Greetings to the once lost and now found sheep of the house of Israel.

For several months now, I have been pondering and seeking God's direction on how we can overcome the ever-growing evils of this world when we cannot even follow the teachings of the Bible regarding how we treat our brothers and sisters in Christ!

Hebrews 10:24-25 says, "and let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds, not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more as you see the day drawing near."

That day is drawing near and we must learn to obey this teaching. How do we do that? Here is how! We are to encourage one another, and not look for faults, not rejoicing when a brother or sister stumbles.

We are to follow the teachings of Matthew 18:15 and not gossip behind each other's back. (If we do, without the mouth of two or more witnesses, then we too bear false witness.)

Matthew 18:15-18 tells us; if your brother sins, go and show him his fault in private; if he listens to you, you have won your brother. But if he does not listen to you, take one or two more with you, so that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every fact may be confirmed. And if he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax-gatherer. Truly I say to you, whatever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

If you think about it, this formula that the Heavenly Father has given us works not only for sin, but for all types of disputes.

I have a challenge for you, the faithful remnant. If you have an issue with a brother or sister, confront him or her about it in an understanding way. We must remember Jesus taught us in more than one Scripture that; If a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.

Mark 3:25

And knowing their thoughts Jesus said to them, "Any kingdom divided against itself is laid waste; and any city or house divided against itself will not stand."

Matthew 12:25

And He called them to Himself and began speaking to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. If a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. If Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but he is finished!"

Mark 3:23-26

This is a last warning to those that belong to Jesus Christ! We read in 2 Peter 3:8; But do not let this one fact escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day. The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.

Our God is a jealous God. However, He is a compassionate God to His people, to true Israel. He wants His people to come to true repentance without regret, and for them to obey the Gospel.

So what is true repentance? The answer is found in 2 Corinthians 7:9-10; I now rejoice, not that you were made sorrowful, but that you were made sorrowful to the point of repentance; for you were made sorrowful according to the will of God, so that you might not suffer loss in anything through us. For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation, but the sorrow of the world produces death.

From the Ram Rod @ SFA

Cry out brethren! Pray for God to lead His people to repentance, without regret.

Cause and Effect

What was it that destroyed the nation of the house of Israel? What was it that destroyed the nation of Judah? The answer is CRIME. Another term for crime is SIN. They both mean the same thing, i.e., a transgression of Law. In the Bible, 1 John 3:4 KJV says; "For sin is the transgression of the law." Sexual crimes (or sin) are destroying homes and families, environmental crimes are destroying our farm land and health, thought crimes are destroying our peace of mind and causing social problems, and economic crime is destroying our children's and grandchildren's futures. The nation is being robbed, plundered, raped, and destroyed by CRIMINALS, which is just another word for SINNERS. Not the criminals that run in black gangs, but by the white criminals; the ones described in Isaiah chapter one. The ones who are religious (Isaiah 1:13,14), the ones who pray to God (Isaiah 1:15), the ones who allow the increase in homosexuality (Isaiah 1:10), the ones who support a corrupt judicial system and allow murderers to live (Isaiah 1:21), and the ones who endorse a political system full of corruption and bribes (Isaiah 1:23). Such are the real criminals who destroy the land, but they do not wish to be judged. Rather, they would prefer to name some gang members or corrupt judges and politicians as the criminal element.

Once their land had not been so crime ridden. Isaiah said "How the faithful city has become a harlot, she who was full of justice! Righteousness once lodged in her, but now murderers."

Isaiah 1:21

These people prefer to blame murder and the lack of justice on others, yet, they are the real criminals and the blood is on their hands. Isaiah knew this. "So when you spread out your hands in prayer, I will hide My eyes from you, Yes, even though you multiply prayers, I will not listen. Your hands are covered with blood."

Isaiah 1:15

THERE IS A WAR IN THE STREETS AND A REVOLUTION IN THE LAND!

Today, it is just as Isaiah described. People are at war with

Cause and Effect

God. They are revolting against Him. The sexual revolution that appeared in the sixties was just that, a revolt by criminals against Him and His Laws. "But they have revolted against Me."

