Volume 2, 2013

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.

Ephesians 6:12

The collage features six book covers by Peter J. Peters. The top row includes 'BAAL WORSHIP' with a pyramid and 'AMERICA THE CONQUERED' with a red fist holding a map. The middle row features 'The GREATEST DISCOVERY OF OUR AGE' with a ship and 'WHORES GALORE' with various icons. The bottom row shows 'The Unseen War' with a cityscape and 'TARE-ABLE STORIES' with a field of crops.

The war has been raging for many years. Are you even aware of it?

Greetings

to the once lost but now found sheep of the House of Israel. Last month we wrote about who and what the remnant are, and this month I would like to continue that thought. Let's look at Revelation 7:2-3.

And I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God; and he cried out with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have sealed the bond-servants of our God on their foreheads."

We know that this seal is the Seal of the Holy Spirit we receive when we repent and are born again through proper baptism. Here are just a few Scriptures that substantiate this;

In Him, you also, after listening to the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation--having also believed, you were sealed in Him with the Holy Spirit of promise, who is given as a pledge of our inheritance, with a view to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of His glory.

Ephesians 1:13-14

And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

Ephesians 4:30

Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and anointed us is God, who also sealed us and gave us the Spirit in our hearts as a pledge.

2 Corinthians 1:21-22

"Do not work for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man shall give to you, for on Him the Father, even God, has set His seal." John 6:27

From the Ram Rod @ SFA

This seal upon the 144,000 will be specifically for one group of people (the Remnant). As we enter these perilous times, it will be for safety and protection during the tribulation. Notice their seal will be on their foreheads; so it could be a visible seal much like the blood of the lamb on the door posts and lintels at the time of the Passover. The angels who are about to bring judgment and wrath will spare those that carry this special seal.

You must first be baptized (born again) in order to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:38) and at the same time receive God's seal; there is no other way. Revelation 14 tells of the Lamb and the 144,000 on Mount Zion.

And I looked, and behold, the Lamb was standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His name and the name of His Father written on their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder, and the voice which I heard was like the sound of harpists playing on their harps. And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one could learn the song except the one hundred and forty-four thousand who had been purchased from the earth. These are the ones who have not been defiled with women, for they have kept themselves chaste. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These have been purchased from among men as first fruits to God and to the Lamb. And no lie was found in their mouth; they are blameless.

Revelation 14:1-5

Verse 4 has been confusing for some time; (these are the ones who have not been defiled with women). We know that nowhere in Scripture is it taught to be celibate. (This is a teaching of the synagogue of satan). In fact quite to the contrary in Hebrews 13:4 we read;

Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled; for fornicators and adulterers God will judge.

Even the Apostle Paul, when encouraging consecrated young men to abide, "as I am," was doing so not for moral reasons, but that they might give themselves more completely to serving the Lord and not be encumbered with concerns for the desires and tastes of a wife. Read 1 Corinthians 7:25-38 for more on marriage.

From the Ram Rod @ SFA

We see, throughout the Bible, Scripture advocating that Christians be holy and virtuous, undefiled by the world, chaste. Therefore, this elite group of 144,000, who qualify to stand before the throne of God in heaven, are those who have kept themselves undefiled. That is, they have kept their marriage vows or have never known a woman outside of marriage.

Therefore, brethren, strive to be in that remnant.

And one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are clothed in the white robes, who are they, and from where have they come?" And I said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Revelation 7:13-14

I leave you with one final Scripture.

What then? That which Israel is seeking for, it has not obtained, but those who were chosen obtained it, and the rest were hardened; just as it is written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, Eyes to see not and ears to hear not, Down to this very day."

Romans 11:7-8

May the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob bless those of you that are His, bless you and keep you, make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you, lift up His countenance to you and grant you peace.

THE UNSEEN WAR

To the Remnant! Here is an excerpt from Pastor Peters' twenty-years in the making (and newly-published) book, THE UNSEEN WAR. This book reads like a novel, and there was a reason that it was just recently published, for the time is NOW. The truths put forth in this book, THE UNSEEN WAR, are urgently needed in today's world. We truly are at WAR, and many are starting to wake up to that fact. The book is available from Scriptures for America Ministry. See order form for details.

Chapter 1

“WAR! WAR!” YOU’D BETTER BELIEVE IT!

Fight the good fight. (I Timothy 6:12 NASB)*

Most so-called “Christian soldiers” today are not fighting, sad to say, for the simple reason that they do not really believe that there is an actual war going on.

For the United States, the Second World War began on that infamous day of December 7, 1941, at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. I knew a man that was there, he was my high school English teacher, Mr. Hill. We used to love to get him to tell us about when he had been a sailor in World War II. Sometimes, we could get him to spend an entire class talking about those days. He would even forget to give us an assignment; and he thought that we were interested in the war!

Truthfully, a lot of things he had to say were very interesting. Looking back, I wish that I had some of those accounts on tape. Those great old soldiers won't be around forever to tell them to us.

