As this newsletter is going out, our messages are still getting out twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week on the Scriptures for America Worldwide Broadcasting Network, www.SFAWBN.com, and is heard worldwide on radio, shortwave satellite, and internet, plus the Scriptures for America DVD, CD and tape ministry. All this takes a whole lot of money to pay the big pile of monthly bills. Please remember that and remember God will keep His promise to the tithers.

"Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this," says the LORD of hosts, "if I will not open for you the windows of heaven, and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows. Malachi 3:10

We could not do what we do if there were not those of you who send your tithes and offerings to us. Thank you and know we need your prayers and support to continue to do what we are doing.

"Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this," says the LORD of hosts, "if I will not open for you the windows of heaven, and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows. "Then I will rebuke the devourer for you, so that it may not destroy the fruits of the ground; nor will your vine in the field cast its grapes," says the LORD of hosts. "And all the nations will call you blessed, for you shall be a delightful land," says the LORD of hosts.

For it is written in the Law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle the ox while he is threshing." God is not concerned about oxen, is He? Or is He speaking altogether for our sake? Yes, for our sake it was written, because the plowman ought to plow in hope, and the thresher to thresh in hope of sharing the crops. If we sowed spiritual things in you, is it too much if we should reap material things from you?

1 Corinthians 9:9-11

We are bringing a new Radio Ranch Wrangler into the Scriptures for America workforce. Our Wednesday Night Prayer Meeting had been very effective, as we continue to get Praise Reports, and we thank all of those that join us for prayers. And, we encourage you to be sure to tune in to that at 7:00 PM and pray with us. You will be blessed if you do (see Proverbs 11:25).

Continue to pray the DC Street Sorcery Pistol and Rifle prayer that we make known on the DVD, "DC Street Sorcery". The prayers are breaking the spells, less and less people are paying attention to the mainstream news and the media, and 'their' preachers are losing their power. Order the DVD and pass it out to others. See the inside back cover for details.

Continue to pray our bi-weekly imprecatory prayers we post at our website and/or send out in the mail to those who pray with us.

Still Sincerely Stompin' Snakes,

Pastor Peter J. Peters

THE DECEPTION DETECTION PRAYER

There is a sin in the camp that is not readily confessed, and there is a reason it is not.

When there is sin in the camp of the saints, there is defeat in the fight of faith. This principle is clearly taught in Joshua Chapter 7. The defeat in the Christian soldiers fight is clearly seen in the fact of our country's apostasy. Our country is now full of other religions & philosophies, witchcraft, pornography, addictions, family disintegration, sexual perversion, political corruption, aliens, AND SILENT, DUMB-DOG PREACHERS UNABLE TO BARK (Isaiah 56:12).

There is a sin in the camp that is not readily confessed, and there is a reason it is not. It is a sin that is a latter day sin and probably more prevalent than any other sin-yet the saints seem less aware of it, and take it less seriously, than any other sin. The Apostle Paul does a long last-days list of sins in 2 Timothy 3:1-13. "But realize this that in the last days difficult times will come. For men will be.....deceiving and being deceived."

One man recently wrote the following to us:

"Dear Pastor Peter J. Peters,

Hi, I am a 71 year old white male, Saved and Baptized back in 1963 and I am a person that just doesn't accept every thing at face value, meaning I dig into an idea, I have a very in depth study. So, this had led me to realize that not everything is as perceived.

My wake up call so to speak came when I was reading in Revelation 12:9 where satan and his angels were cast into the earth with him, and he deceived the whole world. If satan and his snakes deceive the whole world, THEN I MUST ALSO BE DECEIVED!

What a wakeup call! Now to save a lot of reading for you, because I have been listening to your broadcasts over a local radio station and over the internet I have gained a lot of instructions. As for your teaching the Word of our Heavenly Father and our Savior, YOU ARE SO ON TARGET, no surprise to you, HaHa. I and our Father, Jesus and the holy angelic realm are rejoicing over how you DO NOT HOLD BACK on telling the truth. BLAST them deceiving SNAKES Brother Pete."

