Report from the Radio Ranch

Richard at the Radio Ranch here, and I just wanted to give everyone a short update on the happenings here. First off, we want to again say thank you to all of those who have called, who have sent (tons of) emails and letters of support and consolation, who have shared their love, care, concern and condolences for Pastor Peters, his family, and for the Ministry Staff here. It is comforting to hear how Pastor touched so many lives, and led so many to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, through his preaching on repentance and baptism. Pastor's family and Staff say thank you and thank God for you!

I have had the pleasure and honor of working for and with Pastor Peters here at the Radio Ranch for the last ten years. (My wife Diann and I had already been on the Tape and Newsletter Ministry for nine years, in FL and SC, previous to moving out here.) During these past ten years, we saw many changes here at the Ministry, because our Pastor was growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, as we should all strive to do.

"... but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen."

2 Peter 3:18

Many of you can recall how the Pastor would call all of us "truth junkies," because we love the truth, and could never get enough of it. Pastor Peters was the same way, and when he got a new truth, or came to a new understanding from the Living Word, he would pass that new truth or new understanding on to the flock that God had given him to shepherd. If Pastor saw that he had preached in error on a matter, he was not above admitting it and correcting it. How many of the 'judeo-Christian' or 'self-proclaimed preachers or pastor's out there do you EVER see do that? To me, this was just one of the many ways that Pastor Peters proved that he was a Truth Seeker and True Preacher of the Word of God.

"If you abide in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine; and you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

John 8:31, 32

Well, our job now is to carry on. To apply the preaching's, the teachings, the admonitions, the directions and TRUTH that our Pastor taught us, both here at the Radio Ranch, and out there among the Dispersion. Know that here at the Radio Ranch, the Staff is doing just that. We here are praying for the mind of Christ daily, and for us all to be of that one mind, and to serve Jesus Christ by continuing to feed the sheep. We ask for your continued prayers and support, and please remember that we here continue to pray for the remnant out there.

In this month's DragonSlayer, we bring some excerpts from Pastor Peters' book, "Rejoice Always." We felt that this was what was needed at this time, for the local congregation as well as the extended family of Jesus Christ on the Ministry. These words still ring true, as true as when they were first preached and then written down. We recommend that you read this article, and apply it daily to your lives, as we are here. The entire book is also available from SFA.

Tune in on Tuesday evenings at 7pm mtn for Ranch Wrangler Kowboy Kyle's new program, Saddle Up! Kyle invites you to Saddle Up as he presents the Gospel of Jesus Christ, straight from the Word of God, letting that truth outshine the perverted Gospel of the judeo-Christian's sloppy-agape, LOVE ONLY falsehoods and lies. Join Kyle for the True Gospel of Jesus Christ, on Tuesday evenings, LIVE from the Radio Ranch.

We had an excellent interview with Mr. Richard Kelly Hoskins that was broadcast on the Scriptures for America World Wide Broadcasting Network on August 11, 2011 (and don't forget that this message is archived at the website, www.scripturesforamerica.org). In this interview, Mr. Hoskins tells of how he met Pastor Peters, and how things were in the 'old days' of this Christian movement. It is a most informative and enjoyable interview, and is available on CD as well. We are also advertising Mr. Hoskins' books, which are a must for any true history buff. See page 14 for details.

Remember that we here at Scriptures for America Ministry continue to pray for the faithful out there. We thank you for your continued prayers and support.

Rejoice Always

The Bible is and always will be THE source of truth, and comfort, for His people the Remnant, who still look to Jesus Christ for their health, safety and welfare. The following is part of what was preached by Pastor Peters in January of 2001, which was a very trying time in his life, and we know that our Pastor found great comfort in these truths. The Scripture verses he used here are verses of promises, and of comfort. We felt it was a good time for all of the congregation to read and apply these words again, that they may continue to be a blessing. The entire book is available from this Ministry, as is the CD Sermon.

I WILL REJOICE AND REJOICE ALWAYS!

(Excerpts from a sermon by
Peter John Peters, delivered at the La Porte
Church of Christ January 7, 2001)

Philippians 1:18

What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and in this I rejoice, yes, and I will rejoice.

Philippians 4:4 Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice!

1 Thessalonians 5:16 Rejoice always

PROPOSTITION: What does it mean and how can we do it?

It is obvious from our selected texts that I intend to talk about rejoicing. I intend not only to talk on rejoicing, but on what it means to rejoice always. It is most important to understand what it means, for the entire message rests upon our understanding of what it means to rejoice always. I think we know what it means to rejoice. It's the always part that often evades our understanding. What does it mean?

