This newsletter has sort of a warfare theme.

As the war goes on, we are pressing on in the battle, going to our annual Branson gathering of the Saints, and this newsletter is going to press. In the next newsletter we will tell of the Branson meeting.

The new "DC Street Sorcery" DVD has been mailed to those on our DVD, CD & cassette tape ministries. For any of you who support this ministry and did not get one, please contact us by email, preacher@sfaw.org or snail mail and we'll freely send you one. (The rest will have to send a $10.00 donation if they want one, or 20 for $100.00, for a limited time only.)

In this warfare, we are staying on the offensive. For example, since there is a new, well advertised movie coming out entitled, "Angels & Demons", we purchased a similarly named website entitled, www.Angles&DemonsDCStreet Sorcery to direct people to the new website www.DCStreetSorcery.com.

Our D.C. Street Sorcery DVD exposes the witchcraft and sorcery being used on the American people. Thus we are not surprised at satan's tactic to attack us and accuse us of witchcraft and sorcery, for such is the spiritual warfare and the tactics of satan.

In this newsletter we printed a couple of Jesus Saves testimonials (see page 24). We would like this to be a regular feature in the DragonSlayer newsletter, so if you have a 'Jesus Saves Testimony', send us yours.

Concerning this thing called swine flu, which is nothing more than the newest fear-fad the antichrist enemy tactically brings to the American people, we suggest you listen to our 7PM mountain time evening Radio Ranch broadcast of 4-27-09, archived at our website, scripturesforamerica.org and SFAWBN.com.

On another note, the Sunday morning 101 Christian Living class has been replaced with a new class entitled, "Scriptural Study and Insights". Pastor Peters and his Acres of Diamonds men will be teaching it. Tune in!

Since a long shot won the latest Kentucky Derby, we have repeated our own Longshot poem that we published a few years ago (see page 13). Put your money on that Longshot Gideon group that continues on, continuing on the offense in this war lead by this ministry.

Still seen as being offensive to stomped snakes,

THE CURSE REVERSER

LEARNING WAR

The Bible teaches us that the God of Israel wants His children of Israel to learn war. Judges 3:1-2 teaches us that in the old covenant, God wanted them to learn how to fight, and He gave them enemies to fight so that they might learn.

Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to test Israel by them (that is, all who had not experienced any of the wars of Canaan; 2 only in order that the generations of the sons of Israel might be taught war, those who had not experienced it formerly).

Judges 3:1,2

Our Lord has not changed, though there has been a change in covenants from the old to the new (Hebrews 8:8). He still wants His children to learn war, and has given us antichrist enemies to so teach us. Unfortunately, the flock has been so dumbed down and neutralized with the leaven of the Pharisees of “be nice and love everybody” in these Judeo-Christian club warehouses called churches, they have to again learn there is a war. They really are fighting spiritual forces (Ephesians 6:12).

...for they are spirits of demons, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the whole world, to gather them together for the war of the great day of God, the Almighty. Revelation 16:14

There is a reason that God calls the Christian ‘Christian soldiers’ (Philippians 2:25) and teaches us we have weapons of warfare.

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh, for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but divinely powerful for the destruction of fortresses. We are destroying speculations and every lofty thing raised up against the knowledge of God, and we are taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ, and we are ready to punish all disobedience, whenever your obedience is complete. 2 Corinthians 10:3-6

In this writing, the remnant of Christians who are still fighting will be introduced to a new weapon. We must learn of it and learn to use it. This weapon was made known in our Sunday sermon of May 3, 2009 entitled, “Pointers in Spiritual Warfare”.

THE CURSE REVERSER

That message has been sent out on the DVD, CD and tape ministry and is archived at our website, scripturesforamerica.org.

It was pointed out in that message that one cannot win a war by being on the defense, and that satan and his children will always try to put you in a defensive position, often by accusing you of the very thing they do. For example: this ministry has gone on the offense and attacked and opposed the witchcraft and sorcery being used by the enemy. We produced and sent out the DVD documentary, "DC Street Sorcery". In turn, the ministry has been accused of witchcraft and sorcery. Such is war.