I do remember him telling us about the day it all started, though. He was on ‘K.P.’ duty that Sunday morning. He was coming up from below the deck with a big coffee urn, he recounted, and he looked over and saw these airplanes swooping down and dropping bombs. I remember him telling us about how hard it was to believe that there was a war going on, all of a sudden. It is very important that our Christian people today wake up to the fact that there is a war every bit as real and perilous as World War II being waged against them. Without this knowledge of a fact so basic they can have no possibility of winning; how can they fight if they are unaware of the war?

*Unless otherwise noted, Bible citations are from the New American Standard Bible (NASB).

THE UNSEEN WAR

Many of our modern American “patriots,” for example, need to wake up to the brutally simple fact that we are not going to have a war in some uncertain future; it is already underway, and has been for quite some time. All of those supposed “Christian soldiers” who warm the pews in their “Judeo-Christian” churches likewise have no grasp of this most basic fact.

In Isaiah 52:1-2, we read of a people who had fallen asleep, who were unconscious of the reality of their conquest. In fact, our series of recorded messages, as well as our book called “America the Conquered”, analyzed this subject at some length. We presented a lot of evidence to prove that America is not facing possible conquest; the conquest has actually already occurred. (In earlier books and tape series, notably “Baal Worship in America” and “Whores Galore”, we examined how all of this came about in the first place. These messages and books are available from SFA.)

In another series of taped messages entitled “They and Us,” we showed that, despite being unaware of having been taken over, we still seem to have some kind of almost intuitive knowledge that something is seriously amiss. I’ve personally heard farmers say, for example, things like, “You know, they ain’t gonna be happy until they get every small farmer broke.” Haven’t we all heard people say, “They are gonna raise taxes again you just wait and see?” I heard someone just the other day say, “You know what they’ve done? They let the grain reserves be depleted to almost empty.” Even ordinary homeschoolers are beginning to mutter about “they.” “You know why they want this ‘outcome-based’ education?” some are asking. “Because they know that it doesn’t work,” comes the reply, “and they know that uneducated people make better slaves.”

THE UNSEEN WAR

Listen to the conversations across this country in the truck stops, the cafes, the hardware stores, the sporting goods stores, and the lumber yards. It's just under the surface, but it's there; we know that "they" are out there. And "they" are against us. Yet we continue to overlook the most obvious facts. Consider this one, if there is a "they" (and we all know that there is) then it follows that there is an "us," does it not? (These are not really difficult ideas, after all.)

Another problem that besets us is that "we" simply do not understand how "they" do what they do. It is my desire, my prayer, my goal, my hope, to help you to understand this better. A good example of this elementary idea is the media-generated stir in 1996 about a seeming spate of fires at black churches. Whatever else might be said on that subject (like the fact that far more white churches burned than black ones), it was apparent to the members of those congregations that somebody out there did not like them.

The destruction of millions of dwellings and the resulting homelessness; families shattered, many beyond repair, with fathers missing, mothers missing, children separated, some in the East, some in the West; very grave economic problems (especially in Germany) with massive factories and even entire city districts mercilessly bombed into dust; loss of control of borders by the defeated nations, invading aliens swarming across them at will, with the conquered people helpless to do anything about it; loss of freedom to travel, of the right to own firearms; the levy of crushing tribute (called 'taxation' in order to make it more palatable); ravishing of the women, especially in Germany. These were some of the consequences of the real war that had really been fought in Europe between 1939 and 1945. To crown their humiliation, the emblems of the former glory of the vanquished were pulled down, desecrated, and destroyed. I have in my files a photograph of General Patton given to me by a man that knew him. Patton had made a promise that, when he reached the Rhine River he meant to urinate in it. And sure enough there he is, his back to us, keeping his promise. Why? He was desecrating one of the cherished emblems of defeated Germany, the fabled Rhine. Arid who has not seen the film footage of the demolition of the famous swastika atop the Brandenburg Gate, the very center of German political power now brought to its knees?

1 - Few Americans realize that Germany is still paying tribute to this very day to the lawless “Israeli” state, in that, with no end in sight.

2 - As these words are written, there has still been no satisfactory solution offered to these arsons. One theory I heard is that Hillary Clinton hid some “Whitewater” papers in a black church, and forgot which one it was.

3 - History simply glosses over the barbarities we inflicted upon prostrate Germany at war’s end. In a book entitled “The Other Losses”, the truth about the Eisenhower- approved gang rapes of German women by American GIs, especially black ones, is documented.

Now, imagine that someone had been “asleep”, some German Rip Van Winkle, or had been in a coma, or had been overseas in total isolation of some kind; and had left in early 1939. Somehow he awakes, or returns, six or seven years later, and goes around the country surveying the amazing scene: former prosperity, confidence, and health all lost. In their stead, economic collapse, jobs gone, rampant homelessness. He would shake his head in disbelief, wondering “What has happened here?” The answer he would hear would be, “There’s been a war, sir. Germany lost.” All the evidence of that would be before his eyes; all he would need to hear would be the explanation.

What if we look around ourselves here in America today, at the turn of the 21st Century, and mentally compare it with this nation just one or two short generations ago? What do we see? Homelessness: we have lost our homes. Most people do not know it today (because “they” want you to forget it), but there was a time in America when people actually used to own their homes and by own I do not mean have a thirty-year-long bondage called a “mortgage” yoked over their shoulders. There was no thought of rent either they owned their homes outright, their farms, their shops, and their ranches. How many Americans today enjoy that condition? Every year fewer, as the WWII generation slowly bids farewell, and the “baby boomers” step forward in their place. It is a simple fact: if we no longer own our homes and properties, then we have lost them. Someone else owns them now.