Rejoice Always

Before I tell you what it means, I need to tell you what it does not mean. It for certain does not mean that one can never do anything but rejoice; the Scripture certainly tells us there are times to rejoice, times to weep. (Ecclesiastes 3:1-4)

There is an appointed time for everything. And there is a time for every event under heaven--A time to give birth, and a time to die; A time to plant, and a time to uproot what is planted. A time to kill, and a time to heal; A time to tear down, and a time to build up. A time to weep, and a time to laugh; A time to mourn, and a time to dance.

We can clearly see from this passage in Ecclesiastes there are times to weep and mourn.

Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.

Romans 12:15

So, before I go further to tell you what it means to rejoice always, please understand it does not mean that we can never ever weep and grieve.

If that were the case, we would be like that fairy tale princess who could never cry; her father, the king realized that she was not normal and offered a reward for anyone who could make his child cry. We all know the fairy tale story, do we not, wherein a peasant woman received the reward by having the princess peel onions, which caused the sought-after tears to flow? Understand that our heavenly Father, Our King, wishes us; His children, also to weep. But the commandment to rejoice always tells us He does not always wish us to weep, to grieve, to sorrow. So with that said, what does it mean to rejoice always?

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO REJOICE ALWAYS? It means that it can be done! It is most important for us to understand that. That is, if we are going to do just that; rejoice always. Our God never asks us to do that which cannot be done.

But what about the command to rejoice always? Do we believe that it can be done? That this command can be carried out? Yes, sometimes. Yes, oftentimes. But all of the time? Always? Rejoice always?

Rejoice Always

But I'm telling you first and foremost what this "rejoice always" means; it means we can always do it. But you may well say at times, "How can I always rejoice when there are forces loosed against me, pulling down upon me, crushing an already sorrowing and despairing heart?"

Please, if you remember nothing else in this message, remember this: GOD NEVER ASKS US TO DO ANYTHING WE CANNOT DO. Remember that this commandment to rejoice always means it can be done; and, if it means it can be done, it means you and I can do it. The Scripture that says, "I can do all things in Christ Jesus who strengthens me," has not yet been edited out of the Bible. Do not edit it out of your mind, even when your heart and mind scream out that it cannot be done, or at least that it cannot be done right now. Christians, it can be done – now. Rejoice always means now, right now – always! Remember that. It is not the rejoice part that we have a hard time with – it's the "always" part. That's the part that we think is impossible to obey, but our God never expects us to do the impossible.

It means that it is a mental discipline. Discipline involves doing what we don't always feel like doing or doing what we really do not want to do at the time. So it is when we are told to rejoice at all times. It is not that we cannot do it. It is that we do not want to do it. We do not feel like doing it. When we understand that it is a mental discipline; then we will say as Paul said in Philippians 1:19, "I will rejoice." "I will, because my Lord wills it and His will not my will be done."

It means the same thing as "pray without ceasing." Obviously, praying without ceasing does not mean praying every sixty seconds of every sixty minutes of every twenty-four hours of every day of one's life. There are some things you cannot do and pray at the same time. It's not like chewing tobacco and riding a horse at the same time. All the time that I've been preaching this sermon to you, I have not been praying. I cannot preach and pray at the same time. You can hear my preaching and pray at the same time, perhaps; and perhaps some of you are hearing my preaching and praying at the same time. Hopefully, you are not praying, “Dear Lord, don’t let him preach too long!” To “pray without ceasing” means to be of the frame of mind to pray; to always be of a mind to pray; to be mindful to pray. And so it is with the term “rejoice always.” We should always be of the frame of mind to rejoice. To have a mind that rejoices always. It means there is always something to rejoice about. It means that in every circumstance, in every situation, and in every trial and tribulation we can find something to rejoice about. Admittedly, it takes mental discipline to find that something; but rest assured, it is there or the command would not be there.

It reminds me of the story of two old, crusty preachers holding a revival meeting in the depressed coal mine areas of Kentucky back in the ‘30s. At the end of the revival meeting they passed their hats for the offering. When they got their hats back and began to count the take, they found there was not much there; maybe a few pennies and some miscellaneous items like the “Vote for Roosevelt Button,” a few wooden nickels, and a couple pieces of paper with I-Owe-U’s scribbled on them.

After counting the offering the one old preacher said to the other, “Brother, let’s bow our heads and give thanks.”

