Our October 19, 2008

Sunday morning church service will mark the 30th year anniversary of the opening of the doors of the LaPorte Church of Christ. It's hard to believe Pastor Peters has been preaching there for thirty years. After thirty years, it is still a small local congregation, but it is also attended by thousands through live Internet streaming, live satellite broadcasts, live radio and shortwave radio, plus the many on the CD and DVD Church Ministry.

On the 19th, we have scheduled a two-hour service including a sing-spiration time, some preaching, maybe some telling of a little history of the church, and special musicians and singers plan on attending and performing live. We hope you can join us.

Afterwards we will have a fellowship meal, and we may even take calls during the Church service from those who attend from a distance.

It was exactly ten years ago, on that Sunday in 1998, that my wife of 33 years and the mother of my children died. I had once told her she was not getting me into a church. Then once I told her I never wanted to hear her talk about me becoming a preacher, so she ceased to mention it to me again, but instead went to praying that I would become a preacher. The rest is history, as they say.

Oh, if only Christian women would once again realize the power of a praying wife and mother!

October 19.
Please join us!

I want to thank each of you that support the Church with your prayers, tithes and offerings. Because you do, we continue to reach the world with politically incorrect truth, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week..

From the Editor's Pen

It was her idea, by the way, to start a Ministry Newsletter. She typed the first one and we photocopied it and mailed it out to a made up list of friends, family and acquaintances (about 40, as I recall). Most eventually asked to be removed from the mailing list!

I may tell more of the history of the LaPorte Church of Christ during our special service on October 19, depending on how the Holy Spirit leads.

I want to thank each of you that support the Church with your prayers, tithes and offerings. Because you do, we continue to reach the world with politically incorrect truth, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, on the Scriptures for America Worldwide Broadcasting Network (SFAWBN.com).

Although we do not beg for funds, our expenses are substantial and the bills have got to be paid.

Hoping you will join us on October 19th.

Still Sincerely Stompin' Snakes,
Pastor Peter J. Peters

The Man of Sin Revealed

It has been a year since this ministry made known the MAN OF SIN (KJV) or (as the NASB puts it) the MAN OF LAWLESSNESS. Since that time, Day of the Lord events have been occurring and are presently increasing.

Let no one in any way deceive you, for it (the Day of the Lord) will not come unless the apostasy comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, who opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God. 2 Thessalonians 2:3-4

For more information on this most important subject, order our booklet “Revealing the Man of Sin”, and/or listen to the following pulpit sermons, available on CD and archived at our website,

Telling You the Truth about...

You do not become a member by joining the church, (the Body of Christ) but by being added to it when you obey the command of Acts 2:38.

The truth is, IF the churches of our day were the Church in Scriptures, i.e., the real Church, TRUTH would be real important. The true Church is the pillar and support of truth.

...the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and support of the truth.

1 Timothy 3:15.

One does not join the true Church. The true Church is the Body of Christ. "...I do my share on behalf of His body (which is the Church)..."

Colossians 1:24

He is the head of the body. "He is also head of the body, the church..." Colossians 1:18

The body has many members. For even as the body is one and yet has many members, and all the members of the body, though they are many, are one body, so also is Christ. 1 Corinthians 12:12

You do not become a member by joining the church, but by being added to it when you obey the command of Acts 2:38.

For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body... 1 Corinthians 12:13

One of the lies people love to believe today is that church is not important or necessary in God's plan of salvation; yet the Scriptures says Jesus is the Savior of the body.

For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, He Himself being the Savior of the body. Ephesians 5:23

The New Testament Scriptures teach there were churches in various places, i.e., assemblies of bodies of believers, such as the seven churches in Asia addressed in the first few chapters of Revelations.

Telling You the Truth about...

Today, satan has a wide array of counterfeit churches for the people who prefer the lie to the truth.

Some might say, “Why don’t you tell us about something you know about, Preacher Peters”, so I, in this newsletter article, decided to tell you about telling the truth. It’s something I’ve tried to do for the past 30 years from the pulpit of the Lord’s Church in LaPorte.