Economic collapse: exactly as Germany’s industries were bombed into oblivion and wiped out, so our own are being taken from us just as certainly as if they were being literally demolished (as some huge, old factories actually have been, of course). Thanks especially to treaties like NAFTA and GATT,(1),, this process has been accelerated. As a result, some of the very best jobs, the real economic backbone, of this country have been taken away before our very eyes.

1 - NAFTA – North American Free Trade Agreement. A 1994 agreement reached by the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

2 -GATT - General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade. Treaty organization affiliated with the United Nations whose purpose was to facilitate international trade.

And talk about broken families! Look at our families today: single-parent households everywhere, defenseless little “latchkey children” growing up in pitiful, broken homes, fatherless or motherless, and sometimes both.

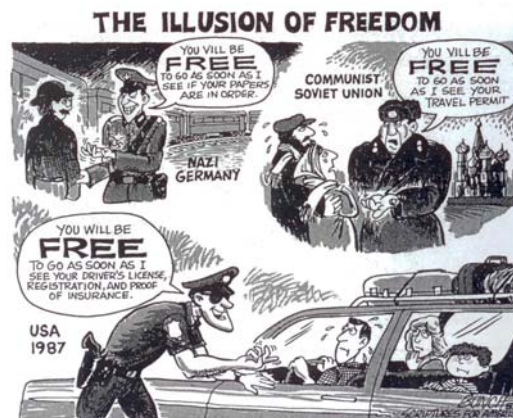

Consider our borders: have we not lost control there, too? Though not a preacher in ten thousand will say anything about it, it is hardly a secret that aliens come and go across our crumbling borders practically at will. Label me whatever it is that “they” have programmed you to, but it does not change the facts, does it? Calling me a “racist” or a “cult leader” or a “hate monger” only diverts your attention to me, and away from the real problems. (All manner of tricksters and hucksters have known for a long time that it is unimportant which direction they divert people’s attention, so long as it is anywhere away from where the trick is being played.) “They” don’t call it television “programming” for nothing, you see.

Our firearms? Those are being taken from us a little at a time, using the “installment-plan” approach. Even our freedom to travel is being lost. Try going to an airport today without your “travel permits” and your “travel papers” being in order, comrades. Shouldn’t we be angry about being forced to show a driver’s license to board an airplane?

I printed a cartoon a few years ago called “The Illusion of Freedom.” In one scene we showed a Gestapo officer saying, “You’ll be free to go as soon as we see that your travel papers are in order.” The next frame showed a Communist KGB agent declaring, “You’ll be free to travel on after we see your travel permit.” Then we come to America, with some guy in a station wagon, children hanging out the windows, an officer is standing there looking in, saying, “You’ll be free to go as soon as I see your driver’s license, your registration, your proof of insurance - and make sure your seat belt is buckled.”

Or consider the debt we are shackled with today. There is no real hope that it will ever be paid, and we all know it. What is that, if not a literal “life sentence” - and one that does not end with the death of the condemned, but that gets passed on to his hapless descendants?

Meanwhile, these grinning idiots called “Judeo-Christian preachers” have been relentlessly gushing about how, if we will just bless that bunch over there in Tel Aviv, that God will shower us with blessings in return. I try to shock some of them, and their glazed-eyed congregations, with a little simple truth, from time to time. It seems like thinking has become painful for these people; they just want to “feel.”

I ask them, do we have more divorce, or less divorce, since 1948? Are we less indebted, or more indebted? (According to the Bible, debt is a curse; being free from debt is a blessing. See Deuteronomy, Chapter 28.)

They aren't all idiots and dupes, of course: some of them actually know full well what they're doing.

The purity of our young people, of our virgins, our children, have we not seen them despoiled of it, in countless ways? Every year at our Family Bible Camps I stress to the young people the irreplaceable value of their virginity, and of their grave duty to preserve it unsullied to present to the person to whom they mean to vow their life.

Or consider the emblems of our former glory, oh, how we have fallen! Do we not see on every hand the most bitter reminders of our defeat? In Phoenix recently, for example, in a highly publicized case that the alien-controlled media loved to shove down our throats, we watched silently as a publicly-supported, tax-exempt museum featured a display of so-called “art” whose centerpiece was an American flag being shamed and desecrated in every filthy way imaginable.

There were old men walking in with canes wearing their V.F.W. caps and insignia. They stood looking at the flag that the comrades of their youth died for, tears flowing down many a weathered old cheek. At their feet, that beloved ensign whose stars and stripes had marched before them to victory now lay stained and defiled in a toilet. And I ask, is there a penny's worth of difference between that obscene desecration, and Patton urinating in the Rhine?

Imagine that some weary old P.O.W. that we had callously left behind in Korea in the early 1950s, or Viet Nam in the early 1970s, were to somehow miraculously show up suddenly on the streets of America. He would look around slowly, his eyes widening with disbelief and wonder, ‘What has happened to my country?’ And I would gravely inform him, just as I am telling you in these pages, that, “There’s been a war, sir. America lost.”