Most today who claim Christianity do not want to be or viewed to be offensive, yet if you go on the offensive and fight in the war between good and evil, i.e. between the Kingdom of Jesus Christ and the kingdom of satan, YOU WILL OFFEND! The Christians have been so spell-casted they think being offensive isn't nice and Christian. They want to be nice little Christians and love everybody and offend nobody. The Christian soldier that does is not viewed as Christian.

In a war there are two sides, and both sides fight (or are supposed to fight). Christians have been losing because they often don't even know there is a war. They do not know they are being warred against by the other side and do not understand the weapons of war the other side is using on them. (Look at what has happened to the white Christian culture, and the words and language and standards in our country.)

LEARNING HOW "THEY" WAR AGAINST US

Our Lord wants us to learn how they war against us and what to do about it, thus He has told us to remember an ancient warfare practice.

"My people, remember now What Balak king of Moab counseled And what Balaam son of Beor answered him, And from Shittim to Gilgal, In order that you might know the righteous acts of the LORD."
Micah 6:5

THE CURSE REVERSER

Most Christians do not know what the counsel of Balak was. Balak was a Moabite king who warred against the Children of Israel. Why does God want us to “know the righteous acts of the Lord”? So we come to know of a weapon we can use.

*You
foolish
Galatians, who has bewitched
you...?*

To learn of the counsel of Balak, one must read the story recorded in Numbers 22 and 23. Following is a portion of that story:

And Moab said to the elders of Midian, "Now this horde will lick up all that is around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field." And Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time. So he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, at Pethor, which is near the River, in the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying, "Behold, a people came out of Egypt; behold, they cover the surface of the land, and they are living opposite me. "Now, therefore, please come, curse this people for me since they are too mighty for me; perhaps I may be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land. For I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed."
Numbers 22:4-6

We learn in this story that employing cursers against us is part of their warfare against us. In other words, they curse us. They curse us and get others to curse us. As we point out in the DVD, “DC Street Sorcery” (which we hope you’ll help us get out), Christians are often double-minded and thus spell-casted, for they often say they believe their Bibles but don’t believe in magic, sorcery, witchcraft and spell-casting -- WHICH THEIR BIBLE TEACHES IS REAL, and really is used on them.

You foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you...
Galatians 3:1.

THE CURSE REVERSER

Likewise they do not believe curses work. “That’s just superstition, voodoo-nonsense seen only in the movies”, and that’s what the enemy on the other side wants you to believe. Well, believe your Bibles. They use curses in their warfare and that is why God has told us to remember the counsel of Balak. Now that’s not the only reason He wants us to remember. He wants us to remember, “In order that you might know the righteous acts of the Lord”.

What was one of the righteous acts of the Lord in the Balak/Balaam story of Numbers chapters 22 and 23? It was that God changed the curses of Balaam into blessings.

Then Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, but behold, you have actually blessed them!"
Numbers 23:11

THE CURSE REVERSER - A DEFENSIVE WEAPON

The Lord acted, and changed the curses Balaam was hired to cast into blessings. This was one of the righteous acts of the Lord. Now get this Christian soldiers: our Lord still can do righteous acts for us in this war and we can, through Christ, ask Him to so do such a righteous act for us. Through prayer we can move the hand of God that moves the world. We can move Him to action for us.

It is one thing to bless those who curse us (Romans 12:14) and another thing to have the curses that are sent to us changed into blessings. In warfare there are offensive and defensive weapons. In the spiritual warfare we must learn to defend ourselves and our families from their cursers. This is done by praying “Lord Jesus this day change all the curses directed against me and my family into blessings!”

Then, enjoy the day and thank God for your enemies that He is using to bless you and your family. Do it first thing in the morning.

THE CURSE REVERSER

In the morning, O LORD, Thou wilt hear my voice; In the morning I will order my prayer to Thee and eagerly watch. Psalm 5:3

But I, O LORD, have cried out to Thee for help, And in the morning my prayer comes before Thee. Psalm 88:13

This is a weapon the Christian soldier needs to arm himself with, to protect not only himself but his family, his possessions.

"When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own homestead, his possessions are undisturbed; but when someone stronger than he attacks him and overpowers him, he takes away from him all his armor on which he had relied, and distributes his plunder. Luke 11:21,22

His family is his possessions, and his wife can become mentally disturbed with everything from mental illness to the curse of the feminist Jezebel women's lib mentality, and his children can become rebellious, addicted, caught in a spell, sinful, etc. This kind of stuff is happening to Christian families all the time because the Christians don't know a war is being waged against them. They not only don't fight back against the spiritual forces that are directed at them (Ephesians 6:12) but don't know how to, and they view the preacher that tries to tell them as a crazy radical.

