sick and needs healing.

This is what we have done to help fan and flame the fires and expose the perverted Judeo-Christianity the Evangelical world promotes—we have put ads in both of the Colorado Springs newspapers that are as follows (see the ad at the end of this article). We are also attempting similar ads on the radio stations in Colorado Springs.

Then we wrote to the leadership of New Life Church, to Dr. Dobson, Tommy Barnett and to Jack Hayford, inviting them to be guests on our evening live radio broadcast. As of this newsletter writing, they have not accepted our invitation.

This is our small way of faithing and fanning the flames of the fires we all called down. We appropriated about $3,000.00 of our November monthly budget to this project. A sling shot effort compared to the big boys, we know, but it only took a sling shot to bring one old big boy down (1 Samuel 17:19).

(see pages 25 & 26 for emails of support and encouragement, and some criticism, regarding this issue.)

For it is written in the Law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle the ox while he is threshing." God is not concerned about oxen, is He? Or is He speaking altogether for our sake? Yes, for our sake it was written, because the plowman ought to plow in hope, and the thresher to thresh in hope of sharing the crops. If we sowed spiritual things in you, is it too much if we should reap material things from you? If others share the right over you, do we not more? Nevertheless, we did not use this right, but we endure all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the gospel of Christ. Do you not know that those who perform sacred services eat the food of the temple, and those who attend regularly to the altar have their share with the altar? So also the Lord directed those who proclaim the gospel to get their living from the gospel.

This part of the application may seem strange to some. The Bible teaches that there are satanic driven spies (Luke 20:20), false, deceitful servants of evil (2 Corinthians 11:13,14), as well as evil tares, sons of hell and two-fold sons of hell.

The Bible teaches that these can come in disguise and that those who hate the Lord do disguise themselves and intermingle with the brethren. Such are worthy of the fiery curses of God, not unlike what fell upon Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5) or upon Elymas (Acts 13:10).

We want NONE of them at these training seminars.

Beware! Upon signing this application you are certifying that you are none of the above. If you are, and you sign the application anyway, our fiery imprecatory prayers will bring the destruction that you so rightly deserve.

Be Aware! Pastor Peters RESERVES THE RIGHT to expel anyone deemed to be as described above, from the conference.

Anyone with a confrontational or argumentative attitude, or those who’s motive is to impress others with their knowledge or to “teach” the teacher, will also be removed.

Pastor Peters invites you to pray with him his personal Pound & Pulverize Prayer for the year 2007. The first shot of Project Megiddo was fired Jan. 1, 2000. The last shot is yet to be fired.

Oh Mighty Lord and Majestic King of kings, rise up and make known the evil deed done, and the innocent blood shed of the only begotten son, and avenge, Oh Righteous Judge, Avenge! Exalt Your Name and manifest Your Power and Glory, and show that even the clutches of a cold grave could not hold him. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

(The following is from the Bible story found in 2 Samuel 11:1-27)

URIAH'S MURDER

One could say it was like all funerals are, but it wasn't. It was worse!! They are always worse on the grief scale when the one who died wasn't supposed to die. Yes, we are all supposed to die; but the silent moan of the young man's father was, "It was not supposed to be this way. I was not supposed to bury him – he was supposed to bury me." Such is the case when a young man dies in the prime of life due to a tragic accident.

No one could make sense of it in the midst of the sadness and sorrow, the tears and the anguish. "Why?" was the question asked by the young man's family. "Why couldn't it have been me?" was the anguished father's question. "Why was Uriah so close to the wall and all alone by himself?" thought his comrades. But, of course, this was not the place or the time to vocalize such questions. Not with saddened Commander-in-Chief King David and General Joab in attendance. It appeared none felt any worse than them, save for the young man's grieving, sobbing widow, standing over her beloved departed husband's grave. "Oh, how she must have loved him," the people thought. "Why did their beautiful marriage have to end this way?" None of it made any sense then.