Satan is a liar (John 8:44) and his children love a lie over the truth. Truth is, “they”, the serpent people, have the ability to tell a lie and make the sheep people believe it’s the truth; and to tell the truth in such a way as to make God’s sheep people believe it’s a lie. Furthermore once “the man of sin” gets seated in that temple seat, as he is today (2 Thessalonians 2:3), he is able to cause people to prefer a lie over the truth. There is, in essence, rejection of the Son of God, for our Lord Jesus Christ is The Way and THE TRUTH (John 14:6). He is the Word incarnate (John 1:14) and the Word is Truth (John 17:17). When society rejects the Son, and prefers the lie over the truth, God the Father sends upon them a deluding influence.

And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

2 Thessalonians 2:11-12 KJV

Such a time is what Paul wrote about to Timothy.

I solemnly charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by His appearing and His kingdom: preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with great patience and instruction. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires;

2 Timothy 4:1

Our society has been leavened by the serpent people (Matthew 23:23), i.e. the children of the devil. Their god is the prince of the air (Ephesians 2:2) and he and they, up until now, control the air waves. It's called a controlled press, a media monopoly. It's called programming, like in television programming and radio programs. The Bible calls it the leaven of the Pharisees (Matthew 16:12), and Jesus taught us the kingdom would become fully leavened. He spoke another parable to them, "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three pecks of meal, until it was all leavened."

Telling You the Truth about...

Matthew 13:33

To tell you the truth, telling you the truth in such a society can be challenging, to say the least, and frankly, down-right dangerous; that's how prophets of old lost their lives. Death, plunder and/or imprisonment can await the truth teller in a society that prefers a lie to the truth.

"And those who have insight among the people will give understanding to the many; yet they will fall by sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder, for many days."

Daniel 11:33

I will briefly pause here and tell you an illustrative story. It's a story about the late Colonel Jack Mohr. He was a brave man, one of the most highly decorated men to come out of the Korean War. After having survived days of brutal communist torture, he was sentenced, by the people's court, to die by firing squad. During what appeared to be his last night on earth, he prayed and told the Lord if He would spare his life and get him out, then he would dedicate his life warning the American people that he loved. God took him up on the deal, and Colonel Mohr lived through the firing squad ordeal and escaped, and made good on his end of the bargain. He went to seminary and became a very big time Baptist evangelist, and was even a speaker of the John Birch Society's Speaker Bureau.

As a big name Baptist evangelist he spoke at some of the biggest Baptist churches, and frequently at Bob Jones University. When he, like this preacher, discovered the real truth about communism i.e. that is was just another name for Judaism, and discovered the Anglo-Israel truth, he started to preach it. As a result every Baptist church door was closed to him. He was kicked off the John Birch Society speaking circuit, and then for several years he lost his military retirement pay via IRS confiscation.

Jack was a prophet, a proclaimer of truth. He was my friend, and spoke at many of our Scriptures for America conferences before he died. He was a humble man, and when he saw the truth about Acts 2:38, he discarded the Baptist bull concerning the nonsense of baptism being an outward sign of an inward grace. I was privileged to baptize him for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38) in a cold mountain lake in the 1980's. I miss him and only tell you this story to tell you what the truth meant to him and the price he paid for telling it. He basically lost his job as a preacher/evangelist, and lost his military retirement for many years; but the Lord never closes one door but that He opens another.

To tell the truth about telling the truth, preachers intuitively know they may well lose their job and support base and fellowship in the brotherhood if they tell the truth in times such as now.

In the early eighties this preacher discovered the Anglo-Israel truth and began to tell it to his church. The church people told him they believed it but didn't want to hear it, and all but eight left (that was counting the preacher and his wife and two children). Today, thousands of people attend that same little church from all across the nation, and from all over the world, via the live Internet streaming broadcast, live radio and satellite, and also via CD and DVD Church.

Telling truth that is not politically correct brings on persecution.

Telling You the Truth about...

After Peter the Apostle had made the confession that Jesus was the Son of God, Jesus said;

"... and upon this rock I will build My church; and the gates of Hades shall not overpower it. Matthew 16:18

The point is, when the true Church fights evil in the war between good and evil, it will be attacked, but it will prevail!