Deception is a sin. It is a two party sin consisting of the deceiver and the deciever, but we've become so deceived we don't see the deceived as sinners but simply as victims. Not so, for the Word tells us sin is a transgression of our Lords commands (I John 3:4) and He has commanded us not to be deceived.

"Do not be deceived my beloved brother" James 1:16.

We could and need to write a whole book on this subject (in our spare time), and we have been delivering a long stream of sermons on this subject. Those sermons are archived at our website and have and/or are being sent out on our CD and DVD ministry, and broadcasted on shortwave radio, satellite and internet. (Titles include: Deception Detection, Deep Deception, The Deceiver Shall be Revealed, Deceiving and Being Deceived, More on Deceiving and Being Deceived, Deception and the Amalekite Connection, and Amalekite Dog Brains.)

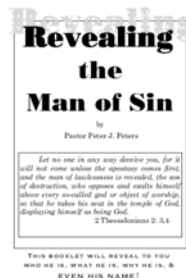

The man of sin and lawlessness described in 2 Thessalonians 2:3-9 is himself a deceiver (as we reveal in our booklet The Man of Sin Revealed, the man is a group of men). The Bible warns us of deceivers (II John 2:26). There are two groups of deceivers. Those who do not acknowledge that Jesus came in the flesh (II John 2:7), and those that do teach Jesus is the Christ.

"For false Christ's and false prophets will arise and will show great signs and wonders so as to mislead if possible even the elect."

Matthew 24:24.

The latter category is the most dangerous.

There are two degrees of deception.

So where do you think you would find the deceivers
today?
pulpits...

THE DECEPTION DETECTION PRAYER

The second degree is one who has himself been taught a lie and then in turn teaches this lie. He is deceived but doesn't know it, and then as he teaches he unknowingly deceives.

The first degree deceiver knows he is a deceiver, knows he's doing the work of his father the devil in introducing destructive heresies, and enjoys deceiving.

It seems the simple sheep have a hard time believing someone would purposely deceive them and delight in doing so, even though the Scripture clearly teaches us such is so (2 Peter 2:1, 12, 13).

Satan himself is a deceiver and so are his servants.

For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, fashioning themselves into apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for even Satan fashioneth himself into an angel of light. It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also fashion themselves as ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works.

2 Corinthians 11:13-15

So where do you think you would find the deceivers today? In the church pulpits, disguised as ministers of righteousness, telling the people Jesus is the Christ, and deceiving the elect.

UNDERSTANDING HOW DECEPTION WORKS

We have a hard time grasping the depth of the devil's deception because of the power and miracles satan can fake. Concerning the false prophets who come in sheep's clothing (Matthew 7:15), Jesus said:

THE DECEPTION DETECTION PRAYER

“Therefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out demons, and by thy name do many mighty works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

Matthew 7:20-23

Notice how the deceived people thought they belonged to Jesus Christ and had cast out demons and performed many miracles. Now be honest with yourself—If you saw someone cast out a demon or pray over a sick and infirmed person (in the name of Jesus), and that person was healed, would you not think the one doing the praying was a man of God? Certainly!

The writings of the early church fathers show the early church knew how the deception was done. You see, some diseases are caused by satan.

“...even Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.”

Acts 10:38

The phony-costal, Pentecostal fake healers heal by the power of satan and demons. Satan and/or demons make the sick sick, and then when the phony-man prays over the sick, the demon and/or satan remove themselves i.e., releases the afflicted, and presto! like magic, a healing happens. In the process you are deceived into thinking this man is a man of God, and quite often the man himself is deceived into thinking he is a man of God as well. (This would make him a deceiver of the second degree). Such healing by the power of satan is taught in the Bible. Jesus acknowledged that the sons of the children of the devil healed by the power of Beelzebub. Just read Matthew 12:22-27.

Following are three different writings by the early Anti-Niacin writers showing the early church understood this deception:

THE DECEPTION DETECTION PRAYER

So how are we to know?

Jesus said we would know by their fruit.