Use this weapon along with the Prayer Filter weapon we introduced to you in our sermon #1084 entitled "The Equipment That is like a Reverse Gas Mask" and with the Forgiveness Filter given in our sermon #1125 "Lord Forbid that I Forgive". (Note we have both filters in laminated book-marker form. If you want them just write us and request them.)

"When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own homestead, his possessions are undisturbed"

Luke 11:21

THE CURSE REVERSER

MORE UNDERSTANDING CONCERNING THE CURSING

First of all, don't think you are not hated and being cursed. Many a believer believes if he or she just remains silent and non-offensive, then there will be no persecution for them. So they silently let the forces of hell destroy their society, and in turn they are silently and unknowingly targeted in the war. You see the evil doers of darkness hate the light (John 3:20). Christians don't seem to get it. There are those out there who hate without a cause, but the deluded Christian thinks if they don't give anyone a cause to hate them, then they won't be hated and targeted. Jesus said a servant is not above His master, and the Word says they hated the Master without a cause (John 15:25). The Word further says they disguise their hate (Proverbs 26:24).

The enemy in this war uses the weapon of prayer against us. A curse is an imprecatory prayer, and as in the "Star Wars" movie series, the good guys have 'underestimated the power of the dark side'. Though few take it seriously, the wicked curse and lay in wait for victims.

His mouth is full of curses and deceit and oppression; Under his tongue is mischief and wickedness. He sits in the lurking places of the villages; In the hiding places he kills the innocent; His eyes stealthily watch for the unfortunate. He lurks in a hiding place as a lion in his lair; He lurks to catch the afflicted; He catches the afflicted when he draws him into his net. He crouches, he bows down, And the unfortunate fall by his mighty ones. He says to himself, "God has forgotten; He has hidden His face; He will never see it."
Psalms 10:7-11

WHAT I'VE LEARNED IN THIS WAR (the hard way)

When you oppose the evil of satan's kingdom and proclaim truth to a society that loves a lie, you make yourself a prey. Those who chose to be a light and live a Christian life in this dark world make themselves a prey.

THE CURSE REVERSER

Yes, truth is lacking; And he who turns aside from evil makes himself a prey.
Isaiah 59:15

ANTICHRISTS, WITCHES AND SORCERERS ARE REAL, AND THEY PRAY AGAINST THEIR PREY

They pray against you (and your family). Prayer is part of their spell casting and cursing. The curse reverser is a defensive weapon to turn their prayers into blessings. Also, the Lord's Prayer, calling for the deliverance from evil, is a defense in this war. In turn, we too have an offensive weapon of prayer called imprecatory prayer. An imprecatory prayer is a curse. (ALWAYS pray on the armor and pray a fiery hedge of thorns of protection around you and your family, and enter the fortress Rock before firing off an imprecatory prayer, for satan and his forces will triangulate where the fire is coming from and will fire back.)

We must learn to pray to our God to pay them back double (Revelation 18:6) i.e. to curse such enemies. This is Godly and Scriptural, though the enemy has taught our people in the Judeo-Christian churches that it's not nice and Christian.

"And the LORD your God will inflict all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted you.
Deuteronomy 30:7

I have learned your own people will pray against you, and though Judeo-Christians will not pray against their antichrist enemies, they will pray against a preacher they are made to perceive as an enemy, a radical and even a cult leader. They are in the category of "forgive them for they know not what they do" (Luke 23:34).

The defensive weapon of the curse reverser can be used here, but do not use the offensive weapon of imprecatory prayer on such people. For them, just follow the teachings of Jesus on this matter.

THE CURSE REVERSER

"But I say to you who hear, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. Luke 6:27,28

(Beware of the trick of satan to make you angry and bitter and cause you to curse such people back.)

Jesus forgave some when He hung on the cross, but for the wicked, cunning, antichrist enemy who knew what they were doing, an imprecatory prayer or curse was fired upon them. This truth is seen in the prophetic 69th Psalm.

