This newsletter is being sent out as this preacher and his Scriptures for America Staff are heading out to our annual Memorial Day Branson, Missouri Conference. It's been quite a job preparing for it plus this years special Men's Christian Leadership Training seminar that precedes it.

As this newsletter goes out, we have just completed perhaps one of our most meaty and important sermon series entitled "the gods" (see page 17), and that series is currently being sent out on the Scriptures for America Worldwide Tape, CD and DVD Ministry, and has been heard live by those who attend our Sunday morning Church Services, broadcast live on the Internet, satellite and short wave radio. Tune in this Sunday!

It is time to for God's people to come out of Babylon.

And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, that you may not participate in her sins and that you may not receive of her plagues; (Revelation 18:4).

The dynamics of this ministry is changing to that end in calling the people out and telling them how to get out. (Perhaps that is why the Lord has led this preacher to make the decision he made concerning the 2007 Scriptures for America Rocky Mountain Family Bible Camp). (see page 4 and 5 for details.)

From the Editor's Pen

This preacher has made a difficult decision concerning the scheduled 2007 Scriptures for America Rocky Mountain Family Bible Camp, scheduled for June 30 through July 4, 2007, and that decision is to cancel it.

That coming out will happen (Jeremiah 50:4-5) and we intend to be an active part in that happening, by His grace and your prayers and support.

In the past few months, your pastor has learned much regarding faith, due to the physical affliction that came upon him. He is still fighting the fight of faith in that area and still claims victory through faith, standing on the truth of Isaiah 53:5 & 1 Peter 2:24. Thank you for your prayers, and please know that this preacher will be sharing what he has been learning in the area of faith with the flock that he has been given to shepherd.

This preacher has made a difficult decision concerning the scheduled 2007 Scriptures for America Rocky Mountain Family Bible Camp, scheduled for June 30 through July 4, 2007, and that decision is to cancel it. There are many factors that have gone into the decision, including but not limited to the following: the physical affliction this preacher is battling, the economics of the day that young families are battling (such as higher gasoline prices), and higher camp costs for us with fewer numbers spells an economic loss that this preacher, as a good steward, cannot justify at this time. There's more to this decision, which we discuss on pages 4 and 5 of this newsletter.

Many thousands of this Scriptures for America DragonSlayer Newsletter Magazine are sent out each month, in addition to those untold numbers that read it on the Internet. It is an important part of our national and international evangelistic outreach. Unfortunately, many of those thousands do not financially support it, so we sincerely thank those of you that do. (1 Timothy 5:18)

We thank Jesus for His faithful remnant that have stayed in the fight with us and pray that He blesses you mightily. Remember there are few that preach the Anglo Israel truth, and of those few, we are one of those who are proclaiming it nationally and internationally. We need your continued prayers and support to do this.

Still sincerely stomping snakes,

Pastor Peter J. Peters

Notice:

The 2007 Annual Scriptures for America Rocky Mountain Family Bible Camp is canceled!

The dynamics of the Scriptures for America Ministry is changing!

It's time to fold up the tent.

At least for the time being, it is time to fold up the tent. What we mean is this-once upon a time the old-time tent meetings were very effective evangelistic tools (from about 1900 through the 1940s), but the time came when people quit coming. So the evangelism changed accordingly.

There was a time when many hundreds came to our Annual Scriptures for America Rocky Mountain Family Bible Camps, but it seems times have changed in that area and it's time for us to fold up the tent, so to speak

There was a time when the Saints not only came to this summer camp, but came with a spirit to serve as well as to share their fellowship with others. We would have volunteers for kitchen duty, teaching classes, deacon camp chores, minstrels wanting to minister to the Saints, et cetera.

2007 SFA Rocky Mntn. Family Bible Camp is canceled!

It was a blessed family of God reunion time of spiritual R&R.

The ministry expended a lot of time, money and effort to make this part of ministering to the Saints possible. This year, preacher Peters just doesn't have the energy, and after much prayer has made the decision to cancel the camp.

Presently, the ministry is bigger now and is growing faster than ever in the area of outreach. Our present monthly budget is bigger now than what our annual budget was just a few years back. The Scriptures for America staff is bigger and busier now than ever before, and the response to our evangelistic outreach through satellite, radio, Internet, DVD Church and the CD and Tape Ministry is larger than ever; but camp attendance is not.