Lying slander is one of the major weapons of attack used by satan and his serpent people. Such slander and attacks are the Biblical credentials of the true Church, but the spell-bound masses see such as evidence of being a bad church. They want a church that is one of those "church of your choice" type churches, and want a preacher who everyone speaks well of.

"Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for in the same way their fathers used to treat the false prophets. Luke 6:26

Such is not the Church of Christ in LaPorte, Colorado. In the past 30 years it has been slandered and maligned by the jews, just as the Church of the First Century was persecuted by those same jews. The anti-Christ Jewish ADL has been in the forefront of the slanderous persecution. This Church has been visited by Newsweek, Time Magazine, The Wall Street Journal, 48 Hours TV crew, and others. (Once, Heraldo Rivera called and offered to pick Pastor Peters up after church in his personal limo if Pastor would give him an interview.) Its preacher has been televised as a cult leader, an extremist, a terrorist, a white supremacist, a hater, etc... When the Church stood against the homosexual movement, it was persecuted even to the point of being siezed for a time by the Colorado State government.

The gates of Hell do attack a true Church, but they do not prevail! Praise Jesus!

Telling You the Truth about...

In a time and a society that love the lie over the truth, people become offended by truth and prefer a church (and a pastor) that doesn't offend them. Paul once wrote to the Church, "Have I therefore become your enemy by telling you the truth?"

The truth is that the leaven of the serpent people has seeped and spread into that area between the sheep-people's temples (brain) so as to cause them to think that it is unchristian to offend others. Now think about it. If you get the Christians to believe it is unchristian to offend others, and most others in society are indeed offended by the truth and prefer a lie, then you've stopped the spread of truth. The truth is, it is not a sin to offend. Jesus himself did it (Matthew 15:12).

The truth is, telling the truth has been made shameful. Let me explain. The serpent people have no shame, but they know we do, so they instinctively use this to their advantage. Sheep people do not want to feel ashamed or appear shameful to their people or community. The serpent people simply smear the truth teller with labels and slander, such as white supremacist, hater, neo-Nazi, extremist, hate monger, Jew hater, racist etc. People have said to me "I'd be ashamed to show my face in public if I were you". That is why God gives a man who has the job of a prophet a face like flint.

"Behold, I have made your face as hard as their faces, and your forehead as hard as their foreheads. Like emery harder than flint I have made your forehead. Do not be afraid of them or be dismayed before them, though they are a rebellious house."

Ezekiel 3:8-9

No man likes the shame. He would prefer the honor. Jesus was "shamed" when He was crucified and the Bible tells us He despised it (Hebrews 12:2), yet entrusted Himself to the Father.

The truth is, the day of being made to feel ashamed for telling the truth is ending. We are coming into an era where men will be ashamed for not telling and not receiving it, and will repent & come back to Jesus Christ, who is the Way and the Truth.

Telling You the Truth about...

I have found out over the past thirty years that;

- If you tell truth about the sexes you are called a sexist
- If you tell truth about women-like female hound dogs you are called a male chauvinist
- If you tell the truth about homosexuals you are a homophobe
- If you tell truth about the Jews you are called anti-semitic
- If you tell truth about the fake doctrine of the churches and the preachers in them you are called a cult leader
- If you tell truth about sin and sinners you are unloving
- If you tell truth to people who love a lie you are perceived as unloving
- If you tell racial truth you are called a racist
- If you tell the truth about government you are called an extremist or terrorist
- If you tell the truth about Baptism you are called a water regenerationist and/or a Campbellite
- If you tell the truth about God's Law you are called a legalist and Pharisee
- If you tell the truth about interracial marriage you are accused of hating the races

Conclusion

Over the past thirty years, the preacher of the LaPorte Church of Christ discovered that God has always had and still has a remnant, and they love the truth. They even support the truth so the preacher has been able to continue to preach it.

On October 19, 2008, he will have been preaching from that pulpit at the LaPorte Church of Christ for thirty years. We intend to have a special two hour appreciation service on that day, so please join us, starting at 10 am Mtn time, on the Internet, shortwave, satellite and radio for this thirty year anniversary.