His partner replied, “Give thanks? Give thanks for what?”

“Let’s give thanks and rejoice that we got our hats back!” the old preacher replied.

Let’s look at some of the situations and times that come in life that require the mental discipline to find that something to rejoice about. THINGS THAT OFTEN SEEM UNREJOICABLE:

Rejoice Always

Rejoice in the experience acquisition department of life called wrong decisions. For experience is often acquired from the pain of past mistakes. So you can rejoice that you learned from that mistake and that you will not need to make it again; you can teach others not to make a similar mistake. (Now whether they listen to you or not is another story.) Don't keep focusing on past mistakes for that is the way you keep making the same mistake over and over. For you see, if you focus on something, quite often that something will come to pass and you do not want your mistakes to keep coming to pass time after time after time. You don't want to keep making the same wrong decisions time and time again. There's an old cowboy saying: "Some folks have twenty years of experience and others have one year of experience twenty times." Just as it's insane to keep repeating mistakes, it's just as insane to continue to ponder over and over and experience sorrow over and over. One man told me this definition of insanity: "Insanity is to keep doing the same thing over and over in life and expecting different results."

The biggest thing to remember concerning past mistakes is that your God is so great and so good that He can cause good to come even from your past mistakes. You can rejoice always in this knowledge.

"And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose. Romans 8:28-29"

When time can get no worse for you: I really don't think such time exists, say, but in our minds. That is not to say sometimes, in our minds, we don't think it could not get worse. But, regardless if it is really true that things could get no worse and you could not get further down, then rejoice. Rejoice in the fact that things can get no worse and that you can go no lower, because then things can only get better for you. Nothing stays the same. Everything changes. So if things could get no worse and you could go no lower than things are going to change for the better and in this you can rejoice.

Rejoice Always

A lost love! Obviously, in this letter this man is suffering from a lost love, (there is only one thing that I know of and have experienced that is worse than that). But, losing someone's love is right up there close to the top of the list of sorrows that can come into one's life. But even in the loss of love one can find something to rejoice about. I think the one who came up with this statement found something; "Better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all." You can always rejoice in the fact the love you lost once loved you. You can rejoice in the fact that there's always hope that he or she may love you again. But, the point is, you can rejoice. Concerning love, I have a book in my office entitled, Love Is a Choice. I've never read the book, so I don't know what it says. But, I've learned a lot just from the title; i.e., that love is a choice. To me it is a profound thought. We can choose to love God for example, or we can choose not to. And so it is with the command to rejoice always. We can choose to do so regardless of the situation or choose not to do so.

Here's another profound thought. Not everyone chooses to love you or me, and the truth is, in reality, none of us are all that lovable to begin with. Think about this – if you find yourself in the situation where someone does not love you, rejoice in the fact that there is someone who does love you. Someone who loves you... the unlovable.

"Who is that, preacher?"

"Well, probably your mother."

"Yeah, but my mother is dead."

"Well then, rejoice in the fact that she once did."

The point is, don't look only at the love you don't have but rejoice in the love you do have. Remember, you cannot say that no one loves you because the Bible says God loves you. The Bible says that you have a friend that sticks closer to you than a brother. The Bible says that God so loved you that He gave His only begotten Son for you. You can always rejoice in that love. That love that you have not lost.

Rejoice Always

If you've lost someone's love, you can rejoice in the fact that you have not lost your love for them.

Practice it! In certain ways, I must say that I deliver this message with a measure of fear and trembling, for I know I must practice what I preach. However, this past week, I have already practiced what I now preach, and I can tell you it works. It is good to obey the Lord. I remember once preaching a sermon on overcoming, and in it I asked the question, "What must one have more of than anything else in order to be an over-comer?" The answer was – something to overcome. When I delivered that message (what now seems so many years ago) I thought I was an over-comer and that I had overcome many things; but, I was to learn I had overcome nothing compared to what I was going to have to overcome in the future.

Paul practiced what he preached.

Some, to be sure, are preaching Christ even from envy and strife, but some also from good will; the latter do it out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel; the former proclaim Christ out of selfish ambition, rather than from pure motives, thinking to cause me distress in my imprisonment. What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and in this I rejoice, yes, and I will rejoice. For I know that this shall turn out for my deliverance through your prayers and the provision of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I shall not be put to shame in anything, but that with all boldness, Christ shall even now, as always, be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.