We extend our sincere apology to those who are inconvenienced and/or disappointed with this decision. We realize some have no doubt planned vacation time for that time.

Tent replacement

Since it is hard for people to come to one central gathering in the Rocky Mountains, we will plan to come to them through weekend conferences, as time and energy allows. Those of you out there that know of good meeting facilities in your areas, such as conference centers or campgrounds, let us know about them and we will consider them.

Don't Deny the Power

Paul said in the last days men would deny the power of God.

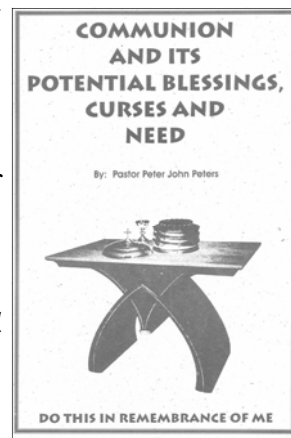

“But realize this, that in the last days difficult times will come. For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, unloving, irreconcilable, malicious gossips, without self-control, brutal, haters of good, treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; holding to a form of godliness, although they have denied its power; and avoid such men as these” (2 Timothy 3:1-5).

Had he not done the simple, humble act commanded him, he would have denied the power, even while claiming the God of Israel had the power to cure him.

It is done all the time by men (and women) who would never claim to deny the power. Take for example the man Naaman of II Kings 5. He was a leper, but believed the God of Israel had the power to cure him. However, he nearly denied the power by refusing to do what was commanded of him (read II Kings 5:10 & 11). Had he not done the simple, humble act commanded him, he would have denied the power, even while claiming the God of Israel had the power to cure him.

So it is with many who deny repentance and water baptism, in the name of Jesus, for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38), and then deny the taking of Communion.

The following on Communion is taken from our book, Communion and its Potential Blessings, Curses and Need.

Don't Deny the Power

By way of introduction, I want to say there is a great day coming – an earth change, if you will; a new heavens and a new earth, as Peter so succinctly put it. It is the great and terrible Day of the Lord, as Malachi the prophet said (Malachi 4:5); that it would be a day of fire where people would be “set ablaze” and people would be destroyed. What people? What kind of people? Arrogant people and evil doers.

“For behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace and all the arrogant and evil doers will be like chaff; and the day that is coming will set them ablaze . . .” (Malachi 4:1).

In the next verse, Malachi 4:2, we see survivors; happy, joyous, successful survivors on that wrathful Day of God. And who are they? Those who feared God - that is, had holy reverence towards Him.

“For behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and every evildoer will be chaff; and the day that is coming will set them ablaze”, says the Lord of hosts, “so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. But for you who fear My name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings; and you will go forth and skip about like calves from the stall. Any you will tread down the wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day which I am preparing,” says the Lord of hosts. (Malachi 4:1-3)

This message is not about the fiery, wrathful Day of the Lord. It is about, in part, being saved from the wrath that is so clearly prophesized to come.

...we see survivors happy, joyous, successful survivors on that wrathful Day of God.

And who are they?

Those who feared God - that is, had holy reverence towards Him.

There will be those that are saved and Jesus identified who those people would be.

The Ferrar Fenton Bible is available from Scriptures for America Ministry for a donation of $35.00.

Don't Deny the Power

And to wait for His son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, that is Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath to come (1 Thessalonians 1:10).

There will be those that are saved and Jesus identified who those people would be. Blessed are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth (Matthew 5:5).

The Greek word translated meek is prautes (prah-ooce). The adjective is praus and the noun is prautes. The New American Standard translates meek as “gentle”. The Ferrar Fenton translates the word as “kind-hearted.”

We all need to work in this area of our lives to be kind-hearted, gentle, and meek. This preacher knows that he certainly does. We also need to more fully understand the meaning of the Greek word “prautes”, for it really doesn't mean what our English word “meek” means. Vines Expository Dictionary of New Testament Words says of the word translated in the Kings James as “meek”:

The meaning of prautes is not readily expressed in English, for the term meekness and/or mildness commonly used suggests weakness to a greater or lesser extent.