9/11 and the “Truth” Movement

As the seventh anniversary of the infamous September 11th attacks have passed, it seems reasonable to consider what has manifested as a result of what took place that day.

Since then, we have witnessed the sacrificial destruction of our so-called liberties in the name of security via the “war on terror.” With our invasions of nations that did not invade us, we have destroyed whatever credibility this nation had left. The cost of this so-called war on terror has been financially astronomical and the loss of American lives and limbs seem far from worth what has purportedly been accomplished. Yet, even after considering all of the above, there is another destructive result of those attacks that most don’t ever think about, the 9/11 truth movement.

Over the years the 9/11 truth movement has taken upon itself the deceptive vernacular of the simplified phrase of “Truth Movement,” which is a misnomer and usurpation. There is one Truth movement and it is called Christianity.

Adding insult to injury, the Jews have infiltrated 9/11 truth organizations and led them down a path of self-destruction. Though the “official story” of the cause of those events defies all common logic, and polls increasingly show that the America people believe they were lied to about what happened that day, the 9/11 truth movement has been ineffective at actually spreading the truth. After seven years of continued growth and monetary support, this so-called “Truth Movement” has accomplished nothing in the way of shifting public opinion to take action against the true perpetrators.

Zionism and its antichrist minions are the culprits. Call it anti-semitic or whatever, but the vested interest of those who the factual evidence points to are advocates of the Zionistic ideology. If you think that is far fetched, then you should probably survey the past seven years and see which groups of people have gained the most from the attacks.

Much like the “Ron Paul Revolution” that our people dedicated so much time and money to, the 9/11 truth movement has proven to be a waste of time. Ask yourself, why is it our people will claim to be Christian, but won’t put even a fraction of the effort into advancing the cause of Jesus Christ and HIS Gospel, as they did the advancement of Ron Paul, his action less revolution, or the meaningless 9/11 truth movement? Imagine the gains that could be made for the Kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ if they did.

Another aspect to consider should be the individuals that are active within the movement. With the exception of a few respectable persons, the movement is full of a bunch of thugs and punks who are more concerned with anarchy and/or personal advancement than they are with advancing the truth about what took place that day. You’d think that we would have learned our lesson from the sixties and what happened then, when a bunch of communist hippies were protesting the war of that era. Does it really make sense to make a person, who has no respect for society, who can’t dress presentably, who has never even had a job, nor speaks the English language properly, your spokesperson or representative? Can we really expect our nation to take what this type of spokesperson would have to say seriously?

If we have learned anything from 9/11, it should be that we need to return to our God, His Word and His Way, because we need HIS blessings now more than any other time in our nations history.

“... (If) My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

2 Chronicles 7:14

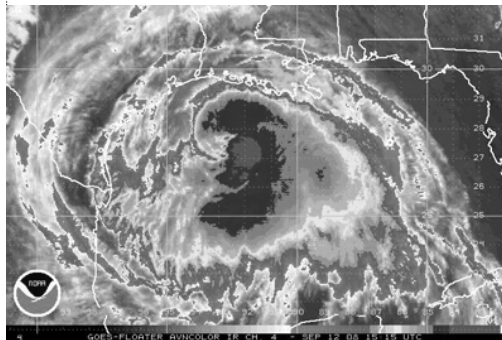

Events of the Day in Light of a Prophecy

“The Lord saith: The land of rivers shall be broken.” Habakkuk 3:9, Septuagint

Could it be the new promised land, America, is that land of rivers? After all, it is a land of rivers, where as the old promised land was not. We believe it is and that this prophecy is being fulfilled before our eyes.

DAY OF THE LORD TYPE HURRICANES

The nation is experiencing storms like it has never seen the likes of, and the full costs in terms of lives, hardships, dollars, sufferings and terror is being under-reported by an anti-Christ jew controlled media. Whatever the full cost is, it is the cost or wages of sin. Just as a man or woman cannot sin and get by (Galatians 6:7), a nation of men and women cannot either. Nor can a state, such as the State of Texas. The State's residences allowed their 'Rangers' to kidnap women and children and break up homes. The hot, pitiful tears of terrified, kidnapped children and sobbing mothers and anguished prayers did not go unanswered. Texas paid.