Philippians 1:15-20

Peter preached it: but inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory also ye may rejoice with exceeding joy. 1 Peter 4:13 ASV

The man that wrote this letter practiced what he heard preached. Think about it. What good does it do to hear preaching if one does not practice what is preached?

Rejoice Always

The loss of a loved one! The one thing worse than the loss of love is the loss of a loved one. But, even in the case of losing a loved one, one can equally say, “better to have lost the loved one than to never have had the loved one at all.”

Yes, you can find something to rejoice about even in the loss of a loved one. You can rejoice that you have other loved ones that you have not lost. I do believe one of the saddest songs I’ve ever heard was sung by Buzz Goertzen, a man who sang at one of our past conferences. It was a song about a grandpa not being able to see his grandson. Yet, in even a situation like that, the grandfather could at least rejoice that he had a grandson that he could not see.

You can look at all the years that you did have with a loved one and rejoice that you had those years, knowing full well that many have never had even that; or, you can look at all the years that you will have without that loved one and experience all the sorrow that comes with that thought. I tell you; you can rejoice always, you can find something to rejoice about in the loss of a loved one.

Here’s another thought concerning the loss of a loved one. When you experience indescribable pain, ache and heart-wrenching grief, you can be thankful that that loved one you grieve for will never have to experience that pain in grieving over you or other loved ones. You can rejoice that they are not experiencing such pain. The point is you, as a Christian, can rejoice and rejoice always.

Christians can rejoice in salvation! This and this alone allows us, as Christians, to rejoice and to rejoice always. Notice the many Scriptures that teach just this:

*that I may declare your praises in the gates of the Daughter of Zion and there rejoice in your salvation. Psalm 9:14 NIV

*But I trust in your unfailing love; my heart rejoices in your salvation. Psalm 13:5 NIV

*Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD and delight in his salvation. Psalm 35:9 NIV

Rejoice Always

"Rejoice, and be glad, for your reward in heaven is great, Matthew 5:12

"Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are recorded in heaven." Luke 10:20

And when they had inflicted many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to guard them securely; and he, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison, and fastened their feet in the stocks. But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God, and the prisoners were listening to them; and suddenly there came a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison house were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's chains were unfastened.

Acts 16:23-26

And so it is, we can always rejoice in our salvation.

This is the day which the LORD has made; Let us rejoice and be glad in it. Psalm 118:24

I WILL REJOICE! Because He told me to. Because it can be done. Because I can do it. Yes, it takes discipline; yes, it is a mindset; yes, at times it takes effort to find something to rejoice about; but when that effort is put forth, it is found.

I will rejoice, always! Will you, fellow Christian? I pray you will. I pray you will make it a resolution in your life for this year and every year of your life in Jesus Christ. I pray you will and that this message will help you do just that – to rejoice always. Again, I say to you, rejoice; rejoice always.

We hope you have enjoyed these excerpts from the booklet by Pastor Peters, Rejoice Always. We would be glad to send you the entire book, or the CD, from the sermon the Pastor preached in January of 2001. In it we do find that in Christ Jesus, we truly can Rejoice Always!

Rejoice Always

A Sermon By Pastor Peter J. Peters

August Prayer

Prayer for the Scriptures for America Gideon~Elite Prayer Warriors

The prayer for the month of August 2011 is a prayer for comfort, for rejoicing, and for the peace that surpasses all understanding to be present daily in the remnant's lives. We hope that this is a comfort to you in our time of loss.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice! Let your forbearing spirit be known to all men. The Lord is near. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, shall guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:4-7

Even as we still grieve the passing of our faithful Pastor into his heavenly rest and reward, we are reminded to stay strong in the Lord (Ephesians 6:10), and we are told, even commanded, not to fear.

....'You are My servant, I have chosen you and not rejected you. Do not fear, for I am with you; Do not anxiously look about you, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, surely I will help you, Surely I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.'

Isaiah 41:9-10

If there was ever a time to be faithful and true, to daily pray on the Full Armor of God and the Lord's Prayer, and to remember to daily pray for the saints, here and all across His land, it is now.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, And renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from Thy presence, And do not take Thy Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of Thy salvation, And sustain me with a willing spirit.

August Prayer

Then I will teach transgressors Thy ways, And sinners will be converted to Thee. Psalm 51:10-13

Our plea and prayer for you, the remnant, and let it be your prayer as well, is that you do not let anything separate you from the love of God. Do not let anything separate you from being ready (when your time comes) for passing into your heavenly rest and reward (John 11:25, 26 and Revelation 14:13), and rejoicing forever more with our beloved Pastor, and with Jesus Christ and all the Saints.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Just as it is written, "For Thy sake we are being put to death all day long; We were considered as sheep to be slaughtered." But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Romans 8:35-39

The Psalms have been a great comfort these last few weeks, and much of the August prayer is taken from these inspiring words.