Reproach has broken my heart, and I am so sick. And I looked for sympathy, but there was none, And for comforters, but I found none. They also gave me gall for my food, And for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. May their table before them become a snare; And when they are in peace, may it become a trap. May their eyes grow dim so that they cannot see, And make their loins shake continually. Pour out Thine indignation on them, And may Thy burning anger overtake them. May their camp be desolate; May none dwell in their tents. For they have persecuted him whom Thou Thyself hast smitten, And they tell of the pain of those whom Thou hast wounded. Do Thou add iniquity to their iniquity, And may they not come into Thy righteousness. May they be blotted out of the book of life, And may they not be recorded with the righteous. Psalm 69:20-28

I have also learned that preachers will pray against you, and their prayers are powerful. When a preacher pushes the envelope, thinks and preaches outside the box, often the other preachers will perceive him as non-Christian, and not good for the sheep out Thine

indignation on them,
And
may Thy burning anger overtake them.
May
their camp be desolate;*

THE CURSE REVERSER

(some of them may also want some of his flock), and they will pray against him. Some times, some Jezebels will convince them that the preacher's preaching on 'order in the home' is causing problems in their home, and will convince them the preacher is a 'woman hater'. They get these preachers to pray against you. When they pray against you it is tantamount to cursing you. In such a case, employ the curse reverser, but never pray back against them, for this is a trick and temptation of satan. Don't pray against (nor fight against) real men of God -- PRAY FOR THEM. Jesus did say there would be those who would make you an outcast, thinking they were doing God a service . These are those who think destroying a Godly man's ministry is doing a Godly service (particularly for the sheep).

"They will make you outcasts from the synagogue, but an hour is coming for everyone who kills you to think that he is offering service to God."

John 16:2

I've also learned there will be brethren who ignorantly pray against your wife thinking they are doing you a service. For such brethren, return a blessing and use the defensive weapon of the curse reverser.

(Never pray against the wife of a man of God. Pray for her, for since husband and wife are one, prayers against her are prayers against him. God does not want you to harm His anointed. David understood this and thus did not curse Saul. Likewise, never pray against a wife's husband, for since husband and wife are one, you are praying against the woman as well as the man. Pray for her husband. You can pray a 'repent or perish' prayer as you pray for either husband or wife.)

These are things this writer has learned (the hard way) as he's learned of the spiritual warfare that is going on. He hopes it will be a help to those who are the Christian soldiers willing to learn war.

The Day...To HateThe Day the Anglo Saxon Began to Hate
by Rudyard Kipling

It was not part of their blood,
It came to them very late
With long arrears to make good,
When the Saxons began to hate,

They were not easily moved,
They were icy-willing to wait
Till every count should be proved
Ere the Saxons began to hate.

Their voices were even and low,
Their eyes were level and straight
There was neither sign nor show,
When the Saxons began to hate.

It was not preached to the crowd,
It was not taught by the State,
No man spoke it aloud,
When the Saxons began to hate.

It was not suddenly bred, It will not swiftly abate,
Through the chilled years ahead
When Time shall count from the date
That the Saxons began to hate.

The Last Shall be First...Longshot

The bell rings and open the gates swing,
Horse power explodes forth
With a thunderous sound,
Horses hooves are pounding the ground.

"They are off and running" the announcer says
The crowd stands, cheers and peers
With neck stretched heads

A fair race? They say it is not!
For the best jockey has strangely picked
A shaggy horse called "Long-shot"

The other steeds look stout and are sheen
And are ridden by jockeys
Who are hard and mean

Cunningly and cruelly their whips swing
Hitting the good jockey in the face
Conspiratorially crowding him To the rail and last place

Kill the jockey, maim his horse
Do whatever it takes
To keep old Long-shot and his rider From finishing the race

The announcer cries "Look at those long-legged ponies run, and look there in the back at old Long-shot eating their dust, that can't be fun"
Why did the best jockey pick him, he can't run

The crowd sees he can't stay up with the big studs
Eating their dust he seems small and scrawny
And looks like a dud

His rider knows he don't look like much
But years of hard riding have made him tough
And he knows the tough keep running when the big studs have had enough
The jockey knows it's not who's first at first
But who's last at last

The Last Shall be First...Longshot

Let them mock, let them laugh
His pony will be ready for the final blast
He and his horse know the first shall be last