Isaiah 1:2

These people today, they blame judges and politicians for abandoning the Constitution when, in reality, they are guilty of abandoning God. Alas, sinful nation, People weighed down with iniquity, Offspring of evildoers, Sons who act corruptly! They have abandoned the LORD, They have despised the Holy One of Israel, They have turned away from Him.

Isaiah 1:4

In other words, they were the criminals. That is, they were the sinners, and the problems in their land were not the problem but rather the result of their crimes which is the same as to say the consequences of their sin. So what is the solution for crime? The answer men are coming up with is MORE LAWS and MORE LEGISLATION. If we have crime on the streets that is destroying the land, then the government reasons LESS FREEDOM IS NEEDED. Wicked governments would have you believe they are against crime, but such governments are not against the type of criminals we've been describing and that Isaiah described. In fact, such wicked governments favor such crime, i.e., sin. Hosea said, "With their wickedness they make the king glad..."

Hosea 7:3

In other words, their sin, i.e., their crime, meets with the King's approval. Look at the record. Did not government and government courts favor the sexual revolution by calling it freedom of speech and expression? Does not government promote and protect homosexuality more and more every day? Does not government endorse and promote usury which is an economic crime, i.e., an economic sin, condemned in the Bible? The answer to all these questions is yes. But why is a wicked king or government made glad by the people's wickedness? The answer is because it transfers power and wealth from the people and causes the people to look to them as a savior and a god or a baal.

Cause and Effect

Look at the events of the day. People are looking to a false baal-god called government to save them. Thus, the government is taxing more and enslaving them more and more as the days go by. Adding hundreds of thousands of more police and disarming the people are just a small part of the process. People looking to the government to save them from their health problems is nothing more than a people looking to their baal-god to save them from their sins. Thus, that god now has a solution for crime, called a HEALTH-CARE BILL knowing full well there is already a HEALTH-CARE BILL on the books, or more accurately in the book called the BIBLE. That bill is called God's Law. The Ten Commandments cannot be posted in the school halls, but a portrait of the anti-Christ Muslim in the White House can. Why doesn't the government allow the Ten Commandments to be posted? Because their wickedness makes the king glad. The king is glad because such wickedness (or sin or crime, which are just different terms for the same thing) transfers wealth, health and power from the people to guess who?

These are just some of the wages of sin, and they collect. In other words, it puts a person in bondage and slavery, which is not so bad from the slave master's point of view.

THE SENTENCING OF CRIMINALS INTO SLAVERY

There is a Law and there is a health care bill called THE LAW OF GOD. There are criminals called sinners, and a just Judge punishes criminals. They think they can break the Law and not get caught, but the Bible has told them they cannot sin and get by. Their Judge sentences them for their sins. Loss of freedom and enslavement is part of the sentencing. This process is seen throughout the Bible.

Then the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals, and they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods from among the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed themselves down to them; thus they provoked the LORD to anger. So they forsook the LORD and served

Cause and Effect

Baal and the Ashtaroth. And the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He gave them into the hands of plunderers who plundered them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies around them, so that they could no longer stand before their enemies.
Judges 2:11-14

Note in this Bible passage that the people were sold into the hands of their enemies because of their sins (or crime). This becomes a beneficial and profitable arrangement for those that they were sold to. In the example from the Book of Judges, that was King Eglon and he received tribute (or taxes) from them (see Judges 3:17- 18). Another Bible example is seen in Jeremiah. "Your wealth and your treasures I will give for booty without cost, even for all your sins..."
Jeremiah 15:13

To give without cost is another way of saying sold for nothing. Isaiah describes a conquered people who were asleep to their conquest in Isaiah 52:1,2 and in verse three it says; For thus says the LORD, "You were sold for nothing and you will be redeemed without money." (We recommend our book, America the Conquered, based on Isaiah 52:1-3. It is available for a donation of $12.00.)