"No doubt, they are very kind, too, in regard to the healing of diseases! For first of all, they make you ill. Then, to get a miracle out of it,...they withdraw their hurtful influence. Supposedly, then, they have wrought a cure!" Tertullian (c. 197, W); 3.37

"It is the practice of some men to capture persons and then restore them to their friends for a ransom. Similarly, those who are considered to be gods invade the bodies of certain persons. They then produce a sense of their presence by dreams. Then, when they have taken their fill of the things of this world, these "gods" command them to come forth into public. In the sight of all, they then fly away from the sick, destroying the disease which they had produced. They thereby restore men to their former state." Tatian (c.160, E), 4.190

"Secretly creeping into human bodies with subtlety (as being spirits), they simulate diseases, alarm the minds, and wrench about the limbs. They do this so that they may constrain men to worship them...By remitting what they had bound, they seem to have cured it."

Mark Minucius Felix (c.200, W), 4.190

The deceivers will be revealed.

"Let no one in any way deceive you, for it will not come unless the apostasy comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction," 2 Thessalonians 2:3

The deceivers (1st and 2nd degree) have power, signs and wonders.

"... that is, the one whose coming is in accord with the activity of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders," 2 Thessalonians 2:9

THE DECEPTION DETECTION PRAYER

"For false Christs and false prophets will arise and will show great signs and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even the elect."
Matthew 24:24

SO HOW ARE WE TO KNOW?

BY THEIR FRUIT!

So how are we to know? How are we to keep from being deceived by these wolves in sheep's clothing? Jesus said we would know by their fruit.

"Beware of the false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will know them by their fruits."
Matthew 7:15,16.

The problem is, we don't know what He meant when He said "by their fruits". The fruit is answered prayer. This Jesus teaches us in John 15:7-8.

"If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it shall be done for you. By this is My Father glorified, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be My disciples."

The man of 2 Thessalonians 2 has power, signs and false wonders (2 Thessalonians 2:9). This is his fruit, but it is bad fruit. You see Jesus tells us the deceivers have BAD FRUIT. That means there are bad answers to prayer.

"A good tree cannot produce bad fruit, nor can a bad tree produce good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."
Matthew 7:18-19

So if answered prayer is the fruit, when are we to know if it is good answered prayer fruit or bad answered prayer fruit? How are we to know if the man is truly of God or of satan? Jesus again gives us the answer.

THE DECEPTION DETECTION PRAYER

"You did not choose Me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you ask of the Father in My name, He may give to you.

John 15:16

Note the words "that your fruit should remain".

The writer of this article has gotten his PhD in being deceived by going to that school of higher learning for dummies called the 'School of Hard Knocks'. He has learned from the best satan had to offer. One thing he came to learn from these phony Pentecostal snakes is often their prayers, their wonderful, marvelous prayers DO NOT LAST. They are false wonders.

For example, when Jesus did a true wonder and raised a little twelve year old girl from the dead (Luke 8:54) you know she didn't then die within the year screaming out in pain with cancer. She wasn't cured for a ten day period then to only take a turn for the worse and die a horrible death. Jesus' fruit was good fruit, and it lasted.

Ah, but the dirty-bird-deceiver snake always have an answer for such bad fruit they produce.

"For such men are slaves not of our Lord Christ but by their own appetites, and by their smooth and flattering speech they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting"

Romans 16:18

Sometimes in the school of hard knocks the slow learner had to be bitten by these serpents to learn the lesson, but once he gets it, he's got it, and he can then get it across to the other unsuspecting sheep.

These guys use sorcery (and then accuse you of what they do). For example, going to a fortune teller is wrong and is to be involved in sorcery, but the fortune tellers are not always wrong in what they tell you, for they use demons to fore tell. This is how fortune tellers make money.

THE DECEPTION DETECTION PRAYER

Just read the story given in Acts 16:16-20 of the demon possessed, divination practicing slave girl making her masters money.

Its not different with these phony Pentecostals. You go to them for prayer and they then cleverly tell you something about yourself that you didn't tell them, or they act like they know something about you, and in the process convince you this is done by the HOLY SPIRIT. It is done by a spirit alright, but it ain't so holy, believe me. But it deceives you and gets you to come back to them and to lift them up in your mind as a man of God and to give them money. We become SUCKER SHEEP FOR THEM TO FLEECE.

Now with all that said, that is not to say true Holy-Spirit-filled men cannot tell about you what you have not told them. Just read the stories in John 4:29 and Acts 5:3.