“But, that was then and this is now,” thought the prophet as he now stands over the grave in mindful meditation. A grave that is now lonely and grown over with grassy sod and long forgotten by most that were there on that funeral day. He had been trying to make sense of it all for a long time. For the prophet, it had all just been a matter of time, patience, prayer, meditation, and inquiry. For the prophet it had been like a Sherlock Holmes’ movie or mystery novel where everything appeared one way to the public because it was made to appear that way, but with diligent detective work and fitting the clues together, things began to make sense. The young man under the sod was not a victim of an accident, but of murder. Yet, how was he going to tell it?

It didn’t make sense all right. At least not back then. Then, when it was made to appear that there was a grieving widow, a saddened King David, and a perplexed General Joab, who himself had to pursue a field military inquiry to investigate the senseless death. It is called conspiracy and cover-up – all of which are the criminal bedfellows of the crime called murder. The old prophet was thankful that time was on his side on this one (being that there is no statute of limitations for murder). And, over the course of time, more and more came to light. He was thankful his God was just and answered prayer and still cared, and could still hear Uriah’s blood cry out from the ground as loudly as Abel’s blood!

You see, the prophet, too, had cried out “why?” concerning a lot of unanswered questions about Uriah’s bloody death. Only he, like prophets do, asked God, knowing the spiritual principal that a man has not because he asks not, and his God had slowly answered by bringing more questions to his mind. Of course, people would think he was out of his mind to even think of asking further questions or to even suspiciously think that the good widow and the good King could ever be bad. Such he knew was not within the realm of common thinking. It is like sheep that know there are such things as bloody, killing predators, but they think such things only happen in the movies or to someone else; they considered the prophet crazy for even thinking murder instead of accident.

Yes, accidents like this are not supposed to happen, but they do and it is just unfortunate that they do, so reasons the common man. Prophets like Nathan reason differently than the average man. That is why people need them, sometimes listen to them, seldom heed them, and almost always consider them a little far out (if not down-right crazy).

Nathan was middle-aged, a palace prophet who was unlike the false prophets who frequented the palace with their politically correct prophecies. He was not afraid to speak the truth, but had learned wisdom and patience over the years and now knew sometimes truth has to be spoken so those with ears to hear would hear. After all, he reasoned, it had taken him time to get the truth on this one and even he had a hard time believing it - at least at first.

He first started questioning things when Uriah's family told him their perplexity at the actions of the supposed grieving widow. It just didn't add up. They knew how things were between Uriah and her. The prophet initially didn't take seriously such speaking from grieving family members; especially when he suspected sour grapes, so to speak. But, then he discovered things had not been right or good in the home, and that maybe she was not the loyal, devoted companion she portrayed that funeral day. He discovered there may have been a secondary reason Uriah did not want to go home to his wife the two nights that King David gave him a chance to (or maybe it was the primary reason), and simply not wanting to air dirty laundry, as they say, he used the reason he did. After all, the saying was, "better to live in the desert or in the corner of a house top than with a contentious woman", and the family made it known to him that there had been a lot of contention in Uriah's house before his death. In fact, they had not been living together in the same house prior to his death.

"Um?" Nathan thought when he investigated further. Maybe there really wasn't any love lost between them - or at least maybe not from her to him. Could it be she wasn't the loyal, dutiful, devoted wife seen sorrowing that now forgotten funeral day? Well, that's what Uriah's family seemed to say. They said she was a bitch to him then, and now they called her the Royal Palace bitch, being that she was now royalty because she was now King David's wife. They said she knew how to use the system for herself. Again he had thought sour grapes when he heard them, but again he had wondered and he had wondered about the royal marriage.

It's no wonder when a young lady says, "I do" to a king's proposal and does so quickly at that. Quickly after the time of grief or widowhood (whatever time that is supposed to be in the minds of self righteous people). Certainly no crime in that, he thought - maybe a lack of self control, but no crime. What he wondered about was the time of the pregnancy in the marriage and even the pregnancy itself. Let's see now – it had been how many months after the marriage that she gave birth to a son? But, of course, it could have been Uriah's son; but the facts showed Uriah had been in the battlefield for a certain amount of time and that the one time he came back he did not go home. No, it couldn't have been Uriah's son, and David's grieving for that son was that of a father, not that of a stepfather. Well, the child was premature, the people said, and that is why he died. Perhaps, thought the prophet, but perhaps not, he thought as well. "Oh, how could he think it," people would say. And why was he so suspicious as to how Uriah died? It was an accident – that's all.