The word “prautes” suggests nothing like this. Nevertheless, it is difficult to find a rendering less open to objection than meekness. Gentleness has been suggested, but prautes describes a condition of mind and heart and gentleness is appropriate rather to actions; this word is no better than those used in both English versions. It must be clearly understood, therefore, that the meekness manifested by the Lord and commanded to the believer is the fruit of power. The common assumption is that when a man is meek it is because he cannot help himself. But, the Lord was meek because He had the infinite resources of God at His command. Described negatively, meekness is the opposite of self-assertiveness and self-interest. It is equanimity of spirit that is neither elated nor cast down simply because it is not occupied with self at all.

So we can see, from Vines, that there is much we need to learn from this Greek word that is translated as meekness.

A synonym for meekness is humility, and an indication of humility is "to be teachable," "to be correctible," yeah, even to have an attitude that perhaps we need to be corrected, that we need to be taught more and/or more accurately. We do not have it all figured out and all right. Not that He ever requires us to do so and be so, but that we should be teachable and correctable.

The church and its members need to be teachable, willing to be corrected, and be desirous of being correct. Consider the seven churches in Asia that Jesus addressed in Revelation 2:3. Five out of the seven needed to make some corrections and so He told them of those needed corrections. Did they make those corrections? They did if they were meek, and they did not if they were not. Thus saith the Word:

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the Earth.

And, I say, blessed are the teachable, for they are correctable and they make the corrections needed and thus, they inherit the earth. They survive that great and fiery day of the Lord. Not only survive, but as Malachi says, "they come through triumphant, treading upon the wicked, and skipping about like calves let forth in the spring from their stalls."

The Israelites of Egyptian captivity (Exodus 1:11), were living at the point of time (as we are) which can best be described as the end of an age and the beginning of an age. They were given some rather strange instructions as to what to do to survive the days ahead. They were instructed to take the blood of a sacrificial lamb, apply it in a certain manner, and then to eat the lamb (Exodus 12:7-8). No doubt not all did, but they that humbly and meekly did, they lived, when the others did not.

Jesus Christ is that Lamb of God.

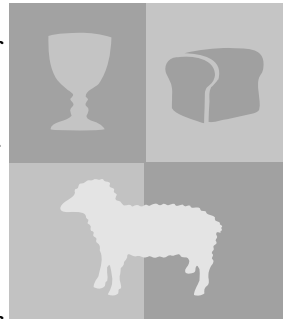

"Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world" (John 1:24).

We must, as repentant believers (and will, if we are meek), apply His shed blood as instructed in the Bible.

"And Peter said to them, repent and let each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit" (Acts 2:38-39).

"And now why do you delay? Arise and be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on His name" (Acts 22:16).

And, we must eat His flesh and drink His blood, just as He instructed us in the Gospel of John, Chapter 6. His instructions then were not so very well received, and the prideful, un-teachable and arrogant walked away from the salvation and life that was so easily available to them. They in essence denied the power. Read the words of John 6:35 and John 6:41-66:

“Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; he who comes to Me shall not hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst.”

The Jews therefore were grumbling about Him, because He said, “I am the bread that came down out of heaven.” And they were saying, “Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does He now say, I have come down out of heaven?” Jesus answered and said to them, “Do not grumble among yourselves.

No one can come to Me, unless the Father who sent Me draws him; and I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, and they shall all be taught of God. Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to Me. Not that any man has seen the Father, except the One who is from God; He has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down out of heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, he shall live forever; and the bread also which I shall give for the life of the world is My flesh.” The Jews therefore began to argue with one another, saying, “How can this man give us His flesh to eat?”

Jesus therefore said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves. He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. For My flesh is true food, and My blood is true drink. He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who eats Me, he also shall live because of Me. This is the bread which came down out of heaven; not as the fathers ate, and died, he who eats this bread shall live forever.” These things He said in the synagogue, as He taught in Capernaum”.

Verse 66: As a result of this, many of His disciples withdrew, and were not walking with Him anymore. When they did this, they denied the power.

Take serious note of Verse 53: Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves.