No, America, you did not see the skies blackened with bombers raining down death on your fair land; no, you did not cover your ears at their thundering explosions. It was an “unseen war”, yet one with results every bit as real as those which befell the losers in the Second World War. Oh yes, you may look at me with disbelief you may hear the media vilify me, ridicule me, bitterly denounce me. But if something looks like defeat, and smells like defeat, and tastes like defeat, then it is probably defeat. And we have all around us today evidence of exactly that; and yet, because the war we lost unawares was an unseen one, we stand by stupidly gawking at the win, utterly ignorant of our real condition.

It reminds me sometimes of one of those old grainy black-and-white “horror flicks of the 1950’s (amazingly innocent by the standards of brazen Hollywood today). And there are aliens creeping in here, or snatching bodies over there; and everyone knows that “they” are everywhere, pressing in for the kill. And the hero sees what is going on, and he goes running all around trying to convince people that there is a deadly war being waged, but “they” try to make him look crazy, like some “nut case.” And today “they” snicker, “Oh, that guy in the pulpit over there? He’s just the ‘lunatic fringe’; he’s talking about some supposed war that you can’t even see!”

And yet how effective those liars are, whispering as they do into the eager ears of a People whose hearts have become so hardened, whose morals have become so depraved, that we respond to warnings about our peril by cynically smirking, “I’ll believe it when I see it!” Blinded by our own twisted ways, we can no longer even see the mangled wreckage of our once great Nation lying all around. Instead, we smugly reply that, if we cannot see it, then it must not exist.

What tragic folly! Can you see debt, reader? Yet does it not chain us as cruelly as any bond forged of iron? Can you see the collapse of our quality of life, as unchecked aliens swarm in on every side, darkening our neighborhoods, feeding hungrily on our waning prosperity, corrupting our way of life? Yet are these things any less real than bombed-out factories and smoldering cities? And our very flag, which once waved proudly around the world as the very standard of freedom and of hope, today lies soiled and tattered, publicly reviled here in our own land, paid for by our own taxes. Yet we see no evidence of crushing defeat!

I remember reading, back in my college days, about a man who likewise claimed to be able to see an “unseen war” of another kind. He tried to persuade his colleagues, or even anybody who would listen, about the terrible peril surrounding them on every side. But they laughed at him, ridiculed him, and waved him away condescendingly. And what was the result? Untold thousands - maybe millions - of people agonized and died, all needlessly. But they refused to heed his passionate warnings.

The man’s name was Dr. Ignaz Philipp Semelweis. It was he who discovered and demonstrated the existence of the unseen world of microbes, bacteria, and viral disease. The warfare had been going on literally right under the very noses of the trained doctors and their afflicted patients, and yet no one had been able to see it. When warned about it, they refused to believe. And countless epidemics swept through sick wards, hospitals, crowded cities, and entire nations. People perished needlessly, avoidably - had they only listened, believed, and fought back.

He had watched his fellow doctors handling corpses of victims of infectious diseases, who would then turn around and handle the living. He saw the latter soon become infected themselves, and then die. He knew that there was an unseen cause of this, and finally succeeded in persuading a few of them to wash their hands in between patients. Other of their colleagues took offense, challenging the practice. Semelweis patiently labored to explain that there were things called “germs,” that our hands might be teeming with them, especially after handling infected persons or tissue. They can cause us great harm, he pleaded with them to understand; they are our enemies.

THE UNSEEN WAR

But most of his fellows, well-educated as they thought themselves, reacted exactly as we do today when first hearing of such things: they must not exist, or else we could see them. Semelwgiss was mocked and ridiculed as a consequence. His reputation was attacked, his very livelihood jeopardized. To the world, he was portrayed as simply “crazy.” But you know, I believe that the cruelest of his sufferings were within; the anguish he must have endured, knowing that cherished patients, helpless victims of infection were dying needlessly; all because their doctors stubbornly refused to simply wash their hands!

Oh but reader, his was an “unorthodox” medical position, you see. Had not the finest, most respected authorities of his time proven beyond doubt that the cause of human disease laid altogether elsewhere? You see, what I am laying out in these pages is likewise an “unorthodox” political position. If any politician dared to assert it, he would instantly be set upon by a howling wolf pack of media liars’ hell bent on tearing and rending his reputation to shreds, trying to ruin him beyond hope of redemption.

It is also an unorthodox position socially and culturally though, even in so-called “conservative” circles. We eagerly flock in to follow traitorous “leaders” who are so brilliant that some of them can strut across the radio airwaves with half their brain “tied behind their back,” who smoothly assure us that men who carefully present harsh truths are just “conspiracy nuts.” We happily grant such liars license to practice their craft; to pretend that to slander someone is to disprove him; that to simply label a man as some kind of “nut” is to defeat his arguments.

I have been mocked, denounced, and defamed. Time and again people have maligned my Ministry and sought to undermine and destroy it. They try to paint me in every possible unfavorable light, calling me things like “so-called pastor,” “dumb cowboy- preacher,” “lunatic fringe,” and so forth. The colleges and schools I attended and graduated from; my professional career before entering the ministry full-time; the local congregation

I have faithfully pastored for nearly twenty years: all of these things are simply swept aside, kept carefully out of public view. But make no mistake, in no way do I mean to stand on those kinds of credentials. The truth and the truth alone is my standard, no matter the cost.

