“It is Time!”

Ecclesiastes 3:1 tells us:

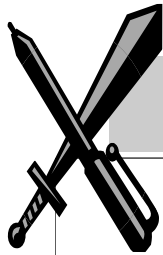

There is an appointed time for everything.

If you are not registered for the Branson-area SFA Gathering, then your time is almost up!

We encourage you to take the time NOW to join your Church family on June 7, 8, and 9, 2013, in the Branson, Missouri area, for a Jesus Christ-centered weekend of worship and praise.

Like-minded Christians will gather with the SFA Worldwide Ministry for fellowship, proper and true Bible teaching, baptisms, prayers for the sick, and praise and worship to the King of kings and LORD of lords, Jesus Christ.

Registration IS required, and space is limited. Details can be found inside this Dragon-Slayer Newsletter.

Greetings to the once lost but now found sheep of the house of Israel!

I want to thank those of you that have heeded their responsibility to the Body of Christ, to make the sacrifice to pray and/or fast (although many that have answered that call, have said it is not a sacrifice, it is a blessing).

By now, I hope you have done whatever it takes to make plans to join the remnant this June 7th, 8th and 9th in the Branson area for our Annual Gathering. We here at Scriptures for America are convinced that the Holy Spirit is moving in a mighty way and that the prayers of the saints are being answered. Through the preparation of this forty days of prayer and fasting, God's people are diligently seeking the proper state of heart, mind and soul, humbling ourselves into submission to the King of Kings and the LORD of Lords, Jesus Christ!

We are seeking to do His will, on Earth as it is in Heaven. Let each one of us, the true Remnant, call out just as Isaiah did.

"Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?" Then I said, "Here am I. Send me!" Isaiah 6:8 (NASB)

As we see the day draw nearer, we witness the birth pangs foretold of in the Bible come to be, and we daily see man's thoughts leaning more and more towards becoming continually evil.

"The hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth." Revelation 3:10 (KJV)

This hour of temptation will soon be upon us, and all who are not firmly established upon

From the Ram Rod @ SFA

God's Word and Christ's righteousness will be deceived and overcome.

We know that satan and his minions (those sons of the devil) are working tirelessly to gain control over mankind, and their deceptions will continue to increase right up until the very end.

Only those who are earnestly seeking the knowledge of truth and are striving to purify their souls through obedience, being doers of God's Word, will find their sure defense in Jesus Christ!

"Because thou hast kept the word of My patience, I also will keep thee."

Revelation 3:10 (KJV)

This is Christ's promise. This world is on the very edge of eternity and we are soon to see that "great and dreadful day of the Lord," where Christ Jesus, with all His holy angels, will burst upon the world with great glory to claim what is rightfully His.

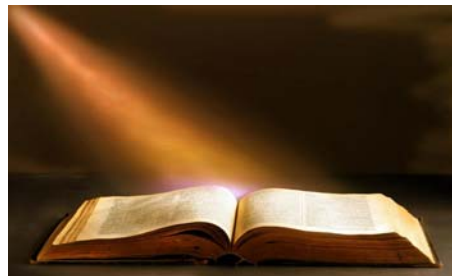

Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

Isaiah 58:1 (KJV)

In studying Bible prophecy, you will find that it contains some of the most solemn warnings. We, as soldiers of Christ, are called to proclaim those warnings to the world. Only through the righteousness of Christ can we overcome the evil one.

WE, the true remnant, will not be moved nor even swayed by worldly excitement or false revivals. We will have our hearts, our minds, and our souls fixed on Jesus Christ! We are in the last hour, The Day of the LORD is at hand, and it is time to get ready. The final calls are going out to the world. COME OUT OF HER MY PEOPLE!

God is preparing to pour out His Spirit onto His people and we must be earnest in praying for that Spirit to fall upon us. We must depart from sin, humble our hearts and fall before the One who can save us, our LORD, Savior and soon to be coming King of Kings, Jesus Christ!