Events of the Day in Light of a Prophecy

Remember how the Texans stood by and allowed their dark, beady eyed, tin-horn dictator Governor FORCE all girls twelve years old and older to take the unproven and dangerous Merk Gardasil vaccine? Texas paid.

Maybe they will think about it as they attempt to clean up and pay the wages of sin. The problem is, no one equates the storms to the work of God. They prefer to insult Him and call Him "mother nature".

ECONOMICS

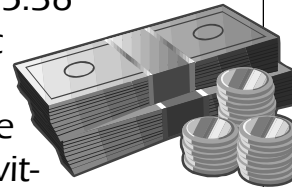

A Nation who's whole economy is based on the violation of an economic Law of God will eventually pay the wages of such a sin.

"If you lend money to My people, to the poor among you, you are not to act as a creditor to him; you shall not charge him interest." Exodus 22:25

'Do not take usurious interest from him, but revere your God, that your countryman may live with you.' Leviticus 25:36

The violation of the economic Law of charging interest, which is usury, is the bottom line behind the economic collapse we are now witnessing at the end of this age.

In the study of this subject, one finds in the past, Christians throughout the ages understood the dangers of usury; Not today.

Events of the Day in Light of a Prophecy

Today, they let these Judeo-Christian wolves-in-sheep's clothing preachers use and pervert Matthew 25:27 to endorse it.

If you want to make it through these hard economic times we are coming into, don't you personally violate the economic Law of Malachi 3:10.

ELECTION-TAINMENT

Who do you think is more acceptable in the eyes of God, Sarah Palin or Baraak Hussein Obama? For the answer, listen to our Sunday Church sermon from 9/14/2008, archived at our website; scripturesforamerica.org.

You might be surprised at the answer. We will be surprised if there even is an election, but if there is, Pastor Peters will cast his vote as a write-in for Jesus Christ.

There was at least a time in America when 'men' running for office had statesmen-like campaigns and debates. Today, it's just some cheap scandal sheet, anti-Christ jew-rag journalism designed to keep the people's attention diverted to keep them from hearing:

WAR RUMBLES AND SABRE RATTLING

Russia has now put (as of 9/11/2008) one-third of her long-range bombers into Venezuela, and are practicing war games in our Hemisphere.

Events of the Day in Light of a Prophecy

Lenin

Russia is also aiding Iran's missile defense system, while the anti-Christ jew Zionist's stir up the trouble in Georgia and try to get us to invade Iran. Pastor Peters discussed this scenario during the live Radio Ranch broadcast of 9/9/2008 (also archived at the website).

We had better all re-read Ezekiel 38 & 39. With economic collapse and war, there may not be a 2008 election. War has always been 'their' cure for economic slumps.

TAKE WARNING WICKED SEED

"Wicked seed, prepare thy sons for slaughter, for the sins of their fathers; that they may not rise and possess the land, and fill the world with wars." Isaiah 14:20-21, Septuagint Bible

What all will be broken remains to be seen, but before it all is over, the people's pride will be. The lyrics to the popular song "Proud to be an American" will be changed.

"and (if) My people, who are called by My name, humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." 2 Chronicles 7:14

Remember,

"The Lord saith: The land of rivers shall be broken." Habakkuk 3:9, Septuagint ...

From the Webmaster

Contrary to what may be considered conventional wisdom, a webmaster can be more than just a computer geek.

Over the past month, this member of the staff received first hand experience in ranching. Being that time of year, the Radio Ranch was in full-ranch-mode during August and I earned my “boots” per se. During this time, I assisted in the haying process, the branding of cattle, and have learned how to (or rather attempt to) move cattle, on and off a horse. Though I would still consider myself a novice in the world of ranching, I am grateful to have the experience, and considered the title of Radio Ranch Wrangler to be sufficiently earned.

I wrote in the last newsletter that we had secured a new hosting server to meet the increased demands that 2008 has brought on our Internet presence. And now that the ranch work has been brought up-to-date, I am currently in the process of making the switch to this new server. I am planning to be finished with the conversion by the time you read this article and will then begin implementing the new plans that we have for the web presence for the rest of 2008. Some of those plans consist of redeveloping the education section of the ministry site. We have many resources available that we have not made available because of the demands in other areas. Included in this upgrade will be more written articles and subject related audio. Also, a new subject related video page will be incorporated into this section as well.