So again how are we to know? It's very simple. The true men of God will teach the true plan of salvation.

"Repent and let each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus for the remission of sins and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit"

Acts 2:38

This writer has seen them claim to be Holy Spirit led men, ministering and preaching for fifty years but they never could get enough of their so-called holy spirit to figure out the Bible plan of salvation. Instead, they come up with the "simply accept Jesus" or "Believe on or in Jesus" Baptists Babylonian bull or some sinners prayer. That is until they come around a bunch they can make a buck off of, then they may make reference to what they call 'water baptism'.

But you'll never see them get re-baptized or get properly baptized themselves, or go to their past Pentecostal brothers and confess the error of their way and tell them to repent...

THE DECEPTION DETECTION PRAYER

But you'll never see them get re-baptized, i.e. get properly baptized themselves, or go to their past Pentecostal brothers and confess the error of their way and tell them to repent and start telling the truth.

In my school of hard knocks I never met a con man I didn't like. I was never conned and deceived when I did not afterwards say "I can't believe he'd do that!." You can bet your boots and throw in the spurs there were a many campfire fish-fry the Apostles had where they would say; "I still can't hardly believe Judas was a son of destruction. Why, we had such good fellowship and prayer together and he labored with us for Jesus, etc, etc..."

You can bet Pastor Judas was loveable, likeable and charming, and Jesus had him in the flock so the Apostles would get a good dose of deception and learn.

Better to learn the lesson now and humbly repent of being deceived than to be in the humiliated deceived number of Matthew 7:22 when it is to late to repent.

LEARN NOT TO LET JUST ANYONE PRAY OVER YOU

Learn to be careful who you pray over (I Timothy 5:22), and learn to be careful who you have pray over you. For example, people go to white witches to be treated and prayed for AND they often get answers to the prayers (bad fruit, but the side effects or other consequences off set the temporary perceived benefit). It's not different with these 1st and 2nd degree deceivers. Consider the following two letters that illustrate the point:

"Greetings Brothers..."

I just wanted to bring this scripture to mind.. (at the very bottom). Being sick, and in much pain for the last 9 years, and failing to find an Elder as in the cure mentioned in scripture about Calling for the Elders, as it is written, "James 5:14"..

I have at one point had an evil spirit come upon me, (during a foolish decision I made back in 2002), to partake in an over the Air-ways TV, type healing, done on TBN, (done by

THE DECEPTION DETECTION PRAYER

Benny Hinn)..I have grown in Faith and Knowledge since then, and have learned much, from SFA Ministry. Yes, now I know better and stay clear of every false way and the deceivers and Edomite tare types.

To clear up what I just stated, YES, a real demon like entity manifested and attacked me, and I was nearly overcome, but at the last second, I remembered JESUS name, and called out, "Help me Jesus" and the entity fled. Thank God!

Needless to say, I have embarked upon a truth search and study to obey God's word. I walked to Branson and got baptized in the pool on 05-26-07..I repented of all Sins as commanded and have endeavored to be faithful and a doer of the word, and still do.."

"Hello Richard,

The recent series on deception had helped me to clarify my thoughts on something that happened a few years back. Without having all the data that Pastor Peters has, I came to a similar conclusion about the following:

One day a dynamic older woman just "showed up" at the church I was attending. She claimed that she was a prayer warrior and an overcomer, who had been sent by God to "heal this church." After the first service she attended, she went to lay hands on a troubled woman from our congregation, whose daughter was very seriously ill. "SM (the mother) was depressed and anxious and "B" (the dynamic newcomer) laid her hands on SM, claiming great blessings for her. Shortly after that SM left our church, her depression and anxiety now having given birth to a nasty unfriendliness, which persists to the present day. (A few years earlier, SM had been a very positive person, but was apparently badly set back by her daughter's illness.)