Unlike man's system, His judgment is just. In man's system a criminal is sentenced to prison and the criminal does not have to pay restitution for the crime. God's system of punishment involves restitution or execution, as the Pastor put it more than once. Thus, when He sentences His people, they pay restitution, for they labor as conquered slaves. His sentencing involves selling them into the hands of their enemies or slave masters. They are sold for nothing because they are good for nothing. Thou dost sell Thy people cheaply, And hast not profited by their sale.
Psalm 44:12

Those who have studied the fractional reserve banking system and the Federal Reserve System in our country knows that every man, woman and child is mortgaged to the bankers who got the mortgages for NOTHING. John C. Calhoun said, over a hundred years ago, that we had given the banks the government credit for NOTHING only to borrow it back at interest.

Cause and Effect

Investment advisor Major L. Angus stated in the article Slump Ahead in the Markets: "The modern banking system manufacturers money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight of hand that was ever invented."

Pastor Peters described this economic conquest in his book, Baal Worship, that is well worth reading. Or if you read it once upon a time, it is well worth reading again. I just recently found myself buried in the book as if reading it for the very first time.

Another method of conquest can be economic. It takes place when nations are placed under 'tribute' without the use of visible force or coercion, so that the victims do not realize they have been conquered. 'Tribute' is collected from them in the form of 'legal' debts and taxes, and they believe they are paying it for their own good, and for the good of others, or to protect all from some enemy. Their captors become their 'benefactors' and 'protectors.' Although this is the slowest to impose, it is often quite long-lasting, as the captives do not see any military force arrayed against them, their religion is left more or less intact, they have freedom to speak and to travel, and they participate in 'elections' for their rulers. Without realizing it, they are conquered, and the instruments of their own society are used to transfer their wealth to their captors and make the conquest complete.

In 1900, the average American worker paid few taxes and had little debt. Last year payments on debts and taxes took more than 2/3 of what he earned. Is it possible a form of conquest has been imposed on our people?

Our national debt is now more than $16,000,000,000,000.00. That is 16 trillion dollars! DIT or debt to income is something that should be looked at on an individual basis as well as on a national scale. I got this article out of "Forbes" and I think it gives a good explanation in "The Satirical World of Bob."

Bob was an articulate, charismatic guy with a decent paying job. He did, however, possess a penchant for the good life and was motivated enough to do whatever it took to achieve it. When his first credit card application arrived in the mail – along with the normal circulars and other advertisements – he quickly grabbed a pen, filled it out, and sent it in. Within two weeks, Bob had received his first plastic money machine. Machine I say, because in Bob’s mind, a credit card was like creating money out of thin air. Shortly thereafter, he had acquired 3 additional cards. After an extended shopping spree, Bob was the proud owner of a new state-of-the-art boat complete with all the requisite fishing gear, a few HD-TV’s, computers, various kitchen appliances, and whatever else he desired. Without much effort at all, his cards were soon maxed out. What did Bob do? Why, he got more credit cards, that’s what. In fact, in a few months, Bob had 24 credit cards, each at their limit, putting him exactly $1,200,000 in the red. With an annual income of only $75,000, his debt-to-income ratio was a staggering.....well let’s just say he was having trouble paying the minimum payment. What did Bob do? More credit cards? No! Bob figured he needed more income so he went job hunting. Bob had always been an avid news buff and enjoyed a good political debate from time to time. In fact, this congenial chap always fancied himself as the consummate soft-hearted, social minded sort. To him, the government seemed like a perfect fit for his spending proclivities. After all, he felt the massive federal debt was as necessary as mother’s milk is to a newborn babe. He also fancied the way the government could print new money without anything to back it up anytime it so desired. To him, deficits were just a normal part of life.

Before we return to our story, let’s exit our “Satirical World of Bob,” and focus on a most pressing matter. FACT: The U.S. government is bankrupt! Yes, bankrupt. Skeptical? Ok, I’ll provide some facts and you decide.

The government has an “official” debt of $16.2 trillion and mounting. But wait, there’s more. This doesn’t include the liability from Social Security and Medicare. When you factor these in, the amount according to some, exceeds $120 trillion. With U.S. Federal tax revenue of just over $2.5 trillion, which puts our debt-to-income ratio somewhere around 5,020%. Now let me ask you this. If you, as an individual, entered your local bank and asked for a loan with a similar debt-to-income ratio, what do you think the loan officer would say? Would they give you the loan? Now let's return to Bob.