Another aspect of the ministries’ web presence that will be optimized will be our Another Untold Story project. We have received several suggestions from our listeners concerning this site and we will be implementing many of them very soon.

From the Webmaster

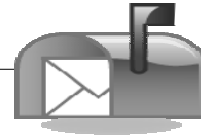

I would like to take the time to thank those of you that took the time to write me concerning the SFAWBN site. Thank you for your suggestions and compliments. And yes, adding to the network site content and display is another one of the things on my “to do” list. Also, before I forget, I would like to say thank you to the Acres of Diamonds man that has stepped up to the plate and provided all of the news content for our new network site. Personally, I don’t think I can thank you enough, but you should know that this staff is grateful for your consistency in contributing. For the rest of our Acres of Diamonds News Team men, remember, we also need you to send in your (especially local) news articles for the website news blog as well.

Please remember that you can survey the wide variety of ministry and evangelical resources at our SFAW Online Resource Center. From books and CDs to pamphlets and DVDs, including timeless messages by Pastor Peters, whatever resources you made need for evangelistic tools, they can be acquired through our fully secure online resource center.

In conclusion, it is worth noting that over the course of 2008 we have continuously, month after month, broken our unique visitor and number of visit(s) records. We announced the increase in our rankings with Quantcast® and we are continuing to climb that scale as the year continues. We give the praise and glory to Jesus Christ for this and consider it additional evidence that we are on the right track with our Internet outreach. Please remember that I am always open to your suggestions, comments, concerns, and/or questions, and you can contact me at:

webmaster@sfaw.org.

Mailbag

Dear Pastor Peters,

I am not a member of your church (hopefully soon I will be), but I am familiar with you and have watched DVD Church many times. I have great respect for you and your ministry. :)

I do not know if this is the proper venue or if I should be writing an e-mail such as this, but I feel compelled. I know you have truth in your spirit and you will give me truth in a response should you decide to respond to my e-mail.

I have a confession to make and at the end of this e-mail I will get to it. Let me begin with some details. Some time ago I prayed to the Lord to bring me a man of God. Never did I think he would find me deserving enough to answer that prayer. He did! Now...I knew right from the beginning exactly what this man required in a woman. This was a "man's man." I was ready and willing to fulfill everything. In the beginning...I did. It was so wonderful...we did everything together. We watched DVD church and had Communion together every Sunday. We worked together as a team in all ways. But I had a problem. I think I became too "comfortable" and took him (a gift from the Lord) for granted. I would rebel, know that I rebelled, be repentant for it, but it would show its ugly head time and again. I was "challenging" him. After a while this man of God (after many times of forgiving me) just had to draw the line. We are no longer together and I understand why.

Now I am alone. Alone with knowing that I did not cherish the gift that the Lord granted to me. This is a result of my being contemptuous and having a bitter heart. This is a result of my not giving the honor due to this man. I'll describe this man to you. You will probably think him familiar...he is much like yourself (at least I think so). He is a commanding man (I mean that in a good way); a commanding man that will not yield. For him, yielding would be the same as going against God because the law of God is on his heart. To earn a place in this man's heart and to be treasured by him one must prove that they will stand by him...faithful, loyal, and obedient. He is a king; A king who wants a queen. A queen who will give him admiration, who willingly takes the second seat, who will give him honor and reverence, who will never shame or belittle him, and who has a quiet and gentle spirit.

Now that I am no longer loved by this man I have an emptiness. I know I will never encounter another man of this stature. I pray that the Lord will guide me and "fix" me...make me suitable to this man. That He may put love back in this man's heart for me by allowing him to see the traits come to life in me as I described a few sentences back about a queen.

I desire to do God's will. I pray that His will is for me to be this man's helpmeet. In the name of Jesus I pray.