In the exact same way that it is unorthodox as well: politics and religion can no more be separated than the twin lobes of our brains. Remember how the wolf in the old fairytale kept most of himself hidden too, so as not to frighten away his intended victim?

I remember what an old cowboy reminded me of one time; he drawled, “You know, it takes a powerful lot of common sense to overcome the handicap of a ‘good education’!” That kind of common sense seems to be in pretty short supply today; we seem only too eager to ignore the catastrophe lying all around us, and to instead happily lap up the empty lies spewed out by our conquerors and their stooges.

We lack not only the common sense of our sturdy fore bearers, but more importantly, we are sadly lacking in the fervent light of faith which was the sure beacon by which they walked. Those of us who still even pretend to claim to be Christians ,or even something as bastardized and mongrelized as “Judeo-Christians,” might at least acknowledge that the very word of God itself the Holy Bible, explicitly warns us, in many clear passages, of exactly the kind of defeat and plunder which America is enduring today.

So pathetic is our condition that I have no doubt that if I went to most so-called “churches” and proposed that we all get behind a movement to declare the Bible the Word of God and the Law of the land, that almost all of them would oppose the idea! Yet even our deplorable Congress has already admitted the wisdom of such an idea, and actually passed a Joint Resolution to that effect under President Reagan?

Is there such a thing as the “unseen?” The answer of the Bible could not be any clearer.

In the letter to the Apostle Paul sent to the young church at Corinth, he notes, “While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal”

(2 Corinthians 4:18 NASB).

So if we still acknowledge Scripture, there is no doubt: there is such a thing as the “unseen.” The orthodox doctors of Semelwgiss day would not wash their hands because they would not see; they would not look, as this Bible verse tells us to look at things which are unseen. To see the unseen, as indeed the seen, we have got to at least look. This is not a difficult concept to grasp.

Around 1990 I remember a movie that came out; it was called, interestingly enough, “They Live.” Now it is no secret they boast about it themselves openly in “bestseller” books, that it is “they,” the alien among us, who control the movie business in America. (That is why it is so filthy, dirty, and depraved, of course.) “They” are the sewer rats you allow to vomit into your living room through your television sets, foully staining the pure minds and simple hearts of your family. And it is strangely true that “they” have within themselves an irresistible urge to blurt out their own decadent doings to the whole world.

One of the problems, for example, with any “perfect crime” is that you cannot share your success with anyone, lest you be betrayed. Let me tell you a little story that illustrates this point. Most of my own adolescent years I spent in a residential high school. It was not a “reform school,” let it be known (though the truth is, a lot of fellows there were just a step away from one). And one memorable day, I actually did pull off the “perfect crime” myself.

(Excerpt from Chapter One of THE UNSEEN WAR.)

Well reader, what do you think? Are you starting to see the results of THE UNSEEN WAR that we are in, that Pastor Peters so plainly identifies in this new book? We hope so. Order the book, THE UNSEEN WAR. Order several, and pass them out to your friends and loved ones. It may open their eyes to what is all around us, to the fact that we are indeed in THE UNSEEN WAR! See the order form in the middle of this newsletter for ordering details.

COMMUNISM

This letter and poster was sent in to this Ministry by a dear Christian sister whose family has fought the good fight of faith for many years.

A BIT OF TRUE HISTORY

The enclosed was posted on a tree in our front yard when we lived in _____ in the 1950's. It is cardboard, 22 by 28 inches. Following is why it was put there.