Cause and Effect

Bob ultimately found employment in Congress where he became one of the biggest spenders on the hill. He was re-elected several times by his constituents as they especially liked how Bob could "bring home the bacon." In fact, Bob became rather wealthy in the process. From his vantage, there was no problem. Besides, as long as the boat remained afloat, everything was fine. However, when the children and grandchildren of his constituents became adults, their tax rate exceeded 75% and lost the desire to work hard since they could only keep about 25 cents of every dollar they earned.

Though today, few understand it, this sentencing process in the history of Israel has happened many times.

"Behold, we are slaves today, And as to the land which Thou didst give to our fathers to eat of its fruit and its bounty, Behold, we are slaves on it. And its abundant produce is for the kings Whom Thou hast set over us because of our sins; They also rule over our bodies And over our cattle as they please, So we are in great distress."

Nehemiah 9:36-37

The solution cannot be found without understanding the problem. The problem cannot be understood without knowing who His Israel people are. In Isaiah's day they had lost sight of that. "An ox knows its owner, And a donkey its master's manger, But Israel does not know, My people do not understand."

Isaiah 1:3

The Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, Celtic and kindred people, who came to, settled and formed a great nation (the new JerUSAlem) are those people, and they have simply repeated the history of their forefathers. People are trying to find solutions using the political process, the educational process, the courts, repealing the Federal Reserve, etc. To find a solution, we must first see what the problem is. The problem is SIN. We, HIS people, violated His Law and He has sentenced us. Going back to Isaiah 52:3, we find that redemption is possible. For thus says the LORD, "You were sold for nothing and you will be redeemed without money."

The word redeemed according to The Gesenius Hebrew and Chaldea Lexicon to the Old Testament, by Baker, means "to buy back; very frequently used of God as redeeming men, and specially Israel, as out of the slavery of Egypt, Exodus 6:6; from the Babylonian captivity (or other dispersions)." The Zondervan Pictorial Encyclopedia of the Bible gives two pages on the words 'Redeemer' and 'Redemption.' The following is taken from that writing. "Redemption is deliverance from the power of an alien dominion and enjoyment of the resulting freedom ... It often involves the idea of restoration to one who possesses a more fundamental right or interest. The heart of the Biblical message of redemption is the deliverance of the people of God from the bondage of sin by the perfect substitutionary sacrifice of Jesus Christ and their consequent restoration to God and His Heavenly Kingdom." The noun form (redeem) appears in the New Testament only in Mark 10:45 and Matthew 20:28 "For the son of man came ... to give His life a ransom for many." Literally, it refers to a means of losing, for instance, the payment of a ransom price. It was used by ancient writers almost universally to refer to a ransom paid for prisoners. Micah chapter four describes a nation that became great (Micah 4:7) and then lost its King and Counselor (Micah 4:9) and went into a Babylonian-type captivity (Micah 4:10). What was the solution? Redemption!

"...go to Babylon. There you will be rescued; There the LORD will redeem you From the hand of your enemies."

Micah 4:10

Isaiah said the redemption would be without money. So what is to be used in place of money? The answer is the shed blood of Jesus Christ.

Cause and Effect

...knowing that you were not redeemed with perishable things like silver or gold from your futile way of life inherited from your forefathers, but with precious blood, as of a lamb unblemished and spotless, the blood of Christ.

1 Peter 1:18-19

Our CRIMES i.e., our SINS sentenced us and His blood is the remedy. ...Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

Revelation 1:5 KJV

Without the redemptive power of the blood of Christ, we are helpless in getting out of our predicament.

For while we were still helpless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will hardly die for a righteous man; though perhaps for the good man someone would dare even to die. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him.

Romans 5:6-9

There's far more to cover on this subject, and we recommend the following study material on this subject: How to Become a Christian, Don't Miss Out, Baal Worship in America, America the Conquered, and the CD series, America the Redeemed.