In this world we live in there are very few of us that are in touch with our identities. (By this I hope you understand where I am coming from... I have the same beliefs about our people and the Lord as this man has) I know that I can be this man's helpmeet for the rest of his life. I can understand his doubt. I failed the Lord and him. I am very sorry. I fear I have lost him forever. He wants me to not contact him for a good while. This I will do. If I am to submit to his authority in the future, now is also the time to be submissive to him. I cannot expect this man to just take my word for it, right? I must show him with my actions how serious I am about fulfilling the role of his helpmeet and be a servant to God. I will be the woman of Proverbs 31...even without this man. I desire to be what the Lord has created me to be. It will be my life goal to become a wife of noble character.

Now on to my confession: During the time you began the series on the Jezebel spirit I became completely rebellious. I even at one time got up and went outside because your sermon got to me that bad. At the time I thought it was just because you were being offensive. Now though...I know it was that Jezebel in me causing me to rebel against what truth was flowing into my ears. I ask that you forgive me for holding the Jezebel sermon against you for a short time. You are a man of God. I knew it then and I know it now. It was my weakness (which all women have) that allowed that foul spirit to flow through me. I reject Jezebel. I pray every day for the strength to reject Jezebel. That is my confession. I seek your forgiveness and the forgiveness of the Lord. Please pray for me Pastor Peters.

I know you are a very busy man, but if you have advice for me or a justified rebuke please feel free to lay it on me. I will accept all truth.

Sincerely and God be with you.

A Sister

Dear Sister in Christ,

Please know that I have prayed for you as you requested, and I prayed on how to answer you. The Scripture that came to my mind was Psalm 51:17 "A broken and contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise."

Mailbag

I know from the tone of your letter you are broken-hearted, but remember our God is a healer, and He even heals broken hearts. I have prayed He speedily heals yours and you be the better person for it all.

It was a broken-hearted Job who said "The Lord gives and the Lord takes away. Blessed be the name of the Lord" (Job 1:21). From what you've told me, the Lord gave to you and because of your rebellion, He took away. You continue to be faithful and the Lord will be merciful, and even work this for your good and learning (Romans 8:28). I have always found when His servant acknowledges his or her mistake, repents, confesses and does not get bitter, He in turn forgives and blessings again flow. Job found the Lord gives and the Lord takes away AND the Lord can give back again. In Job's case, he never got his original children back, but he did get back children. I cannot say you'll get the man you lost back, but I will say there's a very good chance you may, if you continue in faith and prayer on the humble, contrite repentant course you are on.

He understands, as does any faithful Christian man or woman, the inner spiritual battle you described when you fought that Jezebel spirit. Paul described it well in Romans 7:15--25, and then summed it up with these words: "There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus."

I want you to know that though your letter caused me to be sad for you and to hurt some with you (for I understand what it is like to hurt when you lose someone you love), it also gave me great joy and hope! You see, dear sister in Christ, this preacher hasn't seen very many women in all his years of preaching simply confess and admit wrong, and repent. He has, though, seen many blame and find excuses, get bitter, etc...

You are and will continue to be in my prayers.

One last thing; could I have your permission to read and/or publish your letter, without your name of course? I think it would help many and be a blessing to many in my concluding Jezebel messages.

Sincerely, Pastor Peters

Dear Pastor Peters,

Thank you for your response and for keeping me in your thoughts and prayers. I will do the same for you and yours.

Last evening when I opened my mail and your response was there it took me some time to actually open and read it. I told myself to just stop being chicken and open the e-mail. :) So I did. It brought me to tears. Not because it made me sad, but because it was a truly God felt and kind-hearted response filled with wisdom. Again, thank you.

I have been considering your request to read/publish my letter. At first I thought... "Oh...but what if he (the man I told you about) sees/reads it and realizes it pertains to him?" I prayed for guidance on this issue after having read your e-mail several times. I then went to bed for the night. In the morning I again prayed for guidance. I went to work and during a break I prayed for guidance one last time. While I was working alone and alone with my thoughts I received my answer.

Instead of worrying for a selfish reason...I realized Pastor Peters will use my letter for good. If I can help to save even one person from enduring the pain I have in my heart...it will be well worth having you read/publish my letter. Please feel free to use my letter in whichever manner you choose...at anytime you choose.

May God be with you Pastor Peters, Sincerely...