We need, particularly at this time, to be taught and to be taught more accurately concerning these words and the church needs to make correction in this area or else it will “have no life.” If we are to live then we must eat Him: “. . . so he who eats Me he also shall live because of me.”

I am talking about the same thing Jesus was talking about – i.e., Communion, The Lord's Supper, or as the early church called it, “The Eucharist.” Following is the definition of Eucharist from The 1996 Oxford Dictionary: “The Christian sacrament commemorating the Last Supper, in which bread and wine are consecrated and consumed.”

Believers in Jesus Christ need to be taught on this subject. Some will receive the teaching and some will not. To some, it will seem as foolish and unnecessary as immersion in water (Acts 2:38); that is, baptism for the remission of sins.

Don't Deny the Power

"But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned" (1 Corinthians 2:14).

Just as five out of seven of those first-century churches in Asia (Revelation 2, 3) needed to be corrected, so does the church of today on this subject of Communion. And the church of today needs to understand Communion and properly partake of it just as the early first-century church did - just as often, just as reverently, and with the same understanding.

We need to understand that our spiritual, physical, and eternal life has to do with this subject. Jesus once said, in John 15:1-8:

"I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit, He prunes it, that it may bear more fruit. You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, so neither can you, unless you abide in Me. I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in Me, and I in him, he bears much fruit; for apart from Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away as a branch, and dries up; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it shall be done for you.

By this is My Father glorified, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be My disciples."

Notice that the church and its people cannot bear fruit apart from "abiding in Him." Communion determines whether or not we "abide in Him."

"He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him" (John 6:56).

Don't Deny the Power

It is really quite simple. We simply will not bear fruit unless we abide in Him (John 15:5) and we cannot abide in Him unless we eat His flesh and drink His blood (John 6:56). We do that in Communion – i.e., the Lord's Supper.

If we abide in Him (and His Word abides in us) great things will be done and the Father will be glorified in the glorious fruit (John 15:7-8).

If we do not abide in Him and do not bear fruit, we will be thrown into the fire (John 15:6-7).

“If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away as a branch, and dries up; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire” (Matthew 7:19).

“For behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and every evildoer will be chaff; and the day that is coming will set them ablaze,” says the Lord of hosts, “so that it will leave them neither root nor branch” (Malachi 4:1).

That great and terrible fiery Day of the Lord that Malachi and many, many other prophets speak of will be a day when the branches that do not bear fruit will be burned.

Take this subject of Communion seriously, my Christian brethren. We all need to if we are to live (have life in Him) and bear the fruit of the early church (the power that the early church had).

When you study what took place in the first and second century, you will find that there was power in that early church that is not present today. You will also find that they were treating Communion differently then than we do today.

Paul described the type of powerless Christianity we have today as being a last day phenomenon.

“But realize this, that in the last days difficult times will come. For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, unloving, irreconcilable, malicious gossips, without self-control, brutal, haters of good, treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; Holding to a form of godliness, although they have denied its power; and avoid such men as these” (II Timothy 3:1-5).

The church denies the power (miracles, healings, gifts, etc.) because it denies (and even sees as foolish, sometimes) the simple teachings that make the power possible.

The entire book, Communion and its Potential Blessings, Curses and Need, is available from Scriptures for America, PO Box 766, LaPorte, CO 80535 for a small donation, and it is on our website as well, www.scripturesforamerica.org.

From the Mailbag—

I guess the next question is that with the couple of major doctrinal changes that Pete has made over the last couple of years, does he even care to keep his old lessons and use them? This has been in the back of my mind for some time...

In that regard, there has been a change in the random comments I hear at gatherings we attend concerning Pete. There have always been a few negative and positive comments mixed from people. Now they are all negative. You have mentioned that Scriptures for America is growing. It must be a whole new group of people, because it would seem that all who are connected with those we know have rejected Pete's teachings. Just a comment based on some observation. Via Email.