My thoughts and prayer is that America can realize that their crime, i.e., their sin, is what got us to where we are today as a nation. The need for repentance is great. I can just hear Dad saying the words of 2 Chronicles 7:14: “and My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

We here at SFA will continue to proclaim the truth about what has happened to this land and what we can do to get it back. Please keep us in your prayers. Be part of the group of people “who bring Prophecy to pass.”

The U.S. birth rate dropped to its lowest level since the beginning of the Great Depression, led by a drop among immigrants, according to a report released by the Pew Research Center.

Despite the recent decline, foreign-born moms continue to give birth to a disproportionate share of the country's babies, the report said. In 2010, immigrants represented about 13 percent of the U.S. population while foreign-born mothers accounted for 23 percent of all births.

The majority of births (66 percent) to U.S.-born women were to white mothers. That share has dropped since 1990 when it was 72 percent. The majority of births to foreign-born mothers were to Hispanic moms.

Thank You

A Special Thank You to You the Remnant.

As we bring to a close the Year of Our Lord 2012, we here, at Scriptures for America, stand in awe at how you, the faithful remnant, continue to support the truth. Just the other night, as I was signing thank-you letters, I noticed that it's the same brethren each and every month, like clockwork, sending in their tithes and offerings, as well as new brothers and sisters in Christ coming to the Truth. There were several young men and ladies that I have known for many years, your offspring, that now have sources of income and sent in their first tithes. Oh how proud Dad would be of you mothers and fathers that have taught your children true Biblical economics, that the Lord can do more with 90% than you can with 100%.

The other thing I noticed is how many brethren live in the areas hit by the recent destroying tropical storm, a storm of epic proportion, Hurricane Sandy! Yet, not one has requested any assistance! Not one has reported any significant damage or loss all throughout New York, New Jersey, West Virginia, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Vermont. Could it be God is listening as we, the remnant, cry out for grace and mercy in His wrath? You bet He is!

Thank You

I can tell you another prayer that He is answering and that is the softening our hearts. As I read the letters and emails, that you the faithful remnant send in, my eyes start to swell and tears start to fall. The love you have for our Savior, Jesus Christ, the love you had and still have for our Pastor, Peter John Peters, and the love you have for us, those of us standing in the gap here, it is truly humbling. I know, through it all, if Dad had a chance to do it all over again, he would, without hesitation, choose the same path, regardless of the pain and suffering. He would humbly proclaim to you, the Faithful Remnant, "Well done my good and faithful servants!"

May the Lord Jesus Christ bless you and keep you, make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you, lift up His countenance to you and grant you His peace.

In Christ's service first,

Thoughts on Communion

The following is from an Acres of Diamonds Man in the NW. Acres of Diamonds Men: if you have an article or thoughts that you would like to share with us and the Remnant, send them to us for review. Pastor Peters always enjoyed it when his Acres Men shared their thoughts and writings with him, and so we too encourage you to send in your writings and comments.

When we gather together at the Communion supper table, let us rejoice and be glad in the opportunity to remember our Savior's great love and sacrifice for us, as we come together for our weekly re-birth of newness in life, partaking in the bread of life and the blood of life from the Tree of Life, as we have no life in ourselves apart from Him. He is the Tree of Life and we are His branches. We eat the fruit of His Tree and have the eternal life promised in Him and with Him, by His Holy Spirit that abides in us, as we abide in Him.

Although this is a formal gathering of remembrance and rededication, let us gather together joyfully and with glad hearts. We are alive in Christ and can do all things through Him who strengthens us. Let us practice the enthusiasm and fullness of rejoicing in our eternal life with Him, as we renew our communication with Him together weekly in the Communion supper ceremony.

For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are open and laid bare to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do.

Hebrews 4:12-13

All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

Thoughts on Communion

A joyful heart is good medicine, But a broken spirit dries up the bones.

Proverbs 17:22

Thy words were found and I ate them, And Thy words became for me a joy and the delight of my heart; For I have been called by Thy name, O LORD God of hosts.