In the weeks that followed "B" also prayed in a loud, boisterous way for several other people in our church. One young woman who was prayed for soon left the church. It turned out her husband had been having an affair. Thankfully, the two of them decided to stick it through, but both disappeared from the church at that point—and the young woman’s health problems got worse. “B” also prayed for a woman with debilitating illness, and another woman who had spent most of her life in a mental health system. Both of these women got worse, and to the best of my knowledge are even worse today than they were back then. Finally, “B” started “mentoring” still another young woman, and almost lead her to a breakdown. Thankfully, this young lady prayed intensely, and found that God was guiding her away from “B”. She had now broken contact with B, and sees her as a bad influence.

Among other things, B has never fully given up the Catholicism of her younger years. As of two years ago, she still prayed to one of the Catholic saints, and she has frequently spoken up for “unity” with Catholicism.

Some time ago I began to develop the view that B was—probably unconsciously—a “tare”, who had very clearly not been “sent by God to heal the church”, but, rather, sent by satan to harm people. This is especially so, because I believe this church is being led to reject many of the standard teaching of Judeo-Christianity, and may be evolving into something approaching an Identity perspective. I somehow know that it was no accident that all those prayed for by B seemed to get worse or even cursed. But it took Pastor Peters’ sermon on deception detection to clarify my thoughts on this matter. I was amazed to find that I had come to the same conclusions he had come to, only without as much knowledge and understanding.

I will be praying that all the curses directed to SFAW will continue to be transformed into blessings!”

Satan is a deceiver and a counterfeiter. The fake, counterfeit healings of the Benny Henn's, Oral Roberts, etc, is to then keep the saints away from the true healing, which is their born again birth right in Jesus Christ. The way it works is like this. The phony-costal crowd doesn't teach the true plan of salvation, but they see healings and the supposed workings of the Holy Spirit that they don't see in the non-Spirit moved churches that DO teach the proper Biblical plan of salvation. Thus, they are deceived into believing baptism for the remission of sins is not necessary (though the Word says it is).

Those that know what must be done to become a Christian know the phony-costal Pentecostals don't do it or teach it, so they reject it all, which is throwing the baby out with the bath water. And so, the deception goes on and on, and no one thinks they are deceived, and no one even thinks of repenting of being deceived. There is much more to this deception topic which we cover in the sermon's we've been doing on deception. We will close with the concept of the deception detection prayer.

Since being deceived is a sin (I John 3:4) and we can confess our sins (I John 1:8), and since when we are deceived we don't know it, why not simply repent and confess.?

Here is a prayer that will help get the sin of deception out of your camp and help you to be a victorious Christian soldier.

"Lord Jesus, based on my past I can see when I was deceived and did not know I was deceived. So Lord, it stands to reason I am deceived in the present and do not know it. I repent of being deceived and ask that you forgive me and by Your grace gently reveal to me my deception and grant me the grace and repentance to come to my senses and humbly escape this snare of the devil".

You will find this prayer works in ways you never imagined. Pray believing and you'll be enlightened to deceptions you've never seen before (even your own hypocritical deceptions!).

THERE WILL BE AN AWAKENING

The day is coming when God's people (who are real people) will awaken to the reality that life presently is more like a science fiction movie than they ever realized. Isaiah prophesied of the awakening.

"Awake, awake, Clothe yourself in your strength, O Zion; Clothe yourself in your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city. For the uncircumcised and the unclean Will no more come into you. Shake yourself from the dust, rise up, O captive Jerusalem; Loose yourself from the chains around your neck, O captive daughter of Zion. For thus says the LORD, "You were sold for nothing and you will be redeemed without money."

Isaiah 52:1-3

Note from this prophecy that there would be:

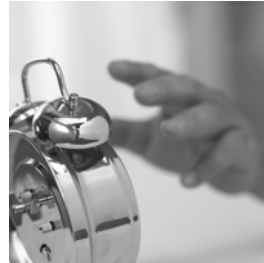

(1) an awakening, (2) clothing, (3) a seeing, and (4) an arising.

As for the seeing, they would see the "uncircumcised and the unclean. Babylon (that Zion is presently held captive by) is full of "unclean and hateful" birds (Revelations 18:2). Another word for unclean is "dirty". To put it bluntly, for this article the day is coming when the dirty birds will be seen for what they are.

Concerning the unclean and uncircumcised, there is a long list of these filthy, dirty-bird, slithering, snake-like creatures who are enemies of true Israel. Psalms 83 depicts a coalition of them conspiring and coming together in unison against God's people and their land.