Pastor Peters is back broadcasting LIVE tonight with much to cover. Tonight we look at those who are; "Dumber than a Jackass". In the Book of Isaiah chapter one, we read of the New JerUSAlem, as well as the old when we read of the "offspring of evil-doers". We also read of the real Israel people, (not the "jew"); "An Ox knows it's owner, a donkey it's Masters manger, but my people do not understand..." If we are to understand the Bible, we must stop being dumber than jackasses as God said we would be and see who the true Israel people are (Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, Celtic and kindred people) and the error of our ways. Also speaking of the New JerUSAlem, He said; "...righteousness once lodged in her, but now murderers." Tonight we will talk about what wasn't talked about this last week concerning the mass murdering Asian-bastard that killed all those students at Virginia Tech.

04-26-07 Are You Going the Distance?

We are closing in on the date for our Scriptures for America Branson gathering. Pastor Peters has been praying not only for that gathering, but also for the 70 men attending the Christian Men's Leadership Seminar. I consider that Branson gathering to be the "Gideon Gathering", so to speak. Listen to this message to see where you may need to work in your life to "Get what Gideon Got".

04-30-07 Yes...Jesus Loves You, but...

I know that many of you may think that you are above singing that song, "Jesus Loves Me", but you need to start reading at Matthew 18:1. We need to humble ourselves as little children, like the ones that sing that song every Sunday all across this land. Yes, Jesus loves you, but...do you love Him? That is the real question. Before you say, "Yes, I do" listen to this broadcast to see if you are putting your money where your mouth is.

society of serpents, (and I think this is true) might it be that the

and anti-Semitism are shields?

Acres of Diamonds—Serpents

At our 2006 Rocky Mountain Family Bible Camp, we introduced the Acres of Diamonds story. A true story of a South African farmer who spent his life prospecting for diamonds, and the biggest diamond mine ever discovered was on his farm. We have a rich diamond mine of wisdom, knowledge and Bible understanding with our own men. We are calling upon our 'Acres of Diamonds' to send in your articles for consideration.

In this article, a Christian brother from Ohio presents a lifetime of experience of dealing with satan's children in the workplace. pjp

The Two Fold Shield that Protects the Serpents or perhaps
The Double-edged Sword that Protects the Serpents or perhaps this title:
What is the Shield that Protects the Real Serpents at the Very, Very, Very Top?

I was watching a documentary about David Icke. He was talking about and exposing the serpents. (Not the Jews. He did not mention Jews.) The documentary showed how the ADL was activated to picket and oppose his appearances. Talk show hosts condemned Icke and his appearances, charging anti-Semitism.

But, in his speeches, Icke was NOT blaming the Jews. Icke was NOT calling the Jews serpents. So why was the ADL activated?????

NOW, if the world is really ruled by a secret society of serpents, (and I think this is true) might it be that the Jews and anti-Semitism are shields?

To explain: We know that the President is not the real ruler of this country. He is somewhat lower on the pyramid of power. We really do not know who is in power above him. Many people say "the Jews". But like the president, they are not at the top either.

Acres of Diamonds—Serpents

When people rebel against their government, it is the (visible) king who loses his head, not those secretly in power, hiding higher on the pyramid and who thereafter tell the king's replacement what to do.

In fact, these secret (behind the scenes) people may have caused the King's fall from power and also the rise of his replacement to power.

So when a person exposes the serpents at the very top, the first line of defense is to call the expositor an anti-Semite. That way, when the secret rulers are in danger of being exposed, attention is directed away from them and onto the Jews, and they take the blame. As bad as the Jews are, they, like presidents, are not at the top of the pyramid.

THIS HAS A SECOND EFFECT. When the ADL comes to the serpents' rescue, the implied message is that "The Jews are the serpents." Otherwise why would the ADL care what Icke says?

If the serpents ever come in real danger of exposure, the Jews are offered in their place for sacrificial slaughter, as in the holocaust. (If it even happened as reported.)

Picture a serpent holding up a shield - and it is labeled anti-Semitism.

1. Serpent expositors are labeled anti-Semites.

2. The opposition by the Jews is taken as proof that the Jews are the serpents.

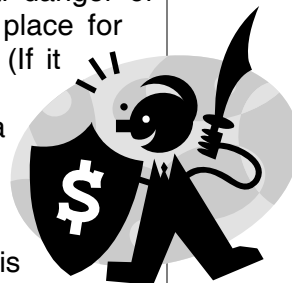

(When in fact the Jews are lower on the Pyramid of power than are the serpents.)