An accident that had already been investigated and written up as just that – an accident. Yes, but the suspicious prophet thought, an accident investigated by the King's men, the system, the establishment. The prophet knew that the king's men – yeah, the establishment boys - do what they are told and report what they are supposed to. They work out pangs of guilt by telling themselves they are just doing their job. Such men are pigs, and the prophet knew the old saying "once a pig always a pig" did have a ring of truth concerning some men. Men more interested in their jobs, benefits, and retirement than in truth, justice, and righteousness - the very things that caused the prophet to question their report and press on in the investigation. After all, as already stated, time was on his side since there is no statute of limitations on murder, and he knew with faith, prayer, and patience, it was just a matter of time. And, of course, men do change sometimes; some men anyway. It is called repentance and is brought on by the Holy Spirit, which is brought on by prayer. In fact, some men had already fearfully come forward and dropped a hint or two as if whispering in one's ear – but could and probably would just as fearfully go backwards or back off from what they had tried to say if openly questioned in court-like fashion. After all, they had heard the King say, "For the sword devours one as well as the other." (The prophet would continue to pray and hope others would pray for the Holy Spirit to so convict as to cause confession of sin and to call for curses on the murderers and their accomplices.)

There had been men at the accident scene who had, in all honesty, seen more than they were supposed to see and the prophet himself had seen it many times – that is, in his mind's eye. Going over it all piece by piece it didn't make sense – not from the perspective of an accident; but it did from the perspective of murder, conspiracy, and cover-up.

You see, even though it was warfare, very few Israelite men fighting under David lost their lives in war. It was most unusual, at least in those days, with the Ark of the Lord going before them and God being with them. Why, from many a battle David himself returned without one single casualty, but in this battle, where Uriah died, many had died. Died by accident, the report said. By accidentally getting too close to the wall. The accident didn't make any sense – that is, unless one believed the accident report that said Uriah was drinking and thus not of totally sound mind. His family knew better and knew he was of sound mind. They knew what the report said and knew their Uriah was not of such character. They knew he was a brave and forthright man and found it interesting that the report said he had not died like the other men at the battle scene. The other men had been shot in the back, and Uriah's wounds were in the chest. How could this be, unless the other men had been given the command or maybe secret signal to turn and retreat, leaving Uriah all alone to die? The family was ready to use forensic evidence if need be, for they had the body.

Crazy, thought the prophet, but then again he thought, why were there those, including the widow, who did not want the body buried where it was buried, and why were there those who should have wanted Uriah's reputation and integrity protected, yet they openly promoted and told the world he was an abusive man and an alcoholic man? Uriah's family said they knew better. They knew, and so did the prophet, that some were so base that they would be willing to accuse the very son of God of being a wine bibber. The family knew and took comfort in the fact that God knew, and frankly, after their great loss, they could care less if anyone else knew or cared. They knew there would be justice.

The prophet knew not only was time on his side but so was God. He knew he would have to have more to prove it all and he did, but he also knew he had to be patient. They had destroyed one man's life and he knew they could well try to destroy him by taking everything he had and even kill or imprison him, for such had been the fate of many a prophet; but, he also knew and believed the truth of God's Word:

"Therefore do not fear them, for there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known. What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what *you hear whispered in your ear, proclaim upon the housetops.

"And do not fear those who kill the body, but are unable to kill the soul; but rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.*

Matthew 10:26-28

"And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints and of all who have been slain on the earth."