From the Ram Rod @ SFA

You simply CANNOT understand Bible prophecy until you know the Israel Truth, until you expose the Israeli lie (with a heavy emphasis on the lie!). It was the Roman Catholic Jesuits who started this false teaching that the fulfillment of end-time Bible prophecy would happen with the nation of Israel; masking the real truth which all the brave Protestant reformers knew about and boldly proclaimed. But why would they do that, what did they have to gain? I'm glad you asked.

I believe the early Jesuits re-interpreted prophecy to remove the focus off the Papal & the Roman Catholic Church, thereby placing the focus of the end-times on the literal nation of Israel. The answers to all of these questions regarding prophecy can only be found through one source, that the majority of the world have forgotten about, THE BIBLE! When you study the Word of God you will see that these things were prophesied to happen a long, long, time ago.

Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful; and let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds, not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more, as you see the day drawing near.

Hebrews 10:23-25 (NASB)

Come quickly LORD Jesus!

The Cupbearer

So what is a cupbearer? I'm glad you asked. As I was researching Scriptures, I noticed the phrase in Nehemiah 1; Now I was the cupbearer to the king. Naturally, curiosity got the best of me and this is the result of what I found.

The International Standard Bible Encyclopedia explains. A cupbearer was "an officer of high rank at ancient courts, whose duty it was to serve the wine at the king's table. On account of the constant fear of plots and intrigues, a person must be regarded as thoroughly trustworthy to hold this position. He must guard against poison in the king's cup, and was sometimes required to swallow some of the wine before serving it. His confidential relations with the king often endeared him to his sovereign and also gave him a position of great influence" as a matter of fact the cupbearer received the fourth highest salary, above even that of the justice of the highest court of the day.

That brings me to the important teaching found in the book of Nehemiah.

Nehemiah was among the Israelites who remained in the Persian Empire following the seventy years of Babylonian Captivity. He became a trusted man of importance in the government. The occasion arose that he had to go and ask the king for a favor. Before he went to the throne, he prayed this: "O Lord, I pray, please let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants who desire to fear Your name; and let Your servant prosper this day, I pray, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man." Nehemiah was not just a personal servant to the king, he was his cupbearer, a trusted confidant and advisor. It was an office of great responsibility, power and honor in the kingdom. He was making this request because he was very troubled that the situation in JerUSAlem was very bad and that, "The remnant there in the province who survived the captivity are in great distress and reproach, and the wall of Jerusalem is broken down and its gates are burned with fire." Does this sound familiar?

Nehemiah, the cupbearer, was concerned for his brethren. He could have stayed at his well-paying, safe and secure position, but he did not. He answered the call of his people. Now it came about when I heard these words, I sat down and wept and mourned for days; and I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

Nehemiah 1:4

He was so concerned about the condition of his fellow Israelites "back home" that he wept, mourned, and fasted for many days. We, the remnant, are to be equally concerned about the spiritual state and salvation of our brethren.

We are to be as Paul, crying out to God. Brethren, my heart's desire and my prayer to God for them is for their salvation. For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not in accordance with knowledge. For not knowing about God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God.

Romans 10:1-3

We, as Christians, are always concerned over friends and family who have been diagnosed with cancer, lose their homes in a fire, or are laid off from their jobs. In accordance with God's Word, we are to love our neighbors as ourselves. But are we as concerned about their souls?

So what is it that we as Christians are to do once we make the decision that we want to change, that we care about our lost brothers and sisters (some blood family)? What did Nehemiah do? The very first thing that he did was pray.

And I said, "I beseech Thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who preserves the covenant and loving-kindness for those who love Him and keep His commandments, let Thine ear now be attentive and Thine eyes open to hear the prayer of Thy servant which I am praying before Thee now, day and night, on behalf of the sons of Israel Thy servants, confessing the sins of the sons of Israel which we have sinned against Thee; I and my father's house have sinned.

Nehemiah 1:5-6

We can learn much from this “minor” prophet. Before we ever undertake any endeavor, especially for the LORD, we should always ask God’s help, blessings and favor in prayer.