Picture the serpents holding a double-edged sword. One edge is labeled "Blame the Jews" and the other is labeled, "Kill the Jews". No one sees the serpent who is holding this protective sword.

The two-fold shield protecting the serpents at the very top is charging anti-Semitism, involvement by ADL and an occasional holocaust.

Serpent expositors are labeled anti-Semites.

The opposition by the Jews is taken as proof that the Jews are the serpents.

Acres of Diamonds—Serpents

Computers have firewalls for protection. The firewall is a protective barrier between the computer and the outside world.

Likewise, Serpents have Jews and Anti-Semitism for protection. The Jews and Anti-Semitism are a firewall in the Pyramid of power. This firewall is somewhere between the masses at the very bottom and the Serpents at the very top.

--- Just wondering and you might find the following interesting---

Secret Societies and my life. (Just a possibility that cannot be proven) Why was I chosen and called? And after I said "No", eventually rejected? (If I was? And I don't know if this is actually the case.)

In high school Brother Sigismund called me out of class to the classroom door. In the hallway he tried to persuade me to join the Brothers of Holy Cross. "We need good men like you." I said "No", but never understood why I was singled out for this request. I certainly did not think I was a good candidate. I never understood why he asked.

At work when I was about twenty, I was approached by two fellow employees and they said, "We know someone who will send you to a college to study for the ministry and pay all your expenses?" Again, I don't know by who or why I was selected. Thinking back, I now suspect a secret society was involved and these two men were Masons.

One time when I was seeing a girl, when I came to her home there was an old man there. He started a discussion with me and made a point of showing his Masonic 33 degree ring. Shortly thereafter she broke up with me. Was this an interview wherein I was rejected on the advice of this Mason?

When I was a child I noticed or suspected that some people are 'different'.

When I was a teenager, my father was the very first in this area to open a TV Repair business. He was hired, by the manufacturer, to deliver the very first color TV's, as gifts, to the rich and powerful in a town in Ohio. These are the very people who could afford to buy these very first, very expensive color TVs. But they got them for free.

Acres of Diamonds—Serpents

In the process I was in their homes. These people were somehow 'different'. I never understood why or how. They were just different. And it wasn't just because they were rich.

I hired into heavy industry as an Apprentice Electrician and was never again approached for promotion or listened to by 'different' people.

Shortly after my first day of work at B.F. Goodrich, my dad, who worked there many years before, asked, "Has John so-and-so done any work yet?" (No.) Here was a man who held his job year after year until retirement without doing hardly any work. He was never pressured by management to work. And never indicating any tension or worry about being disciplined or fired. How can this be?

In different jobs in several different companies, including General Motors, I met many upper and middle management people who were, in my opinion, incompetent. But they never seemed to fear for their jobs. They had an air of confidence that I just did not understand. If I gave any of them any input or suggestions they never did more than listen politely. After leaving their presence it was as if I had never spoken to them at all.

Those of us common people who were not of them had nicknames for all of them. For example we called Steve, Stevey Wonder, Doug was named, Dougy Poo, and Homer, Homer Gomer. When I first met the buffoon 'Homer Gomer' he was a foreman, when I last saw him he was the Superintendent.

So, I wonder now, were these people Masons who held their jobs and were un-firable simply because they were Masons? In fact, like Homer Gomer, they are the people who are promoted.

One of my supervisors was so useless that one payday, when he handed me my paycheck, I looked it over and commented, “You know, you could be replaced by a postage stamp.” (Strangely, he thought nothing of this insult and went back to his office, perhaps to take a nap.)

At B.F. Goodrich there was a management mentality that hourly personnel were brainless and that only management people knew anything. The hourly people made fun of this attitude, and just like at the other firm, these management types were given nicknames. (Perhaps they thought that they were so ‘illuminated’ that everyone else was a dim wit.)

One time I was told that B. F. Goodrich was controlled by the Knights of Columbus and that Goodyear was controlled by the Masons. I was told that the reason I was hired at Goodrich was because I was from the Catholic High School and my father was in the Knights of Columbus. I didn’t believe it at the time but perhaps that was really the case.