Our Heavenly Father, we know that in Thee did our Pastor take refuge, and was not ashamed. In Thee did he put his trust. Allow us to follow that example, Oh Lord, and be our Rock and Fortress in whom we trust also, in whom we look to for courage and wisdom, for direction and refuge. Send Your Comforter that was promised, to come and comfort those of us that mourn. Satisfy us as we hunger and thirst for Your righteousness and Your true Liberty.

August Prayer

Right now, allow us to seek Your face, to seek Your Ways, to have Your Laws and guidance upon our hearts, and move us to action to apply these things to our lives and to our country.

Oh Lord, remember not our transgressions, remember not when we have slipped from the path You have put us on, but forgive us, strengthen us and renew Your spirit in us, that we may continue to proclaim Your righteousness and faithfulness to the congregation and to Your remnant.

We know that You have chosen us, Your remnant, to serve You and to proclaim Your greatness and Your mercy and Your salvation. Strengthen us in the power of Your might, and remind us all that You are in control and that You are working a mighty work in Your land and in Your people. Remind us of Your Promise in Psalms 58:11 that "Surely there is a reward for the righteous; Surely there is a God who judges on earth."

To the Glory of Jesus Christ, our Kinsman Redeemer and in His Name, Amen.

Books by Mr. Hoskins

Southern statesman, noted author, historian, lecturer, teacher, and a fine Christian man, Mr. Richard Kelly Hoskins presents a lifetime of research and learning in his books.

Mr. Hoskins published his first book, Our Nordic Race, back in 1958. When you read it, you will be amazed at the truths that are presented in it, and how the prophetic vision that Mr. Hoskins writes of about America has come true, especially in our current situation with China.

His next book, War Cycles, Peace Cycles, came out in 1985. In it Mr. Hoskins points out the true history of usury banking, and how almost every major economic problem in the world is due to this evil, un-Godly and un-Christian practice.

Vigilantes of Christendom came along in 1990. In this book, the story of the Phineas Priesthood is described, right out of the Bible in Numbers 25.