Revelations 18:24

*For behold, the LORD is about to come out from His place To punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity;
And the earth will reveal her bloodshed, And will no longer cover her slain.*

Isaiah 26:21

(NOTE: the following e-mail was sent to a dirty bird preacher who works in vain to remove the name “Jesus” and substitute it with the unholy name of yashua. A copy of the email was sent to us, and to several others. Further note Jeremiah’s condemnation of the false prophets: “How long? Is there anything in the hearts of the prophets who prophesy falsehood, even these prophets of the deception of their own heart, who intend to make My people forget My name by their dreams which they relate to one another, just as their fathers forgot My name because of Baal?” Jeremiah 23:26 & 27

Pastor xxxxxxx (and others) - I’ve a question.....Why do you all disagree by what name God and His Son Jesus, are called? I’ve read many bibles and I have never seen these names before. Yahweh and Yashuah,sic) If they are Hebrew, why is everything else in English? We speak in English here, so why the confusion? Heck, why not do it in Spanish, too...Instead of wasting all this time defending who is right, would it not make sense to write more about the Laws of God, getting the brethren to return to ALL of them. Isn’t that what our Father asks us? Obey (love)....How simple can it get? All this intellectual and academic nonsense is confusing and now I see why "babel on" equals confusion. Praise God for His Holy Fire that is bring righteousness back to our land. Those alien perverts are being removed one by one. Hallelujah-----Sexual-Predator Sting Ends in Former Texas Prosecutor’s Suicide-- DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 7, 2006 — A sexual-predator sting turned into a different sort of crime scene when a former prosecutor committed suicide as police surrounded his home. When police arrived, they attempted to serve former Kaufman County District Attorney Louis "Bill" Conrath Jr. with a search warrant for his computer and an arrest warrant. Police said Conrath attempted to make arrangements over the Internet to have sex with a decoy who was posing as a 13-year-old boy. He refused to answer the door when they arrived, and was subsequently found with a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

An NBC camera crew was also outside the house when the gunshot was heard. According to The Dallas Morning News, the sting resulting in Conrad's arrest warrant was a joint operation between the Internet watchdog group Perverted Justice and NBC's "Dateline." As part of the group's plan, 22 men seeking sex with children were lured to a house in Murphy, Texas, and arrested. Murphy police said Conrad did not go to the house, but they believed he would. via email

Dear Pastor,

I don't know if this will be a confirmation for you or if your sermon was a confirmation for me. The thought occurred to me to run an ad in the area of Ted Haggard's church to do just what you mentioned yesterday. Whether they will allow it to run or not is the question. If not, I believe there are several alternatives to get the same message out.

They may even be better considering the drop in readership of newspapers and may offer more coverage for the same price. Regardless, I am sending at least $800.00 to you for the ads if you decide to go forward with it. Of course you can use it for whatever you want but maybe we can do some kindling in the Colorado Springs area.

Regarding your Nov. 12 broadcast:

Sadly, you fed into the hypocrisy the world already sees in the Christian community and the complete lack of love it sees in us. Your willingness to 'devour your own' shows the judgmental and Pharisaical spirit that not only killed Jesus, but continues to make the unbeliever justified in their reasoning to have no part of Christianity.

Perhaps, if you were to let the Holy Spirit convict Ted Haggard according to the Spirit's timetable and bring him to repentance (assuming he is not, which no one but God and he know) and spend less time judging a fallen brother and instead praying for his restoration, you might be able to spend more time impacting the lost for Jesus...

By the way, I am not a member of New Life. I was raised in the Church of Christ. I am very sad to see the judgmental spirit in the Church of Christ is alive and thriving in La Porte. Your sermon on Nov 12 continues to fuel that religious spirit which reveals the lack of love and compassion for fellow Christians who fall.

As they say, Christians do shoot their wounded, eh?

Dear Pastor Peters,

I wanted add something that is on the subject of last nights broadcast, "What was not said about Ted". After the broadcast I went to Focus on the Family website and listened to their Monday broadcast on the web. I notice the guest and host used 2 Samuel 11 and 12 for some of their points for the forgiveness and repentance of Ted Haggard. They went on about how much God loved King David and how God had forgiven for killing Bathsheba's first husband (Uriah).

What they failed to say is that King David payed for that sin by loosing his son. The host and guest made it seem like a person could sin and get forgiveness without consequences.