"A Song, a Psalm of Asaph. O God, do not remain quiet; Do not be silent and, O God, do not be still. For, behold, Thine enemies make an uproar; And those who hate Thee have exalted themselves. They make shrewd plans against Thy people, And conspire together against Thy treasured ones. They have said, "Come, and let us wipe them out as a nation, That the name of Israel be remembered no more." For they have conspired together with one mind; Against Thee do they make a covenant: The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites; Moab, and the Hagrites; Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre; Assyria also has joined with them; They have become a help to the children of Lot. Selah."

Psalms 83:1-8

THERE WILL BE AN AWAKENING

Note in the list two characters. At the head of the list is Edom.

Edom is Esau.

"So Esau lived in the hill country of Seir; Esau is Edom." Genesis 36:8

Edom is Esau, whom God hates.

"Just as it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated." Romans 9:13

Esau is a people called Edom. When God, thru His prophet Malachi, made known His hatred of Esau, we need to remember that the lone man and brother of Jacob named Esau had been dead and gone for centuries. But, his people lived on, and that is who God hates.

"...but I have hated Esau, and I have made his mountains a desolation, and appointed his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness." Though Edom says, "We have been beaten down, but we will return and build up the ruins"; thus says the LORD of hosts, "They may build, but I will tear down; and men will call them the wicked territory, and the people toward whom the LORD is indignant forever."

Malachi 1:3,4

Note also in the list of dirty birds one named Amalek. Amalek was Esau's grandson (Genesis 36:12) and the God of Israel really, really hates him. Today, most of God's people know little about him, for God has done what He prophesied He would do.

"...I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek under heaven."

Exodus 17:14

The man of sin and lawlessness described in 2 Thessalonians 2:1-10 is Esau. This Ministry has revealed this in past sermons and in the treatise The Man of Sin Revealed, but more specifically he is the Amalek line of Esau-Edom.

To understand the kind of preachers that America has today (and wants to have, for the most part!--"The prophets prophesy falsely, And the priests rule on their own authority; And My people love it so!..." Jeremiah 5:31), we need to understand the mind of Amalek.

Listen to the Sunday Church pulpit message from July 19, 2009, "Amalekite Dog Brains" archived at our website. This message will help wake up the people to the kind of preachers America has today.

Choose You This Day!

The Hand That Rocks The Cradle

Love versus Lust

If you ask a young Christian man, woman, or older teen what they would prefer, true love or lust, without a doubt they will tell you they want the real thing- 'True Love'.

But obtaining the real thing takes a much different mind set than is common in the world today, even in the world of Christian singles. There should be an obvious distinction between the world of Christian singles verses the world of non-Christian singles, and it is a shame when there is not.

One of the best ways to create a definite noticeable distinction is for older men and women (parents) to encourage the right behavior among the younger. And, it is God's plan for the older women to play a large part in urging young men and women to be sensible. You can find our instructions to do just that in Titus.

Older women likewise are to be reverent in their behavior, not malicious gossips, nor enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good, that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, to be sensible, pure, workers at home, kind, being subject to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be dishonored. Likewise urge the young men to be sensible; in all things show yourself to be an example of good deeds, with purity in doctrine, dignified, sound in speech which is beyond reproach, in order that the opponent may be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about us.

Titus 2:3-8

It is not the desire of this writer to address only the daughters in this writing. When young men are not trained to recognize the right thing verses the wrong behavior in a young lady, that surely can encourage some 'cheaper' behavior among young women.

But there is a need to consider what women can do to promote a more godly society. Years ago, one older Christian man who was attending a Christian Identity gathering regularly was so disgusted at what he was seeing in the attitudes, apparel, and behavior of the single young ladies that he told his own youth he thought "the girls could teach bar-room whores how to be more pleasing to satan with the games they were playing on the young men and their so-called girlfriends”.