OUR NORDIC RACE

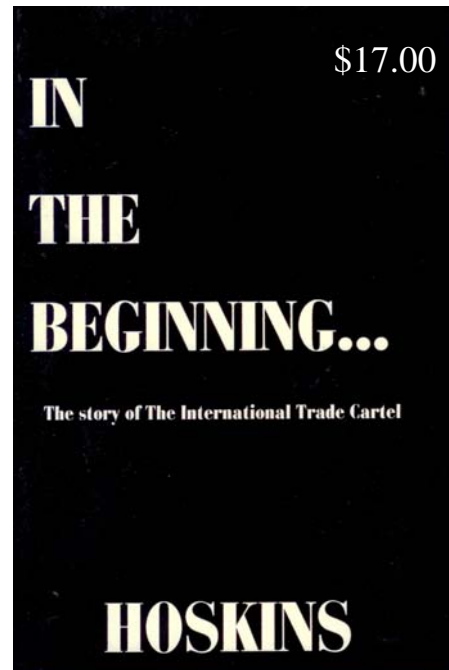

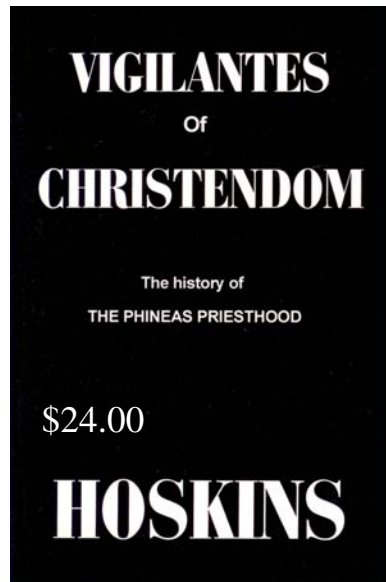

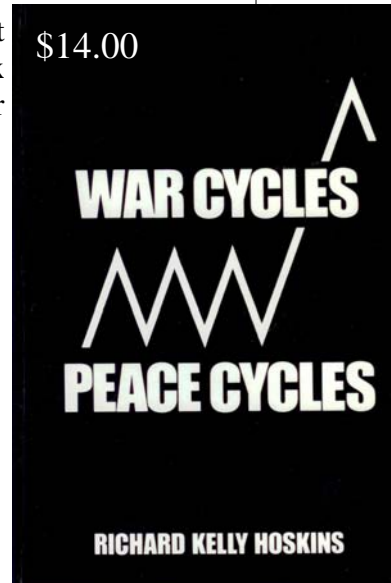

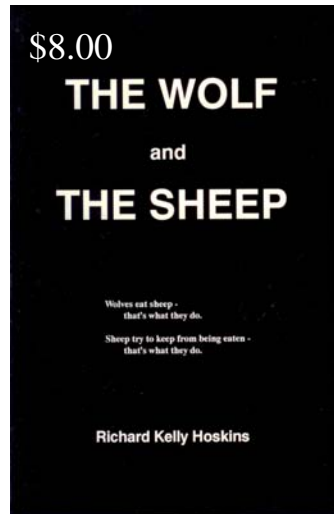

Richard Kelly Hoskins

In 1995, Mr. Hoskins published, The Wolf and the Sheep. This book is a must, and is perfect for sifting through the many peoples in our land that are intermingled today. Although deep in content, it is an easy read, and applies to each and every one of us. From the book... "Wolves eat sheep, it's what they do. Sheep try to keep from being eaten, it's what they do."

In the Beginning—the story of the International Trade Cartel, starts with the desert caravans during the Holy Wars of the Crusaders, continues with how the enemy of our God works his wares, and ends with a chapter on the Promised Land, including the one to come! An excellent history book!

Pray Without Ceasing

In 1 Thessalonians 5:17, the Apostle Paul gives us this instruction, to “...Pray without ceasing...”

This is also told to us by the Apostle Paul in Ephesians.

Ephesians 6:18

We urge the remnant, the faithful, to start their day off with prayer and supplication. Start your day with the Lord's Prayer, found in Matthew 6.

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Then we suggest praying on the Full Armor of God, on you and your family. This is found in Ephesians 6:10-18.

Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of His might. Put on the full armor of God, that you may be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.

Therefore, take up the full armor of God, that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. Stand firm therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; in addition to all, taking up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming missiles of the evil one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. With all prayer and petition pray at all times in the Spirit.

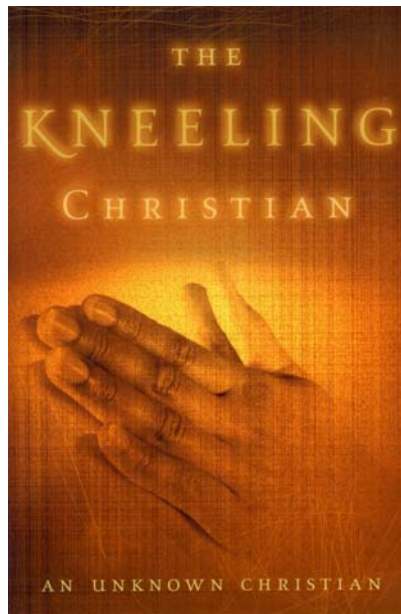

It is extremely urgent in the lives of those that are called, chosen and faithful; to be faithful in their lives with prayer.

Pray Without Ceasing

We also recommend the prayers of Psalms 91, the Rifle and Pistol Prayer, and the Binding prayers that have been sent out by this Ministry. And of course, the monthly prayers that we mail out and are on page 21 in this Newsletter. These can also be found at our website, scripturesforamerica.org.

The book, The Kneeling Christian is an excellent book on every aspect of prayer, and very instructional on prayer and praying. Here are just a few quotes from this wonderful little book. It is available from this Ministry for a donation of $11.00.

- God wants me to pray, to be much in prayer because success in spiritual work is dependent on prayer.
- I am quite certain of this fact: God wants me to pray, wants you to pray. The question is, are we willing to pray?
- There is no doubt whatever that the devil opposes our approach to prayer to God in prayer and does all he can to prevent the prayer of faith. His chief way of hindering us is to try to fill our minds with the thoughts of our needs, so that they shall not be occupied with the thoughts of God, our loving Father, to whom we pray. He (the devil) wants us to think more of the gift than the giver.
- Why are many Christians so often defeated? Because they pray so little..
- We are never so high as when we are on our knees...
- Do we spend ten minutes a day in prayer? Do we consider it important enough for that? Ten minutes a day in prayer...when the Kingdom of Heaven can be had for the asking!