Jeremiah 15:16

But He answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.'"

Matthew 4:4

but Christ was faithful as a Son over His house whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the boast of our hope firm until the end.

Hebrews 3:6

Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? If any man destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him, for the temple of God is holy, and that is what you are.

1 Corinthians 3:16-17

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

2 Corinthians 3:17

In these great things, let us rejoice! Let us remember to be enthusiast for His house, His body, and His saints, as we practice the "Smile Sacrifice" in faith, looking at the unseen in store for us in the grace and glory of His kingdom on earth as it is in heaven.

Numbers 6:24-26 blessings to you and your house and the entire SFA Ministry. Thank you very much!

"Sanctify them in the truth; Thy word is truth.

John 17:17

No king but King Jesus!

Enthusiasm is contagious!

Rejoice and rejoice always in our King Jesus.

And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

Isaiah 10:20

From A Wrangler's Wife

Hello ladies and men with an interest in cooking! I came across a recipe that I'd like to share with you. It is a recipe for "Old-Fashioned Pecan Pie." The reason I'd like to share it with you, is that this recipe does NOT contain Karo® corn syrup! The only reason I ever bought Karo® corn syrup was to use in recipes such as in a pecan pie. I know that corn is one of the most highly genetically modified organisms (GMO's) grown in this country and would like to avoid as much of the GMO's as I can. Also, I thought that Karo® corn syrup was the same as high fructose corn syrup. And I have heard a lot of negative things about high fructose corn syrup. However, I have learned (in preparing for this article) that they are not one and the same.

"Corn syrup is a food syrup, which is made from the starch of maize and contains varying amounts of maltose and higher oligosaccharides, depending on the grade. Corn syrup is used in foods to soften texture, add volume, prevent crystallization of sugar, and enhance flavor. Corn syrup is distinct from high-fructose corn syrup (HFCS), which is created when corn syrup undergoes enzymatic processing, producing a sweeter compound that contains higher levels of fructose." (from Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia.)

"MONDAY, Jan. 26 2009 (HealthDay News) -- Almost half of tested samples of commercial high-fructose corn syrup (HFCS) contained mercury, which was also found in nearly a third of 55 popular brand-name food and beverage products where HFCS is the first- or second-highest labeled ingredient, according to two new U.S. studies." (washingtonpost.com > Health > Latest News)

From A Wrangler's Wife

I came across this recipe for “Old-Fashioned Pecan Pie” when I received one of my favorite cookbook magazines in the mail. “Cook’s Illustrated” has numerous cookbooks and I have a few of them. I enjoy reading the recipes from their cookbooks as they go into detail with each recipe, describing how they perfect each one. So, I now subscribe to “Cook’s Country” magazine and found this recipe for pecan pie.

The author writes that, “Long before cloying Karo® syrup was a gleam in the eye of its inventors, 19th-century homemakers were setting ‘transparent pies’ to cool on windowsills. Made with sugar, butter, and eggs and sweetened with less processed types of syrups like molasses, maple, cane, or sorghum syrup, these pies resembled pecan pie without the nuts. Then manufacturers came up with a flavorless, cheap liquid sugar made from highly processed corn- starch.” She then goes on to explain that with a marketing campaign and a recipe from the wife of a Karo® executive (for a transparent pie that added pecans) pie history was made, and Karo® took off. The author then describes the process of tinkering with the recipes of old transparent pies (pre-Karo® era) adding the pecans and coming up with the finished recipe.

So, in conclusion both Karo® corn syrup and high-fructose corn syrup are both highly processed syrups made from (most likely) GMO corn. The high-fructose corn syrup has the possibility of also containing mercury. I hope that this alternative recipe will be a blessing to you and your family for years to come!

OLD-FASHIONED PECAN PIE

Serves 8 to 10

Regular or mild molasses tastes best in this pie.