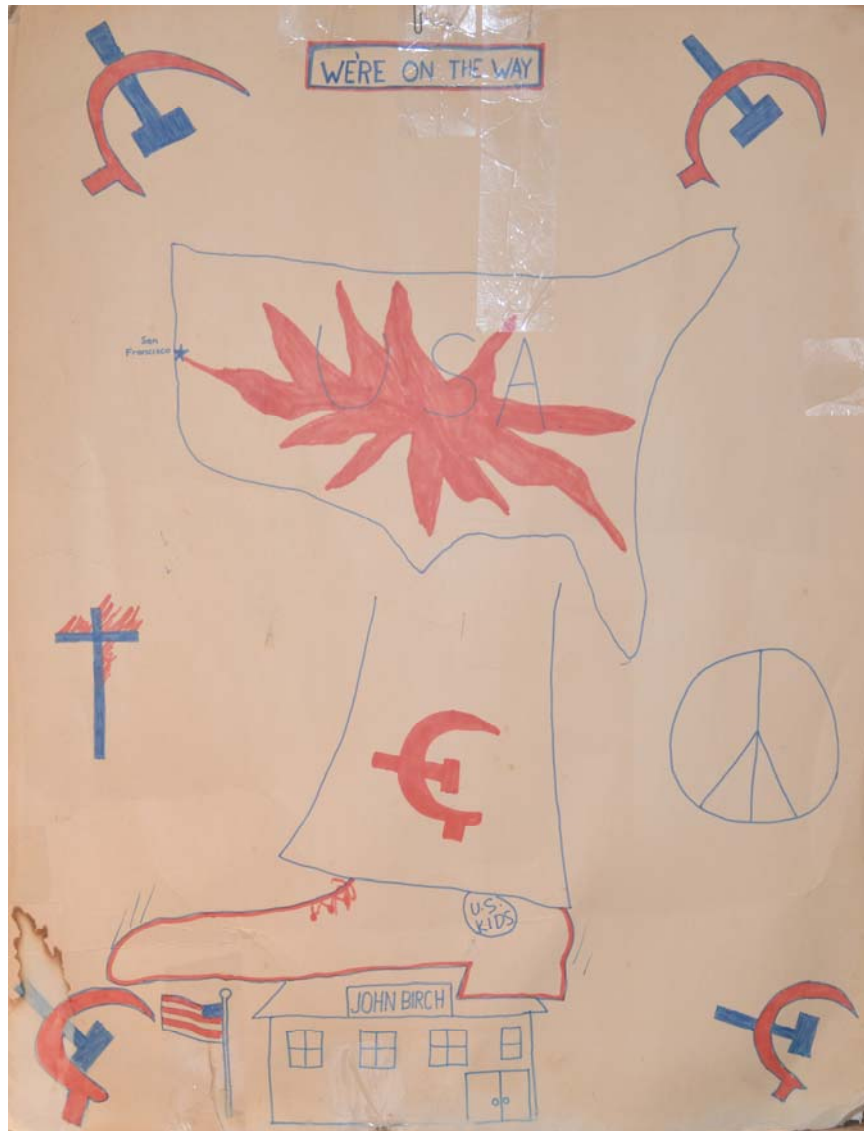

We owned a home in our town. The town had a free weekly throw on your lawn paper. We seldom read it, but this day I picked it up and for some reason read it. On the front page was a small article telling that they were going to fly the UNITED NATIONS flag over the City Hall and the high school on United Nations Day. We were so angry we at once decided NOT OVER OUR CITY HALL AND HIGH SCHOOL where we live. We called the mayor and told him it was not going to fly. Of course he simply said it was. We told him if he did not at once stop the whole thing we would at once start contacting the people of the town and see that he stopped. We started calling many and the mayor began to receive many calls. The flag did not fly.

We called the superintendent of the high school and asked him to see that it did not fly there. We told him the City Hall story. He said it would not fly. We drove by both places. It was not flying over City Hall, but was at the school. We went to the superintendent and told him either he or we would take it down at once! Whichever he wanted, it was coming down. We went out and it came down. We advised him that we would be driving by often to see that it did not go back up.

The sign (on next page) was on our tree the next morning. We called the Chief of Police and told him to come over to our house at once. He and one other man came. We showed him the sign and he said, "what was wrong with it?" and "must have been some kids did it." We took them into the house, sat them down and tried to teach them what was happening to our city and our country and that it was very serious. They were BRAIN DEAD or PART OF THE PROBLEM. Never heard from them again.

COMMUNISM

LOOK VERY CAREFULLY AT THE POSTER and go back through the years since we received it on our tree. At the top of the picture they say, "WE'RE ON OUR WAY." Everything they show they will destroy is almost complete. CE

COMMUNISM

Take a good look at this poster, Remnant, Gideon Soldier. “They” have to tell what they are planning on doing, or what they have already done (see page 19 in this newsletter).

The hammer and sickle, long the symbol of evil Communism, is joined by the ‘peace’ symbol, and both are joined by the burning cross of Christianity. “Their” plans then, and now, are to replace the Christianity in America with “their” ‘peace,’ which is death to Christianity and to Christians!

Notice on “their” poster, how the ‘red’ flows from San Francisco. “They” have succeeded in spreading “their” poisonous filth of homosexuality, an absolute abomination to God and to His people, all across this nation. It only brings death.

The filth has flowed out of California (as California goes, so goes the nation) from not only San Francisco, but from Hollywood as well; and has all but succeeded in brainwashing our children and our people to “their” ungodly, sinful, Communistic lies. The poster shows that it is the “US KIDS” who are stomping on this Christian family’s home, (represented by what was once a good, godly, anti-Communist organization; the John Birch Society, which has long been taken over by the anti-christ’s). “Their” plan of long ago is to corrupt and steal our children.

In this poster, from the early 1960’s, “they” told their plans; plans that were well under way, even back then. At the top of the poster we read, “We’re on the way.” They were on the way then, and they are well established now. However, God sits in the heavens and laughs (Psalm 2:4) and in His infinite wisdom, He saw fit to have this presented to His Remnant now, in 2013.

My times are in Thy hand; Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me. Psalm 31:15

Heed the warning! Trust in Him and His Word!

Many say, just what is Communism? Glad you asked.

Communism can best be defined as satan’s government on earth. The devil of old is a thief, who comes to steal, kill and destroy, and his followers do the same. It is the government that has killed more people in our recent history than all the others combined.

COMMUNISM

A common denominator of all of the Communist regimes has been gun control and gun confiscation. Many today are seeing us head down that exact road, with what this left-leaning and anti-christ government that is ruling over us today is planning. "They," the anti-christ's, have been at it a long time. Our enemy has always had the ability to think and plan and work generationally, whereas we are usually more concerned about just right here and right now.