Perhaps these ‘different’ people who ‘marched to a different drummer’ were actually members of a secret society and had ‘an in’ that was always kept secret.

At work they had Suggestion Boxes. While everyone told me how smart I was I almost never had any suggestions accepted. Only a very few awards after 40 years of filling out suggestion forms. Sometimes my suggestions were used, but something always came up to cheat me out of any award.

For example, one time I made a suggestion that saved the company about $250,000 dollars. I was told that I would receive the maximum award ($10,000). However with the passage of time, each time I’d ask about it I was told a lesser amount was being considered. It went from $10,000 to $8,000, then $6,000, then $5,000. Finally I was told it was not my suggestion after all and that I should not steal other people’s ideas.

On the other hand, there were a few others who always received suggestion awards, and for the dumbest things. Perhaps membership in a secret society is the explanation never mentioned?

I had about 20 years experience working in Preventative Maintenance. I always had to do it their way (which was a time wasting exercise in futility and all of us tradesmen knew it.)

Acres of Diamonds—Serpents

It seems as if they really did not want the machines fixed, just the appearance of fixing.

The only one time I was listened to was just a few months before the factory was closed and they were desperately fighting to keep it open. My way of doing preventative maintenance made a tremendous difference. (But it was too late.)

These very same suggestions, at another time and factory, made the Company and Union so angry they almost fired me.

How can a person have 40 years experience and be called “one of our best electricians”, the one who was called when the others could not solve the problem, and have no credibility at all? Could it have been, all along, that I was because I was not a member of a secret society, (a dim wit) and the people I worked under were secretly members? (Illuminated).

In all my years I was never approached for promotion into management, my ideas never listened to, etc. Was that because I was already “Called and Chosen” but now rejected? (as mentioned at the start of this message...) (thanks for the article-sfa)

Dear SFA, and Pastor Peters:

It was a very good observation Pastor Peters made in his sermon about the movie, “The Da Vinci Code De-coded”, that our whole modern world seems to be based on a false, phony reality. Babylon is a fake world! Did you ever notice that fake rhymes with snake?! “They” are huge fakes!

One way I have identified some aliens around me is how their language is contrived, stilted, and FAKE! “They” have no real feelings. That’s the basic fact. “They” w-a-t-c-h us to figure out ways to fit-in. That’s why, I believe, so many snakes are in the psychiatry, psychology, and “counseling” positions of employment. It’s a good way for them to study, observe, and watch the ones “they” are trying to emulate. Via Email

There are people out there that have no morals or ethics in their heart and when placed among us have the upper hand when dealing with us. They can lie, steal, cheat, and even kill us without remorse.

Dear Pastor Peters - I've been under your ministry for several years, and in fact, this is how I learned of the Christian-Israel truth, and "who we are".

Suddenly the Bible made sense to me! Praise Jesus. But now I've decided to study under other pastors as well, for reasons of personal growth. Since I can't support multiple ministries, you could save some costs by removing me from your mailing list for the "DragonSlayer" and the CD's. I want to thank you for everything you've done, including prayer for healing, along with Pastor Applegate.

Dear Pastor Peters,

I prayed the imprecatory prayer against Merck and their filthy inoculations all last week. I was telling my son about this prayer and he pointed out the obvious to me, something I hadn't considered before, but he said so they admit that cancer is a virus after all. Now my mother went into the hospital for a minor heart attack in January of last year. By March she started to develop lumps in her breasts, and within several more months she had received a mastectomy and a closectomy. Lately she has been receiving radioactive therapy cancer treatments. I have always believed that they injected her with cancer when she went into the hospital for the heart attack. Perhaps we will never know for sure but I suspect that they did, after all cancer is a virus.

I was reading in Genesis where the sons of God took wives from the daughters of men and produced giants. I do believe that there were literal giants in those days but I wonder if in this case they produced one of the other meanings for giants in the Strong's Concordance, namely tyrants. There are people out there that have no morals or ethics in their heart and when placed among us have the upper hand when dealing with us.

remorse. That gives them the edge, we cannot deal with them as they deal with us.