One writing that I learned of in my past was a survey of some young Christian men who were asked what kind of behavior they found unfavorable in a young woman. They all agreed that they were wishing young women would be a lot more careful not to wear such teasing apparel, claiming they found the attitudes of such girls who wore things not covering enough, ‘low’. They were not willing to give such girls the time of day. Surveys like this could truly raise our own standards when these thoughts are revealed and praised, instead of hidden as satan wants them.

One thing I have noticed in my years about young women is they can sometimes fall prey to the fear (satan wants them to have) that they will not be ‘noticed’ if they do not dress as some of the more ‘fashionable, in-tune girls do’. Or if they are not jabbering away, showing what they think is a great amount of personality and humor, that the girls that do will ‘win out’ with the guys. What satan does not want girls to understand is the more flirtatious actions and apparel attracts the kind of men who bring a lot of pain, sorrow, and shame to a woman. Some girls might not care now when they are playing satan’s games, wishing to be noticed by all the men (married or not), but they will when they end up alone and all the sensible men and women are happily married and 100% unsympathetic to their pain, sorrow and shame.

Girls who are tempted to dress immodestly also need to consider that if you do find a guy who likes the way you dress, then he will like the way other immodest women do too. Men who are shallow enough to like immodest women will be void of the true character it takes to love, cherish, and honor you and stick with you. Such a low character could easily be attracted to pornography or other women, leaving you to feel very inadequate. One other thing improper apparel can do is inspire a predator to rape you. As we see in the laws of the Bible a victim of rape is not always considered guiltless as a victim otherwise it would not read “...But you shall do nothing to the girl; there is no sin in the girl worthy of death...” Deuteronomy 22:26. That is if the girl screams out.

When older men and women are quick to recognize and judge Godly attitudes and behavior among youth and PRAISE IT, and just as quick to rebuke flirtatious, ungodly attitudes and behavior, things can change for the better real quick. Teaching our young men and women to be attracted to the right thing will gain them True Lasting Love. Teaching them to be disgusted by cheap attitudes, apparel and behavior will shield them from the wrong things and people.

It is the will of Jesus Christ for our young people (inside and out) to be a shining example. For that shining kingdom future that all the nations come to learn from, we must work and pray.

“...”Come, let us go up to the mountain (America nation) of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; That he may teach us concerning His ways, and that we may walk in His paths.” “For the law will go forth from Zion and the word of the Lord from JerUSAlem.”

Thy servant has found courage to pray this prayer to Thee.

2 Samuel 7:27

WORLD REMEMBERS MICHAEL JACKSON

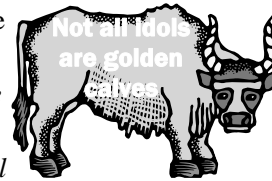

Perhaps nothing of late shows the apostasy, foretold in II Thessalonians 2:3, more than the mourning the world showed for the death of Jungle-Gigolo-Gyrating-Pedophile Jackson. Besides being some weirdo, wannabe-white-man freak, Michael Jackson was an idol, and his admirer's idolaters. Few preachers are telling it like it is but the Word of God Almighty tells us idolaters will be brought to judgment. (I Peter 4:3-5).

What apostasy to see a world mourn more over the death of Jackson than the death of Jesus.

God hates! That's a Bible fact, seldom pointed out in a 'God loves everything and everybody' modern day 'God-Is-Love' theology. On His hate list is idolatry and idols. A hell of a place awaits IDOLATERS.

"But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."

Revelations 21:8

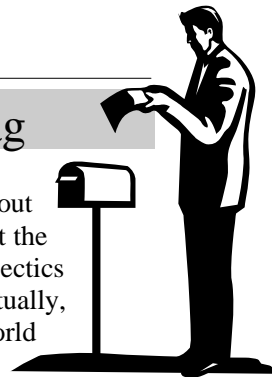

To put in bluntly, and as a matter of fact, you'll burn in hell if you are part of the worldly crowd crying crocodile tears over the death of pop-rock idol Michael Jackson! He was an idol, and now he's gone on to his judgment.

Oh that Christians would have the love for Jesus that the fans had for Jackson. Oh that Christians would be at least touched by the thought and the death of Jesus for their sins, as the idolaters were touched by the death of that sinner Jackson.