"And all things you ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive."

Matthew 21:22

However, Nehemiah did not just pray. He wept and he mourned and he fasted. We may not individually be able to do everything that needs to be done, but there is almost always something that each one of us can do.

Whatever your hand finds to do, verily, do it with all your might;

Ecclesiastes 9:10

We also need to realize that whatever work the LORD has for us to do in this life, we have only a limited time to accomplish it, so we must get busy. We must work the works of Him who sent Me, as long as it is day; night is coming, when no man can work.

John 9:4

There is much to be learned throughout the Book of Nehemiah. He rallied the troops to rebuild what had been torn down and destroyed. ...from whom the whole body, being fitted and held together by that which every joint supplies, according to the proper working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.

Ephesians 4:16

Not everyone was happy with Nehemiah’s work, especially Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian. They tried several methods in their attempt to stop his efforts.

First, they used mocking and ridicule. Now Tobiah the Ammonite was near him and he said, "Even what they are building--if a fox should jump on it, he would break their stone wall down!"

Nehemiah 4:3

The Cupbearer

Even through all of this, what was Nehemiah's response? Again he went to God in prayer. "Hear, O our God, for we are despised; turn their reproach on their own heads, and give them as plunder to a land of captivity!" (v. 4) And what did the people do? "So we built the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a mind to work." (v. 6) God's people today can expect ridicule too. "Knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts, and saying, 'Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation.'" 2 Peter 3:3-4

The best way to deal with scoffers is simply to pray and just keep on working. There truly is nothing new under the sun. The same case could be made for the time of Noah, when the people laughed and ridiculed him as he went about the business of the LORD.

Second, the enemies attempted to stop the work by threats of force.

"Now it happened, when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the walls of Jerusalem were being restored and the gaps were beginning to be closed, that they became very angry, and all of them conspired together to come and attack Jerusalem and create confusion. Nevertheless we made our prayer to our God, and because of them we set a watch against them day and night." Nehemiah 4:7-9

To deal with this, Nehemiah prayed, then set a watch and made plans to defend the workers. It is the same in the work of the LORD today. Although we do not fear from threats of physical force, (they are real, though). However, the greater enemy is the spiritual enemy, and we need to be watchful and prepared as Nehemiah was. “Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.”

1 Peter 5:8

Third, the enemies sought to promote compromise.

“Now it happened when Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there were no breaks left in it (though at that time I had not hung the doors in the gates), that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, ‘Come, let us meet together among the villages in the plain of Ono.’ But they thought to do me harm. So I sent messengers to them, saying, ‘I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and go down to you?’”
Nehemiah 6:1-3

On the surface, to the average sheep, this sounds like a reasonable request. “Let’s talk.” But Nehemiah knew that their real goal was to stop the work, so he just refused. There will always be temptations to compromise with the world, so we simply must refuse to compromise and not become lukewarm as the church of Laodicea.

“Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.”
James 4:4

Fourth, finally the enemies of God will use fear tactics to threaten you.

“Then Sanballat sent his servant to me as before, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand. In it was written: ‘It is reported among the nations, and Geshem says, that you and the Jews plan to rebel; therefore, according to these rumors, you are rebuilding the wall, that you may be their king. And you have also appointed prophets to proclaim concerning you at Jerusalem, saying, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ Now these matters will be reported to the king. So come, therefore, and let us consult together.’ Then I sent to him, saying, ‘No such things as you say are being done, but you invent them in your own heart.’ For they all were trying to make us afraid, saying, 'Their hands will be weakened in the work, and it will not be done.' Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands."

Nehemiah 6:5-9

Basically, Nehemiah ignored them. Yes, he answered their ridiculous charges, but rather than letting himself become distracted and deterred, he just went on building. Notice, too, that he kept on praying. When the enemies of God try to scare us, we should do what Jesus tells us in Matthew 15:14. "Let them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both will fall into a ditch."

We too must strive to accomplish success and finish the work that has been put before us.