The definition of a tyrant is interesting especially as it pertains to Government. A person (government) who uses power to oppress his subjects, who by taxation, injustice, or cruel punishment, or the demand of unreasonable services, imposes burdens and hardships on those under his control, which law and humanity do not authorize, or which the purposes of government do not require. Sounds a lot like the Pharisees of old and maybe our present government.

Dear Pastor Peters:

Greetings to you, Pastor Peters, and to your staff, may the Lord bless you all in the name of Jesus the Christ. Amen. I am sending a tithe to your ministry and I'm standing in faith on the promises of Mal. 3:10. Blessings will come.

Just now have finished listening to tapes 8 & 9 on "The Alien Creature Among Us". Outstanding teaching! It is because of you I'm learning to think outside the box. I'm even using the word tare when around others. I, just the other day, at my sister's house, when she was watching something on TV about Anna Nicole Smith, I told her Howard Stern is a tare. She didn't say anything but the expression on her face changed when I made that comment.

Dear Pastor Peters.

Please allow me to give you some background information on myself. In 1985 I became a pagan and worshipped the old gods of Egypt until 1999 when I became a practicing satanist, very dedicated and very anti-Christ. I started hearing you on shortwave in 2005 (I was looking for patriot material like Alex Jones, etc.) and was led to you.

It is because of you I'm learning to think outside the box. I'm even using the word tare when around others.

Now I am on fire for Jesus, all around me I see the Baal
teachings and Babylonian captives and I pray that our people will awaken!

From the Mailbag

I would listen and found that I could not get your message out of my ears. I have always been aware of my heritage and knew that "something" was wrong with America that it just did not "feel" right. The more I listened the more I found that I could not get enough truth. I've always believed in God and Jesus (you can not be a satanist with out believing in God) but I was so disillusioned with the teachings in the churches I just rejected God all together and went to the devil in search of truth.

I was led to you and the truth has awakened me to our Babylonian captivity. You once stated the cold was more acceptable to God then the lukewarm and I was as cold as possible. Now I am on fire for Jesus, all around me I see the Baal teachings and Babylonian captives and I pray that our people will awaken!

I shall be at the Branson, MO gathering to be baptized and praise God! Via Email

We all know that principle of mind control::

"If you tell a lie often enough -- and you just keep telling it -- It becomes true." -- that is, it effectively becomes true, because people believe it, even knowing it's a lie. ((This is Double-Mindedness, and it mentally paralyzes us.)) No matter how much will-power we have.

In the face of media on-slaught we are all Sheeple.

Can a lion stand up to a rifle?? Can a soldier stand up to a bomb.?? There is a spiritual bomb in each living room, today. They are pounding the 9-11 lie, even in the face of overwhelming evidence.

To defend yourself, . . .

To prevent yourself from becoming a vessel of IM-PLANTED THOUGHTS there are 2 real options::

Pray that God curses the liars, every time you hear them lie. Laugh at the Bastards who are trying to get into your mind. They are trying to implant lies into your mind. The option that is practically impossible, because we are addicted, is turn it off. T.V.strobe-light is a physical addiction, and mental stimulation while we are passive is a psychological addiction. Knowing what they are doing to you, helps . . . I used to be a news junkie, but now I listen to the news once a week. I laugh at the Bastards sometimes, and curse them other times. No ladies or children are allowed in my living room when I watch the news.

From the Mailbag

Defend yourself.

 To Pastor Peters

From my study of Rock Music (of all things) I learned this: (Dead snakes can still kill) Don't let your pet examine "road kill" snakes. Dead pit vipers can have some muscle contractions after death, and thus have been known to "bite" even after they're dead. Those bites can still envenomate. Don't handle a dead or injured snake – not even a decapitated head.

It is important to remember that a snake only injects part of its venom with each bite, so it is still dangerous after the first strike. A bite from a young snake can be serious. A dead snake can have a bite reflex after death, so it must be considered dangerous as well.

Handle freshly killed venomous snakes with a long tool or stick. Snakes can inflict fatal bites by reflex action even after death.

Never handle a venomous reptile, even after it's dead. Reflex strikes with the injection of venom can occur for several hours after death.

CONCLUSION: Books and music by snakes can still bite and kill long after the author's/musician's death. Therefore book burning is good.