The big high-rollers cheer, the small Long-shot betters groan
Seeing old Long-shot and rider in back and all alone

But there, the wise jockey knows his horse is safe
His horse has been trained for endurance and faith
Let them all watch and see who wins this race

The big boys are all bunched up and won't let him in
As they all come around the tracks final bend

Then, winded, some slow, some slip, some veer
But old Long-shot's got a second wind
And begins to move up from the rear

Where there had been no place to go
There now appears a small hole
The Long-shot's betters groans change to cheers
As the patient jockey urges Long-shot up from the rear

The horse knows the time has come to do his part
They saw him as nothing
but his jockey saw his heart

With blowing nostrils and lathered neck
He and his jockey move up and out
Into the final stretch

The jockey and the horse do what they must Leaving the big. Slowing studs behind
Like crushed serpents in the dust

With the finish line in sight there comes that sacrificial burst
And at last, at the finish, the last shall be first.

FROM OUR ACRES OF DIAMONDS MEN

Hello Pastor,

I told you some time back that the thought has occurred to me about a test for the false prophet as in I John 4. The context in the Scripture is testing the spirits to identify a false prophet, and testing them by what they say (or confess). The Scripture case is that if they confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, then they are from God. The point that sticks in my mind is that they are tested by the answer they give.

I have been struggling to get this focused in my mind. We need a way to test someone who comes in among us to see where his loyalty lies. Our own senses and experience can certainly be inadequate. This morning when I was just waking the thought came to me of a type of avionics box that does just what we need done, at least it has the same principle. It is an aircraft's IFF box. The acronym means "Identification Friend or Foe". All military aircraft have them. I used to help work on them when I was in the service.

What happens with an IFF box is a challenge between the tower IFF and the aircraft IFF. The tower sends an interrogation code, and the aircraft IFF must answer with the correct counter-sign code, just like a password to a sentry, or the shibboleth test word in the Bible. If it does not give the correct code, or no answer, then fighters might be scrambled to check it out.

That's the principle; ask the question, get an answer, and it had better be the right answer, but that is not enough. It is not enough because we are not dealing with two computers talking, but with possible false prophets, and they might lie, most likely would lie.

That is the other part of the test, are they lying or not? The Bible is clear enough that it is not necessarily sin to lie to or deceive an enemy, but can any creature have the right to lie to the Holy Spirit? I think not, and there is an example in Acts 5:3 of lying to the Holy Spirit, Ananias and Sapphira, and they both died for doing it.

So this is the idea that has come to me, a spiritual weapon against the lying false prophet or false brethren. It is similar to what happens when an impostor takes Communion, he must "judge the body rightly", "judge himself that he be not judged" as in I Corinthians 10. If he lies, he might just die for doing it. The passages in Chapter 10 amount to a second witness that no one can lie to the Holy Spirit and get away with it. The other witness is Acts 5:3, and I believe other Scriptures could also apply.

What we can do is pray in the Spirit that He, the Holy Spirit, will see and judge whether someone has lied as a malicious false prophet or false brother and judge that creature. We have already done this, and it appears to me the prayer has been answered. It might seem too simple, but just as you have taught us before, we have been too stupid when it comes to simply putting the Word to practice.

Jesus bless you and all your household, and place the hedge of Job round about you on all sides. From Texas

Matthew 5:21-22

"You have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not murder, and whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.' But I say to you that whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment. And whoever says to his brother, 'Raca' shall be in danger of the council. But whoever says, 'You fool!' shall be in danger of hell fire.

"Angry without a cause" indicates someone vainly or uselessly incensed. It describes a person so proud, sensitive, or insecure that he gets angry about trifling things. He wears his feelings on his sleeve and is easily offended. He then broods on the offense and nurses it into a grudge.

Raca literally means "vain fellow," someone who is deemed shallow, empty-headed, brainless, stupid. People said raca in a tone of voice that conveyed scorn, contempt, or bitterness born of pride, snobbery, and prejudice.

"You fool" implies a moral fool. One using it was casting aspersions upon another's character to destroy his reputation. It is an expression of condemnation, of character assassination.