"So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days. And it happened, when all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations around us saw these things, that they were very disheartened in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was done by our God."

Nehemiah 6:15-16

Again, we know we can do nothing without God. Nehemiah did not do all this work himself, but he was the kind of leader who, when he fulfilled his own personal responsibility, was able to encourage others to join in and help. And, when each one of us fulfills his or her personal responsibility and work together, we shall get things accomplished. "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

1 Corinthians 15:58

I can't help but think of our Pastor, how he not only fulfilled his own personal responsibility, but he trained up the saints the best he knew how. He suffered great hardships to teach the remnant so that they would not have to go through it too.

"Let them alone.

They are blind

leaders of the blind.

And if the blind leads the blind,

both will fall into a ditch."

Matthew 15:14

The Cupbearer

We have the weapons, we have the truth! The enemies of God know that if His people will humble themselves and pray and seek His face, then He will hear from Heaven, will forgive their sin and will heal their land. He will punish their disobedience when our obedience is complete. He will gather, bind and burn the tares. Now it is our turn. Now is the time to remember and to cry out, "If God be for us who can be against us?" Nehemiah was sure that the people knew how critical it was for God's people to follow the Law.

PRAYER
FASTING

And all the people gathered as one man at the square which was in front of the Water Gate, and they asked Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses which the LORD had given to Israel. Then Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly of men, women, and all who could listen with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. And he read from it before the square which was in front of the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of men and women, those who could understand; and all the people were attentive to the book of the law...And they read from the book, from the law of God, translating to give the sense so that they understood the reading.

Nehemiah 8:1-3, 8

He taught them once again to confess their sins.

"Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, in sackcloth, and with dust on their heads. Then those of Israelite lineage separated themselves from all foreigners; and they stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers."

Nehemiah 9:1-2

He knew the importance of: "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

I John 1:9

One final accomplishment was to end the practice of intermarriage with pagans, which brought impurity among the Israelites.

B-184 The Tender Twig $14.00

A unique and moving story telling of the romance between Princess Tamar Teah Tephi and Prince Eochaidh, beginning in the dim past of Biblical days, around B.C. 586, having a surprising Cinderella motif set against a gripping backdrop of history and reaching a climax at Tara in Ireland.

Printed in Great Britain. A fun summer-read!

B-100 To Train Up A Child $9.00

Training is a technique that works on every child. To neglect training is to create miserable circumstances for you and your child. Out of ignorance many have bypassed training and expected discipline alone to effect proper behavior. It has not worked.

From successful parents, learn how to maintain fellowship with your child, spank less and get total obedience.

B-199 Children's Manners and Morals $7.00

Selected excerpts and illustrations from early America etiquette manuals describing acceptable behavior and manners of social engagements of the times. In those days, all children were considered to be young adults and expected to obey the same rules of etiquette as adults. Etiquette was taught as the primary lesson to transform boys into young gentlemen and girls into ladies.

“In those days I also saw Jews who had married women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. And half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and could not speak the language of Judah, but spoke according to the language of one or the other people. So I contended with them and cursed them, struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, ‘You shall not give your daughters as wives to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons or yourselves.’”

Nehemiah 13:23-25

As Nehemiah went on to say, God had forbidden this practice to Israel, and when they failed to obey God’s will, as Solomon had done, the result was sin and apostasy. Today, it is so important for us as Christians to make sure that we teach our children the Truth and to keep ourselves pure from the evil of this world.

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.”

Romans 12:1-2

This is one of the blueprints to repentance. Let those that have eyes to see and ears to hear, heed the call. We can learn many important lessons and greatly benefit from studying the life of this man who went from being a cupbearer for a king to being a cupbearer for the King of kings and the LORD of lords. From the Mailbag

Hello, my name's Gary and I'm wanting to receive your newsletter, the DragonSlayer. I am currently visiting relatives in North Carolina, and they have "turned me on" to your radio broadcasts. I am hoping that I may receive your DragonSlayer newsletter through the U.S. mail. Is this possible? I sure hope so; I need it! Here's my address, and I am hoping to hear from you! Thanks very much, and God bless you! Gary, SC

Dear Christian Soldiers, Wow, and thank you very much for sharing with us once again our Pastor's spark of fearlessness. Thank you so much for today's sermon and such a Spirit of Courage. May we yearn and pray for that same Spirit upon each of us who long for that same mindset of our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. May we continue the LORD'S work, as well as our Pastor's, of seeing to it that the spark that has been kindled continues to burn to HIS END.