(comment—King David repented. pp)

This perverted fagot dirty bird thought he could get away with his sin. I rejoice knowing that God knocked that dirty bird off his pulpit nest. How dare that man profess the name of Jesus Christ and play preacher. I praise God that holy fire is starting to burn these dirty birds' nests.

Thank you for the recent reply to correspondence I sent you in May dealing with illegal immigration...Your message Sunday the 5th was right on target... In Ezekiel 33, verse 6, you will note that it says "And the Lord hath not sent them." (KJV) In other words, the Lord never even called them in the first place...When I saw a news clip of the faggot preacher's face, I saw deception! Why in this world couldn't one person in his congregation of 14,000 not notice? email

You (Pastor Peter) have had a great deal to do with my pick- ing up my Bible again. That is a long story I won't go into at this time. I mailed a letter to SFA asking for a copy of How to be a Christian. It seems like it is taking a very long time to hear back from SFA. Maybe I am too anxious.

The questions for the day are, if the Old Testament was given to us, for our learning, then why haven't we learned anything and why don't most preachers today cover this subject? Are they scared, it might not be politically correct, or are they afraid they may offend someone?

I recently read a book for women called "fertility cycles and nutrition" by Marilyn B. Shannon. It was published by the Couple to Couple League, which is a group of married people who try and educate other married people in the truth about contraception and other unnatural, un-Godly things women often do to their bodies. I think it is a great, simple and easy to read guide for women who are interested in improving their overall health, especially for young woman who are having trouble conceiving.

Anyway, I just thought some of the women in your ministry would greatly benefit from this information. via email

Thank you for sending the DVD's. We enjoy all the messages and songs. What a blessing!

Excellent message, Pastor. Thank You.

I want you to know, Pastor, that I donated very heavily in the beginning of the year, to help the expansion of your ministry on the Gift of God, the Internet...for just this purpose. If you will, I "front end loaded" my giving. Your series on "The Alien among Us" is the answer to my prayer.

I gave way out of proportion to the tithe, and I'm glad I did. The demographic changes in South Fla. have destroyed my business. The Confederates have moved north: North FL, GA. N.C., and TN.

Pastor Peters,

In 1952, Herbert Butterfield, Professor of Modern History, University of Cambridge, England, published a book "Christianity in European History", Collins (London) Publisher. In it we find the following.

"Our fight is against some devilry that lies in the very process of things, against something that we might even call demonic forces existing in the air. The forces get men into their grip, so that the men themselves are victims in a sense, even if it is by some fault in their very own nature—they are victims of a sort of possession."

How aptly this describes men today. NC

(This has got to be that spoken of in Ephesians 6:12. pp)

Dear Pastor Peters,

This evening, I was reading the article shown on your Home Page, "IN VIOLATION OF THEIR OATH OF OFFICE," by Frosty Wooldridge, November 15, 2004, and I see that the author has not yet come to the same conclusion I have for almost a decade now, and one which I had mentioned to you several years ago, in writing and by call-in: namely, that the "birth rate" of White, Caucasian Israelites is so devastatingly low that for each one live Caucasian birth today there are three to four Caucasian deaths from whatever cause. That means only one thing: there are not enough Caucasian Israelites being born to prevent any "immigration invasion" from happening. CA

Dear Pastor Peters,

You might like to know that we have anointed the adjoining walls to the Houses of Parliament Westminster, last summer, The Old Bailey, The Temple Law Courts in London City Centre, and The Royal Courts of Justice in the Strand, (a great injustice took place here for one of our brave people there last November. He has been awarded costs and damages against him of over £100,000).

I have spent the last week on your internet site reading your past newsletters and the writings of Jack Mohr and learnt more truth than I did in 20 years of attending a charismatic church. Thank you for your life's work and may the Lord God of Israel raise up more warriors and watchmen to wake our people up at this most crucial period in our history. from the UK

Dear Pastor Peters and Staff,

I wanted to let you know that on Oct. 22 I baptized my grown son, the only one of my 6 children that had never been baptized. On Oct. 27, I met with _____ of AZ... and baptized her and her 3 grown children. It was a wonderful experience for me to be able to do this for these people. They were so excited about it. IT was a Blessing for me. AZ