That is the purpose of Communion-to remember the death of Jesus; to remember He died for our sins (Luke 22:19). Christians should be remembering weekly. Order our booklet Communion; it's Potential Blessings, Curses and Need. (It can be read at our website, scripturesforamerica.org) Remember, Christians partake of Communion with us every first day of the week from all over the world via the internet and DVD church.

Either way, many men in our movement are still hanging on to U.S. patriotism as if it were the covenant of God, and Ron Paul is their Jesus Christ at the moment.

From the Mailbag

SFA,

I've just been thinking about something for awhile. This whole "audit the Fed" initiative by Ron Paul has dialectics written all over it. We know that eventually, the creeps want to implement one-world everything... well, how are they going to get it done??

They have to make things so bad that they can convince Americans that our system doesn't work. What better way to do that than to audit the Federal Reserve and prove once and for all its a hoax? Then the people get going en masse toward the direction they have for us: IMF or World-bank currency, or perhaps a regional currency as a step in between.

Either way, many men in our movement are still hanging on to U.S. patriotism as if it were the covenant of God, and Ron Paul is their Jesus Christ at the moment. I'm afraid they are going to be sorrowfully let down. The whole "restore the foundations, restore the constitution" -- It's a joke.

I'm even beginning to have doubts about some of the motives of a handful of our founding fathers. Many of them were Masons, Alexander Hamilton was a Jew, and a good number of them were Deistic humanists.

Our only patriotism is to the Kingdom of God on earth. I'm afraid that many of them though aren't seeing this "audit the Fed" hoax in light of what they know about the tactics of the enemy. Don't fall for it. Just a thought. TN

Pastor Peters,

Your reference to the first deception being satan's appearance in the garden as an angel of light brought to mind something I read in a book awhile back that I thought you might find interesting. The following is an excerpt from the book;

"The Hebrew word translated "serpent" or "snake" in Genesis 3 is nachash (pronounced, nakash). More specifically, the word is ha-nachash. The prefixed "ha" is the way Hebrew denotes a definite article (the word for “the”). So ha-nachash may be said to mean “the nachash.”

The word nachash is a very elastic term in Hebrew. It can function as a noun, a verb, or even as an adjective. When nachash functions as a noun it means “snake,” and so the traditional translation is possible—but it yields the contradiction with Ezekiel 28 and Isaiah 14 noted above.³⁸ When nachash serves as a verb it means “to practice divination.”³⁹ That meaning could also be possible in Genesis 3 due to the deception or going on—Lucifer claiming to have the “real” word from God. When a verb receives an article attached to it, the action of the verb is then transformed into a person doing the action. Hence the word ha-nachash would then best be translated “the diviner.”

The third option—the adjectival meaning of nachash—is the solution to the contradiction problem. When nachash serves as an adjective, it’s meaning is “shining bronze” or “polished” (as in “shiny”). By adding the definite article to the word, ha-nachash would then quite easily mean “the shining one.” Angelic or divine beings are elsewhere described in the Bible as “shining” or luminous, at times with this very word, nachash.⁴⁰ We often don’t think about how common this vocabulary of “shining brilliance” is for angels and other divine beings. The Bible abounds with descriptions of such beings as “flashing” or “as lightning,” or uses the brilliance of jewels to describe the blazing appearance of such beings. This has important ramifications for solving the “snake” problem.

What’s so significant about translating ha-nachash as “shining one” and not “snake” in Genesis 3? Very simply, “shining one” is the literal meaning of “Lucifer.” The name “Lucifer” is actually Latin and comes from the Latin Vulgate translation of the Hebrew Old Testament. In Isaiah 14:12, the Hebrew name of primeval conspirator against God is “Helel ben-Shachar”—“Shining One, son of the Dawn.” Translating ha-nachash as “Shining One” removes the contradiction of seeing a snake vs. a supernatural being in Eden since it provides an explicit parallel between the two passages.

We have words like this in English if you think about it. The very same noun / verb / adjective interplay is evident here:

(Noun): “The cleanup is going to take a long time.”

(Verb): “We must clean up this oil spill.”

(Adjective): “The cleanup procedures need to be followed.”

Pretty interesting right? It goes on but you get the idea. God bless you and yours, I look forward to Sundays sermon.