"This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth: but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. HAVE NOT I COMMANDED THEE? BE STRONG AND OF A GOOD COURAGE; BE NOT AFRAID, NEITHER BE THOU DISMAYED: FOR THE LORD THY GOD IS WITH THEE WHITHERSOEVER THOU GOEST."

May the LORD continue the work which HE has started in each of us until the day HE brings it unto completion - ALL for HIS Glory and Honour. Via Email

I would like to start by saying thank you for this presentation of a truth that's not being told because nobody wants to rewrite history. This is fantastic work & the proof is there, more will be found & it will not be possible to suppress the white races' history from them for much longer!

I am a Swedish citizen with parts of my roots in the USA, my grandparents was two Swedes that migrated from Sweden & immigrated to the USA in the early 1920's. They met & got married in Chicago where they lived & worked until mid-1930's when they went back to the homeland on vacation & never returned to the USA. So now I have completed my presentation.

I would like to present to all you Scandinavians in the USA a proof that the Scandinavians also are one of the lost Israeli tribes, because they have found 9 Rune-stones in Blekinge, Southern Sweden that no one could interpret until 1998 when a guy said that it might have been written in another language.

Sincerely Yours, Mats R.

Dear SFA, More information on how the current military leaders are doing all they can to purge the military of any and all things Christian.

"Soldiers at Fort Wainwright in Alaska told --- News they received a directive to turn in their scopes so the Bible references could be removed. The scopes were made by Trijicon and referenced New Testament passages in John 8:12 and 2 Corinthians 4:6. The verses appeared at the end of the scope serial numbers – "JN8:12" and "2COR4:6."

"The biblical verse (JN8:12) must be removed utilizing a Dremel type tool and then painted black," read instructions on how to remedy the matter.

91st Days

Following Passover Day, there are four 91st Days, which are like Soldier Sabbaths and likened as the four fingers on a hand. Passover is likened as the "thumb day".

We suggest you read and pray the 91st Psalms on these 91st Days, and observe these days as Sabbaths.

These Soldier Sabbaths are in addition to the regular 7th day "Lord's Day" observed by the early Church and by Christians today. If you simply cannot observe these 91st Days Sabbaths, the truth of Romans 8:1 is still the promise to the Christian.

The following are the dates for the 91st Days for calendar year 2013.

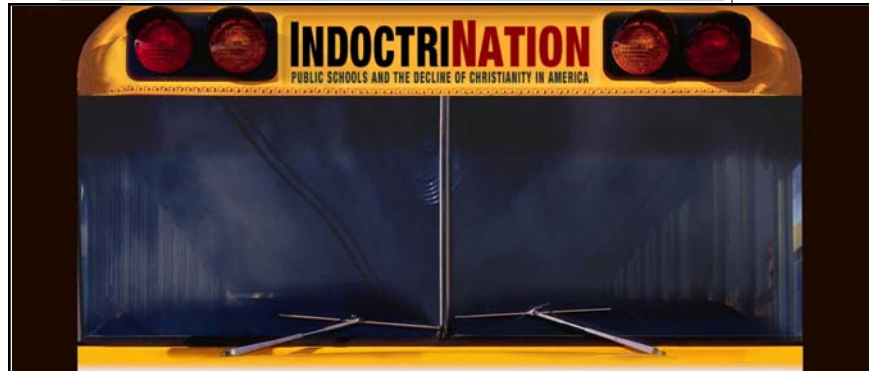

(starting at noon)

June 18, 2013,
September 17, 2013,
and December 17, 2013.