It is because of our sin that this God-hating, antichrist Communism (and Communists) have come upon us. Since sin got us in this mess, only repentance can get us out.

Awake, awake, Clothe yourself in your strength, O Zion; Clothe yourself in your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city. For the uncircumcised and the unclean Will no more come into you. Shake yourself from the dust, rise up, O captive Jerusalem; Loose yourself from the chains around your neck, O captive daughter of Zion. For thus says the LORD, "You were sold for nothing and you will be redeemed without money." Isaiah 52:1-3

WAKE UP! Remnant, help WAKE UP your friends and family and neighbors to the real problem in our land today, and that is the SIN PROBLEM. Because we have turned from the "Rock the we were hewn from," and wanted to be like all the other peoples, and have turned away from Jesus Christ, the King of kings and LORD of lords; and have NOT kept His laws, statutes and judgments, then we have been given into the hands of the enemy. We have once again been "sold for nothing," and are in dire need of being, as Isaiah wrote, "redeemed without money." We are only redeemed and can only be saved by the precious blood of our LORD and Savior Jesus Christ. Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but through Me."

John 14:6.

Repent, America, Repent, and..."Be saved from this perverse generation!"

Acts 2:40

From the Mailbag

Remnant, if you don't believe that there is a satan, and that he does have his followers, then read the following that we recently received in the mail. Decide for yourself.

Greetings in satan's darkness!

I am asking you to please remove me from your mailing list/the DragonSlayer. I have decided to embrace my evil and become a disciple of the true lord, satan. (all be his glory.) I no longer wish to get your filth about the false prophet, Jesus, (may he burn forever). Woe to you, oh earth and sea, for the devil sends the beast with wrath... Colorado

[from SFA: We urge you, Christian brethren, to pray on the full armor of God daily, on you and your family, so that you may be able to resist and fight against this type of enemy in the spiritual battle, (the Unseen War) that we are in...]

Greetings Wranglers,

Enjoying Coffee Time with you all this Saturday morning, listening with my iPhone! What a blessing to be able to do so. I also listen in to the Live broadcasts during the week, Saddle Up, the Prayer Meeting and the other programs. So glad I can listen this way! Keep up the good work, and I'll be telling others about listening in with their iPhone.

From the Mailbag

Dear SFA Staff,

Thank you for the DVD's and the Scriptures for America calendar. The DVD's on Baal Worship are great! And what an eye-opener into Scriptures and understanding of our God and King! I feel very blessed to be receiving Pastor Peters' sermons. I do believe that he was called of God to be a true teacher and to shepherd "His" people.

Thank you to all you men who are standing in the gap and carrying on the ministry. May God grant you wisdom and understanding and health.

I know that King Jesus is still on the throne and that He is coming again soon to judge and to destroy the tares. I pray that the eyes and ears of "His people" will soon be opened and that there will be a true repentance and seeking His face. He keeps His word...!

Mission,
British Columbia, Canada.

Dear SFA,

Last summer I married this person who was pretending to be human. After she tried to poison me, I found out she is a witch. I have moved back to my cabin in the woods, and finally...the divorce is final. She must use only her last name, and not connect herself with my name in any way, and never take out a Life Insurance Policy on me. Amen. Please pray for me. I sure miss Pastor Peters...

Dear SFA Staff,

The messages on Baal Worship are awesome! Pastor Peters is a light that still shines to the world the Kingship of Jesus. No King but Jesus!

From A Wrangler's Wife

“Hey Mom? Could you please buy me ‘brand X (containing fluoride) toothpaste?’ I don’t like the taste of the kind we have now.” These words can send any mother (who knows the dangers of fluoride) into thinking, “Where did I go wrong!” It might make the rest of you think, “What difference does it make? You don’t swallow toothpaste! How bad can it be?”

Well, conversations like these go on in our households, a lot. And, just like knowing the Bible and truths we’ve discovered in there... we have truths, such as the dangers of fluoride, that we need to teach to others as well. (And as women, either to our children, grandchildren or children we may have in the future.) So, that is what I am hoping to do here, and maybe to other women to teach to their families (especially those with babies).

What is Fluoride? The following paragraph is from the book, Cancer: Step Outside the Box by Ty Bollinger:

Fluoride is any combination of elements containing the fluoride ion. In its elemental form, fluorine is a pale yellow, highly toxic and corrosive gas. Fluorine compounds (“fluorides”) are listed by the US Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry as among the top 20 of 275 substances that pose the most significant threat to human health. They are cumulative toxins.

Ty Bollinger’s book (available from SFA for a donation of $32.00, see order form) has a whole chapter devoted to fluoride. This book is required reading for my high-school aged children. Because the book goes into such a wide variety of topics like fluoride (in addition to cancer), it helps them understand why we do certain things and avoid others in our homes. (And not just that mom’s a fanatic!)

For further study and research look up this website:

http://www.naturalnews.com/030123_fluoride_babies.html

Also see Fluoridegate, online, a new documentary film, made by Dr. David Kennedy.