Use your favorite pie dough or go to CooksCountry.com for our Single Crust Pie Dough recipe

From A Wrangler's Wife

- 1 cup maple syrup
- 1 cup packed light brown sugar
- ½ cup heavy cream
- 1 tablespoon molasses
- 4 tablespoons unsalted butter, cut into ½-inch pieces
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 6 large egg yolks, lightly beaten
- 1 ½ cups pecans, toasted and chopped
- 1 (9-inch) unbaked pie shell
(see note), chilled in pie plate for 30 minutes

1. MAKE FILLING Adjust oven rack to lowest position and heat oven to 450 degrees. Heat syrup, sugar, cream, and molasses in saucepan over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until sugar dissolves, about 3 minutes. Remove from heat and let cool 5 minutes. Whisk butter and salt into syrup mixture until combined. Whisk in egg yolks until incorporated.

2. BAKE PIE Scatter pecans in pie shell. Carefully pour filling over. Place pie in hot oven and immediately reduce oven temperature to 325 degrees. Bake until filling is set and center jiggles slightly when pie is gently shaken, 45 to 60 minutes. Cool pie on rack for 1 hour, then refrigerate until set, about 3 hours and up to 1 day. Bring to room temperature before serving. Enjoy!

[note: use a cookie sheet or something to catch filling that may bubble over – learned that the hard way! ;)]

December Prayer

Prayer for the Scriptures for America Gideon-Elite Prayer Warriors

December 2012

As this 2012 calendar year draws to a close, do not lose hope Remnant! God is still on the throne, and Jesus Christ is still the King of kings and the Lord of lords! As we see and experience the 'birth pangs' all around us, let us not lose faith, but let us draw closer to God and claim the promises and protections that are ours.

The Psalms and the Book of Joel both tell us that the LORD has done wonderful things for us, and He still does. Joel 2:21 tells us; Do not fear, O land, rejoice and be glad, For the LORD has done great things. And, in the Psalms we see; Psalm 126:3 The LORD has done great things for us; We are glad.

Do not be discouraged by the recent election, and do not lose heart as the ungodly and unrighteous seem to prosper and gain. God is not mocked, and as a man sows, so shall he reap. The time of reaping, that time of harvest, draws nearer every day.

We are following the instructions given in Joel 2:15-16. As His Remnant, we have called for a Solemn Assembly, for a time of fasting and prayer. We will gather, with contrite hearts, in humility, and we will cry out to You, oh LORD, for national and personal repentance, and for deliverance from all the enemies that surround us. We ask you, the Remnant, to join us on December 29 for a day of fasting and prayer.

This December Prayer is taken from Psalm 31, a Psalm of praise for God's mercy, lovingkindness and deliverance.

December Prayer

Preparatory Prayer

Before we go into battle, we do pray on the full armor of God that You have provided. We are strong in You, and it is Your strength that delivers us from the hand of those that hate us. Remember Your people, oh LORD, remember mercy in Your wrath. We grieve and sigh and are pained as we see the death, destruction and sin all around us. We have been handed over to the enemy, because of our sin and because we have turned from You and Your Way. We know that it is because of this that those called by Your name today are slandered and falsely accused, and we have become a reproach in the land You gave us.

But we remember that You are our Rock, our stronghold, our fortress. It is You who have paid the price to rescue us from all who hate us. We put our trust in You, and we call on You for protection and deliverance.

Imprecatory Prayer

Let Your people not be put to shame, O LORD, when they call upon Thee; Let the wicked be put to shame, let them be silent in Sheol. Your enemies are many, and they come against Your people from everywhere. We are persecuted and put to death all day long. We know that You, LORD use the ungodly as a rod of punishment against Your people, but they have gone beyond Your purpose, and they intend to wipe out the name of Your people forever. Let their lying lips be dumb, which speak arrogantly with pride and contempt against the righteous.

You see our affliction, and are aware of the enemies' plans. Intercede for us, oh King of kings! Cause those that worship the false idols to see what an abomination it is to You, and have them repent if they can. As the time of harvest is upon us, send your reaping angels to gather, bundle and burn those that mock You, those that have laid their secret plans to destroy Your people. Forget us not, oh LORD! Show Your mighty works once again, and deliver Your people who are called by Your Name, the name You gave Your Son Jesus.

In Jesus' mighty name, Amen.