We realize it will only be the "remnant of the remnant" that Pastor Peters calls the "Barley first-fruit Gideon force" that takes seriously the 91st Days teachings. For more explanation on these teachings, order our "91st Days Packet", available from this ministry and can also be read at the Ministry website, scripturesforamerica.org.

If you have any questions, our office phone # is 307-742-7582, our email is preacher@sfaw.org, our website is www.scripturesforamerica.org, and our mailing address is Scriptures for America, PO Box 766, LaPorte, CO 80535. This Ministry is supported by freewill tithes and offerings. Please keep this ministry in your prayers.

INDOCTRINATION

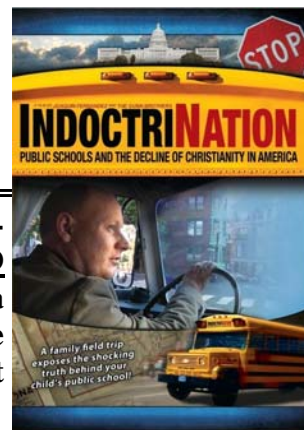

"Every Christian parent with a child in a government school should see this [movie] and be forced to confront their unwillingness to do what Scripture requires for the children on loan to them by God. A mass exodus from government schools is the only way to preserve the souls and minds of our children."

Cal Thomas (America's most widely syndicated op-ed columnist)

"This is the most important issue facing the Body of Christ, an issue that must be addressed and put to rest forever. Indoctrination is an extremely important movie. Every church in America should show Indoctrination. Every Christian should show Indoctrination to their friends."

Ted Baehr MovieGuide

SFA Ministry has this informative expose available for loan, in DVD format. This DVD shows beyond a shadow of a doubt the intention of the public school system and it's antichrist agenda.

May Prayer

This month's prayer was too long to print in this newsletter. We would be glad to mail it to those that request it, and it can be found at the Ministry website, scripturesforamerica.org. We encourage you to read and pray this prayer, this praying of humility and "Thy will be done..."

(All Scriptures are from the American Standard Version Bible.)

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done. On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we have also forgiven our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil for Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Hear us, our LORD, as we search for Thee. Hear our supplication and prayer. For You alone know the heaviness and oppression of our people. You see our sin and our iniquity, LORD. You feel the pain of our rebellion against You and Your Son, Jesus Christ. We come to You, LORD as we never have before, recognizing that our foundations have been destroyed, so therefore, what can the righteous do?

Psalm 11:2-3 For, lo, the wicked bend the bow, They make ready their arrow upon the string, That they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart; If the foundations be destroyed, What can the righteous do?

We can, according to Your Word, call upon the name of our God. For King Solomon prayed that Your people would have a way of coming back to You from sin and You answered and said:

2 Chronicles 7:12-15 And Jehovah appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice. If I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; If my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attend unto the prayer that is made in this place.

LORD, You said that if Your people (Father that is us) who are called by Your Name (Father, that is us) humble themselves and pray and seek Your face and turn from their wicked ways (Father that is our desire Lord: yea, that is us)... We humble ourselves, we pray, we intercede on behalf of our lost brethren. We entreat You, LORD, to hear us and we judge LORD that we have sinned and that our nation is overflowing with sin, and has turned from You in spirit and truth. Therefore we make supplication to You, our LORD and Savior. LORD perfect our judgments. Let us judge the body rightly, that it may be righteous and that we may not be guilty of judging the splinter in our brother's eye while we ourselves have a beam in ours. Let Your righteousness be our standard, not our own.

LORD, many of us have chosen to humble ourselves with prayer and fasting; others with prayer, and others with ways You have placed on their hearts. Honor our efforts, LORD, that You may hear from heaven and answer our hearts. Yea, LORD; give us our hearts desire, give us Your desire for us. Yea, LORD; give us a heart after Your own heart; of love, of justice and righteousness.

These monthly prayers are mailed to those that request them, and are posted at our Ministry website.