William Barclay, in his commentary on these verses, writes: What Jesus is saying here is this, "In the old days men condemned murder; and truly murder is forever wrong. But I tell you that not only are a man's outward actions under judgment; his inmost thoughts are also under the scrutiny and the judgment of God. Long-lasting anger is bad; contemptuous speaking is worse, and the careless or malicious talk which destroys a man's good name is worst of all."

The man who is the slave of anger, the man who speaks in the accent of contempt, the man who destroys your good name, may never have committed a murder in action, but he is a murderer at heart.

Brooding anger, contempt, and character assassination are all the spirit of murder. Christ here traces murder to several of its major sources. To continue in any of these states breaks the sixth commandment and punishable by the penalty of death. Christians have to keep the spirit of the law. I John 3:15 "Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him."

The above has a bearing on the previous email about Proverbs 26:4-5. I viewed them as murderers based on their attempt to smear your good name (character assassination). Their attempt was to destroy not only you, but the SFAW ministry. Reading more of the verses of Proverbs 26 will give more details of a fool. Verse 6, "He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet and drinketh damage." literally means "that he renders himself helpless by cutting off his own feet".

The question to ask is "Are these our brothers, or children of satan?" The answer is probably both. But, who is a brother? Remember the email that I sent back in February about knowing them by their fruits? We pray for those caught up in a spell of deceit; but for those whose instincts are to steal, kill, and destroy, we pray for the judgment listed above in Mathew 5:21. And, the penalty is DEATH. Were they "angry without a cause" or did they scream, "You Fool"? Either way, they will come under this judgment that Jesus was describing. In The Name of Jesus,. Mississippi

Pastor,

Below is something I thought of concerning a business acquaintance of mine that said he wanted to read the Bible. I was thinking how unless circumstances were right, it wouldn't do much for him. It's not perfectly thought out yet but you can give some insight to it. I'm sure some parts need to be moved around but you can get the jest of it.

You can't read and understand the Bible because:

1. you must have the Holy Spirit to understand the Bible
  2. you must be a Christian to have the Holy Spirit
  3. you must be a washed by the blood baptized person to be a Christian
  4. you can't be a Christian until you are repentful
  5. you can't be repentful until you know you are a sinner
  6. you can't know you are a sinner until you know God's law because sin is a transgression of that law
  7. you can't know the Word until you know Jesus. Jesus is the Word.
  8. you can't know that law until you know the Word
  9. you can't know the Word until you read the Bible
  10. and you can't understand a Bible because you don't have the Holy Spirit.
- Therefore, you need a preacher.

FROM OUR ACRES OF DIAMONDS MEN

But...most preachers don't understand the Bible nor have the Holy Spirit. Most people I fear are in this spot.

Also, let's pray not only to reverse the curse for ourselves but for the whole of the curses they've placed on your flock. Blessings, NC

Pastor,

I think the use of the word 'examine' in Communion only deals with the manner in which you eat and drink. The CEV really hits it by saying "the way". The "but" in 11:28 refers to the previous verse (G6116) and I feel strongly that we are to only look at the manner in which we partake. Are we doing it unworthily. Are we treating it with the respect this ordinance deserves. I think it may be dangerous by looking at ourselves, why, that is what they were doing in their feasts, thinking of themselves, their hunger, their thirst, looking good doing it, etc. I can't quite get my words wrapped around it yet but it's there, I believe.

But let a man prove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. But let no man take of the bread and the cup without testing himself. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of this bread, and drink of this cup:

That's why you must examine the way you eat and drink.

For this reason, a man should examine himself, and then eat of this bread, and drink of this cup:

With this in mind, individuals must determine whether what they are doing is proper when they eat the bread and drink from the cup.

But let a man prove himself, and thus eat of the bread, and drink of the cup.

But let a man examine himself, and in this way let him eat from the bread and drink from the cup.

But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of bread, and drink of cup.

But let a man examine himself, and, having done that, then let him eat the bread and drink from the cup.

And let a man be proving himself, and so of the bread let him eat, and of the cup let him drink;

The Day...To Faith

The Day the Saxons Began to Faith

By Peter J Peters

It was part and parcel of their blood,
But had not been practiced of late;
So it was with long arrears to make good,
When the Saxons began to faith.

They were nearly overthrown,
But were icy willing to wait;
Till the tares be fully grown,
Then the Saxons began to faith.