From A Wrangler's Wife

Advocates of fluoridated water insist that the chemical additive is good for teeth, but actual science routinely shows otherwise, including a new study published in the Journal of the American Dental Association confirming fluoride as a toxic substance that actually destroys teeth, particularly those of developing young children and babies. For more on this subject, see; www.cheeseslave.com/top-10-dangers-of-fluoride/

Some Ways to Avoid Fluoride

- Avoid processed and packaged food
- Buy fluoride-free toothpaste
- Avoid fluoride treatments at the dentist
- Filter your tap water
- Don't drink soda pop, or coffee or iced tea at restaurants
- Don't drink bottled water (with the exception of European water) as it is usually fluoridated
- Don't use tap water if feeding your baby formula (of course, I don't recommend using baby formula anyway – if you can't breastfeed, it's best to make homemade baby formula)
- Don't smoke
- Don't use Teflon (non-stick) cookware

B-vitamins are one of the most important vitamins for giving you the energy to work all day. B complex helps metabolize carbohydrates, the body and brain's main source of fuel. The lack of B-vitamins can cause body fatigue, dizziness, memory problems, depression and lead to other illnesses.

February Prayer

We are in the Last Days, spoken of in 2 Timothy, Chapter 3 and also in Romans, Chapter 1. The evil is increasing all around us, it is growing more and more. The truth of God and His Word has been replaced with the lies of satan the great deceiver. He is a liar and a murderer, and those that follow him do his will. Paganism, atheism and a host of other antichrist religions are growing more prominent each and every day, as more and more of the people slip further and further away from the true God.

As Christians we need to be aware of this and see it for what it is; the Last Days upon us, and call it what it is; increased demonic activity. 1 Peter 5:8 tells us to; "Be of sober spirit, be on the alert. Your adversary, the devil, prowls about like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour."

Although we are under attack today, both in the physical and in the spiritual realms, we have to remember and recognize that Jesus Christ came to save us, and to give us liberty (James 1:25) and freedom (Galatians 5:13) from our sins and from our enemies and from all who hate us. We must daily pray the LORD's Prayer, and we must also pray on the full armor of God on ourselves and on our families. We are to cover them with the protection that God provides. Parents, walk in His ways and do not forget Him or His mighty miracles, and He will not forget your children. Read and heed what the Word tells us.

Be Strong! Many have forgotten this simple but important commandment. 1 Corinthians 16:13 tells us to; Be on the alert, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong.

When we humble ourselves and seek Him, and submit to Him, what happens? The Bible tells us in James 4:7-8; Submit therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Draw near to God and He will draw near to you.

We are to endure (Mark 13:13), we are to persevere (Romans 5:3), and we are to overcome with Him (1 John 2:13 and Revelation 21:7).

February Prayer

When we walk in His light (1 John 1:7), we abide under His wings and are protected and delivered by the mightiest power that has ever been.

Preparatory Prayer

Heavenly Father, thank you for the full armor that You have given us. Help us to put it on daily, and to trust in You and Your Word. Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of His might. Put on the full armor of God, that you may be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore, take up the full armor of God, that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. Stand firm therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; in addition to all, taking up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming missiles of the evil one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Ephesians 6-17

In our weakness, Your mighty and powerful strength is made known. We do remember You, oh LORD, and when we do, we know that You remember our children. Oh Mighty God, remember not the sins of Your people, but see us through the blood of Your only begotten Son, Jesus Christ.

We praise You, oh LORD, for all that has come upon us. Thank You for the promise and truth in Your Word. We know that it is because of our sin that we are in the predicament that we are in today, our enemies ruling over us, seeking to destroy us and anything and everything that is good and righteous and Christian. We repent of our sin, and we turn back to You. We do praise You who are righteous and Holy and whose Word is perfect. We know that when we cry out to You and praise You, then You are moved to deliver us. Be so moved, oh LORD, forgive our sins, forget us not, and deliver us today!

February Prayer

Imprecatory Prayer

The evil of the day, the spiritual forces of darkness, seek to destroy us and our families. Destroy them, oh LORD, before they destroy us. We cry out to You, save us, Jesus! Save our children! Save our families! Save Your remnant!

We cry out to You as the Psalmist did in Psalm 94 and Psalm 79: O Lord, God of vengeance; God of vengeance, shine forth! Rise up, O Judge of the earth; Render recompense to the proud. Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" Let there be known among the nations in our sight, Vengeance for the blood of Thy servants, which has been shed.

Repay Your enemies, oh LORD. Crush the wicked ones and the tares before they crush and destroy us completely. Let them know that it is You who rule in heaven and on earth, and it is You who pay back deed for deed and destruction for destruction!

In the Name of Jesus Christ, and to His glory, we come against all the descendants of Ham, Cush and Nimrod together with the spirits of the Nicolaitians, the Gaia, the Gnostics, and let us not forget that wicked Spirit of Jezebel; along with every other demon, lie, spell or demonic spirit that would dare to try to come upon Your Church, Your Remnant, or upon one who has been bought and payed for by Your precious Blood; We cast you out, to the feet of Jesus Christ to be sent to that lake where fire and brimstone burn. LORD Jesus, bring Your swift destruction, upon those that would dare to blaspheme your mighty and Holy Name. We pray all these things believing and knowing that whatever we ask in Jesus' name is granted. To Your glory! In the Name above all others, Jesus Christ! Amen.