Their voices were even and low,
Their eyes were level and straight;
There was neither sign now show,
When the Saxons began to faith.

It was preached by Pete to the crowd,
But not tolerated by the state;
Most men spoke it not aloud,
When the Saxons began to faith.

In them it had been bred,
But hadn't been used of late;
The tares were good as dead,
Through the fiery days ahead;
When time shall count from the date,
That the Saxons began to faith.

Jesus Saves Testimonial

Pastor Peters,

My name is _____. I am married with 4 kids and live in Texas. Some time ago a friend of mine gave me a shoe box full of your sermons, must have been 40 or so tapes. I listened to EVERY one of them and found a lot of my questions from childhood (grew up in church) were answered. Questions like where did all these white folks come from? Is it in the Bible clearly that interracial marriage was not ok? (I knew in my heart it wasn't but never heard a preacher say that it was against God's law.) How in the WORLD did all these different nationalities come from Adam and Eve? Many others.

I have a new love for the WORD of God today thanks to your commitment to stand for the truth! It's like being in the desert and getting a cold glass of water! Both my wife and I have been baptized but after one of your broadcasts last month we baptized each other in the bathtub according to Acts 2:38 (in the name of Jesus for the remission of sin), just wasn't sure if it was in accordance with word the first time. I have recently ordered and read, Who is Esau, Edom, Judah's Sceptre Joseph's Birth Right, Revealing the Man of Sin, Terrible Tare-able Stories (have yet to finish this one). I am PRAYING for you daily and looking forward to meeting you one day.

A little history on me -- as a boy I grew up in church and am very grateful to have had the understanding of the reality of Jesus Christ, his existence, and unconditional love for me. Though I understood, as the establishment church teachers, I was adopted in and not the actual seed of Abraham. At age 15, I was put into a position where I had to call on the name of Jesus Christ. My 21 year old brother-in-law (in from the Navy) (newly married for approximately 6 months to my sister) and I were robbed at gunpoint for our then 1985 Trans-Am. In the process of the robbery we were taken at gun point into a vacant house and shot at point blank range (12 gauge shotgun). Upon witnessing my brother-in-law being shot first I immediately called on very loudly the NAME OF JESUS CHRIST to save me. Though this man fully intended on killing us both, I lived. I am not sure my brother-in-law was ever taught about Jesus Christ. In 2003, the execution of this man took place in _____. This was a very racially-motivated person determined to kill (according to his words) a white man for every year his brother was in prison. Thank God he got caught!! Psalms 116 means a lot to me. In this Psalm David cried out to the Lord in his distress.

I listen to your broadcast daily in pursuit of the truth. I pray God's grace and mercy on me and my family that we can receive the truth when presented. Sincerely...

I Love the LORD, because He hears My voice and my supplications. Because He has inclined His ear to me, Therefore I shall call upon Him as long as I live. Psalm 116:1,2

Pastor Peters,

I was Baptized for the remission of my sins in 1961 in an assembly of God church in Portland, Oregon in 1961. My brother Jack stated that we both understood what we were doing. I've since then been walking with the Lord, though at times missing the mark, but have on many occasions been put to the test and have gained strength. I attended a Gospel mission in Portland, and went into the streets during service and compelled them to come in. One night during my invitation to a man, he became very angry at me and sent a hay maker at my chin; it stopped a hair away. His mouth dropped open, he turned and ran into the mission all the way to the alter and wept violently. That was in the 60's.

I've attended Churches here and there but have been so bored I've been spending my time taking care of the folks I either meet through my various enterprises or meet randomly as I wonder along my path.

Oh, another deliverance that just came to mind, I was clearing 40 acres of land in Oregon, lots of trees. I was running a D6 open-top bulldozer pushing trees over so as to get the stumps out. The top broke off the one, it crushed me between it and the fuel tank as I was trying to get off and out of the way. I couldn't breath, I had managed to hit neutral. I was reminding God of His promise, In my mind of course, I couldn't talk, that He said we would live at least three score and more. He said If you will say the name of JESUS with the last air you have left you will be rescued. I did it, I heard it, but it was only a grunt. He then said to move my leg up to the hydraulic lever and lift the tree off with the blade; another rescue Pastor Peters.

I related this to you because of a sermon you preached on Faith and Belief. I've been on the internet with you almost every day since March sometime, I am catching up. Thank you, more support is headed your way from me and many others I'm sure.

I Love You Brother, and ask my God in Jesus name to BLESS YOU and keep You and all of yours.

Dear Pastor Peters,

When I watched the services on Sunday, I want you to know my heart was broken with yours. You are a man of God and that is for sure. You faced it with strength and courage, and my the Lord bless you for it. You do Love deeply and without reservation and have a pastors heart.

When you began your DC Sorcery DVD (great work by the way) exposing why the people of God are asleep, and refuse to even believe what their own bibles say about witchcraft and majic, maybe you were beginning to tear down a bail or two before the people. The wicked ones will attack back in what ever form they can, as even you have said. Love God save America Again as well I pass out copies of them at work when ever I get an opportunity. Via email

I've had to Repent of a few things. I'm also seeing now that Baptism is the #1 KEY for getting into the Kingdom.

I had the honor of Baptizing my daughter this past summer. Thanks again.

It is heartbreaking and unnerving when those who are closest to us turn to become our enemies. In Proverbs the scripture says "a man is tested by his praise." It seems true also, that a man is "sifted" by treachery. I hope you will allow the Lord to bind your heart up as you grow through this recent trial.

Dear Pastor,

I could not believe what I was seeing in church yesterday. DC Street Sorcery held my attention like nothing I've ever seen before. I was shocked and disgusted. I am madder then I have ever been in my life. It's one thing to lay out for the people what is really going on in DC it's quite another to turn the heat up by letting people take control of their own destinies with prayer. If you want to see the devil's playground well we got a belly full of it. I hate it, I hate it.

The Pistol Prayer is just right and having it prayed at the top of each hour, day in and day out is a master stroke. I am going to have several copies of the prayer laminated. That way I'll have it on hand in the car, the office, at home and in my wallet. You may think I'm not being serious with this suggestion but hear me out...If the ragheads face mecca and say their prayers why not we Christians face DC with our prayers. When we focus on the Washington monument. With enough prayer, that monument will be cast into the river. Most certainly their communication line(s) will be disrupted causing chaos and confusion. Prayer is the key. This makes so much sense. I wonder how long this will last on You Tube?

This DC DVD will turn this country up side down. What a challenge to the public. To the Christians. Finally we can take off the blinders and see who it is that's slapping us around.

Pastor, I am not a learned man but with the help of the Holy Spirit I have come to a conclusion having to do with Christ the Healer.

From the Mailbag

I truly believe with the lifting of the woman's skirt and exposing her sorceries (DC Street Sorcery) and with all the directed and focused prayer that will now come against the evil empire the Lord will be opening the channels for HEALING. As the magic decreases in power through our prayers, the door will be open for the Healing powers to do the works that God through His son had meant to be done all along. Jesus put the fear of God in the rulers of that day by His healing the masses of people who followed Him everywhere by the 100's and 1000's. His teachings in the temple did not affect the everyday man, woman or the child. When He healed, the powers that be got scared. My point is this...as the vile of secret societies, sorcery, magic and the rest of the garbage begins to end, God will open the door for healers to come forth and begin the work of removing the blinders from the peoples' minds and begin to open ears and eyes to the truth.

It wasn't until seeing the "D.C. Street Sorcery" DVD and with what I've been studying the last several days that "the thought occurred to me" (Holy Spirit inspired) that God will move on this land. God will send healers to His people. Florida

Dear Pastor,

I knew from the time you mentioned all this that the accusations could only be ridiculous. You are correct to address the issue, dismiss it and the snakes involved and move along with the work of the Lord.

Via email

Dear Pastor Peters:

.....it is "Pastor", isn't it? I knew it all along, I tell you. I knew it, I knew it! I've followed you and your ministry for over 15 years now. I always had this sneaking suspicion about you. I knew that you, unlike me, were up to no good all along. It's taken me 15 years to see the light.

I had a vision of my own. It was of a man leading sheep to the slaughter. It was of a man who bore false witness against an elder.

This whole business is so laughable.

Here you have a so-called fellow Christian soldier that can take the time to spread a lie, but doesn't have enough of the spirit of God in him to pray for you...if this was in fact a genuine concern, gripe, or thought. You will know them by their fruits. Via email
